SCT? in Action Susan Gantt, 2005-04 Susan P Gantt Ph D CGP ABPP is the Director of the Systems Centered Training and Research Institute a psychologist in private practice in Atlanta and a faculty member in the Emory University School of Medicine Yvonne Agazarian Ed D FAGPA CGP developed a theory of living human systems and its systems centered practice and founded the Systems Centered Training and Research Institute She received the Group Psychologist of the year award from the American Psychological Association in 1997 As this book amply demonstrates SCT has turned out to have powerful organizational applications With its theory of living human systems rather than a separate theory of organizations or of organizational behavior it uses concepts that easily map onto organizational life It looks at systems as a whole but also in parts It stresses the importance of understanding boundaries and contexts It continually focuses on task and perhaps most important of all it offers a sophisticated understanding of roles which includes work roles in organizations It well may be as more consultants working in organizations become more familiar with the concepts and methods SCT offers the SCT approach will come to seem indispensable to the resolution of conflict Ken Eisold Ph D Yvonne Agazarian has long been established as one of the major theoreticians within group and organizational psychology In this book she and Susan Gantt have gathered together enriching and stimulating papers within the SCT tradition with the aim of showing us how it works in practice They have certainly succeeded SCT is about creating a new culture in which both people and the aims of the organization are strengthened and supported For those working with organizations either as leaders or consultants this book will prove to be a stimulating and reliable companion Christer Sandahl Department of Learning Informatics Management and Ethics LIME Karolinska Institute Stockholm World Class Manufacturing Philip Robinson, 2012 When Love Meets Fear David Richo, 1997 This book has been written for all people who want to let go of unreasonable fear or act more creatively in the face of reasonable fear It examines the roots of fear the fear of change of self disclosure of giving and receiving of being alone Beneath all of these is the greatest fear of all the fear of love Psychologist David Richo has charted a path that can free us from the grip of fear He suggests things to do that will help us to love even when we re afraid The way to gain power over fear he says is first to become defenseless When despite our trepidation we embrace our weakness we can no longer be wounded and fear loses its hold over us A Place for T Robert H. Lengel, 2023-01-30 Dr Lengel offers a thought provoking twist on Aesop s Hare Tortoise fable reframing it as a Human Race pitting our Hare brained heads against our Tortoise inspired hearts As we run faster and faster in our Hare like pursuits of wealth power and status we are leaving no place for the slow and steady Tortoise to speak for our humanity As a result the author poses the possibility we are creating a world with our intellects and technology that we can t relate to emotionally and spiritually We might be outrunning our humanity and setting the stage for the Hare to win this human race by default Our inability to engage each other in civil and respectful conversations the hate and violence infecting our culture and leadership failures in organizations might be evidence this sinister end is fast approaching This book is a hard hitting and at times poetic invitation to step back from our busy lives sit with the author on his front porch and question our lives and work It is an inspirational reminder of Mahatma Gandhi s warning that there is more to life than simply increasing its speed In a conversational format Dr Lengel guides us down a hopeful path forward a path illuminated by what he calls divergent thinking His words are a siren call to wake up and realize we can t afford Hare brained progress at the cost of our souls We need A Place for T in our lives now to account for the unaccountable while we still have time The Religious Forces of the United States, Enumerated, Classified, and Described on the Basis of the Government Census of 1890 ,1893 The Miscellaneous Repository Elisha Bates,1829
