The Minor Prophets Frederick Carl Eiselen, 1907 The Early Minor Prophets Big Dream Ministries, 2005 The Bible is simply a love letter compiled into sixty six books and written over a period of sixteen hundred years by more than forty authors living on three continents Although the authors came from different backgrounds there is one message one theme one thread that runs throughout the entire Bible from the first book Genesis to the last book Revelation That message is God's redeeming love for mankind a message that is as relevant for us today as it was two thousand years ago The scope of The Early Minor Prophets Hosea Joel Amos Obadiah Jonah and Micah is broad indeed Chronologically they span more than four centuries from approximately 848 to 425 BC Geographically they touch Israel Judah Syria Moab Ammon Edom Egypt Ethiopia and Assyria Thematically they explore such topics as love mercy compassion wrath judgment holiness obedience disobedience hope repentance and many more As you begin your study of these books be prepared for gripping and graphic portrayal of both God and man Hosea's picture of God's love for his adulterous people symbolized by the prophet's love for his adulterous wife Jonah's portrayal of himself as a disobedient runaway prophet pursued by a patient God Amos's colorful visions of God's judgment that would come because of his continued disobedience and Obadiah's classic portrait of pride The setting of these books may be ancient but their message is modern You will meet the eternal God in them and you will meet yourself Welcome to the Minor Prophets whose message is major

Commentary on the Minor Prophets John Calvin, Commentaries on Hosea Joel Amos Obadiah Jonah Micah Nahum Habakkuk Zephaniah Haggai Zechariah Malachi For hundreds of years John Calvin's Commentaries have been admired and relied upon for their deep insights into Scripture Charles Spurgeon told his students It would not be possible for me too earnestly to press upon you the importance of reading the expositions of that prince among men John Calvin Of all commentators I believe John Calvin to be the most candid He was no trimmer and pruner of texts He gave their meaning as far as he knew it His honest intention was to translate the Hebrew and the Greek originals as accurately as he possibly could and then to give the meaning which would naturally be conveyed by such Greek and Hebrew words he laboured in fact to declare not his own mind upon the Spirit's words but the mind of the Spirit as couched in those words And even Arminius himself admitted Next to the perusal of the Scriptures which I earnestly inculcate I exhort my pupils to peruse Calvin's commentaries for I affirm that he excels beyond comparison in the interpretation of Scripture and that his commentaries ought to be more highly valued than all that is handed down to us by the Library of the Fathers so that I acknowledge him to have possessed above most others or rather above all other men what may be called an eminent gift of prophecy
