

The book cover features a stylized illustration in shades of green and blue. In the upper left, two children are seen from behind, walking up a set of wide stone steps. The child in front wears a green shirt and blue pants, while the child behind wears a striped shirt and dark pants. To the right of the children, the title 'MEET ME AT TAMERLANE'S TOMB' is written in large, white, serif capital letters. Below the title, the author's name 'BARBARA CORCORAN' is printed in a smaller, white, serif font, followed by the text 'Illustrated by Charles Robinson' in an italicized serif font. The background of the cover is a deep green, with a brick wall visible on the right side and a bright, circular light source in the upper left corner.
