Zuidema, 2011-09-23 Although French speaking Canadians have largely been Roman Catholic there has been a small but significant Protestant minority among them This collection of essays brings together the work of leading scholars in the field to bring historical perspective on this often misunderstood or forgotten religious minority Andrew Fernando Holmes

Richard Vaudry, 2020-01-29 This is the first comprehensive study of the life and work of Andrew Fernando Holmes famous for his work on congenital heart disease Physician surgeon natural historian educator Protestant evangelical Andrew Fernando Holmes s name is synonymous with the McGill medical faculty and with the discovery of a congenital heart malformation known as the Holmes heart Born in captivity at Cadiz Spain Holmes immigrated to Lower Canada in the first decade of the nineteenth century He arrived in a province that was experiencing profound social economic and cultural change as the result of a long process of integration into the British Atlantic world A transatlantic perspective therefore undergirds this biography from an exploration of how Holmes s family members were participants in an Atlantic world of trade and consumption to explaining how his educational experiences at Edinburgh and Paris informed his approach to the practice of medicine medical education and medical politics Negotiating Identities in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century

Montreal Bettina Bradbury, Tamara Myers, 2011-11-01 Negotiating Identities in 19th and 20th Century Montreal illuminates the cultural complexity and richness of a modernizing city and its people The chapters focus on sites where identities were forged and contested over crucial decades in Montreal s history Readers will discover the links between identity place and historical moment as they meet vagrant women sailors in port unemployed men of the Great Depression elite families shopkeepers reformers notaries and social workers among others This is a fascinating study that explores the intersections of state people and the voluntary sector to elucidate the processes that took people between homes and cemeteries between families and shops and onto the streets This book will be of interest to a wide range of social and cultural historians critical geographers students of gender studies and those wanting to know more about the fascinating past of one of Canada s most lively cities Peopling the North American City Sherry H. Olson, Patricia A. Thornton, 2011 A lively reconstruction of life in a booming North American city

Architectures of Hurry—Mobilities, Cities and Modernity Phillip Gordon

Mackintosh, Richard Dennis, Deryck W. Holdsworth, 2018-03-20 Hurry is an intrinsic component of modernity It exists not only in tandem with modern constructions of mobility speed rhythm and time space compression but also with infrastructures technologies practices and emotions associated with the experience of the mobilizing modern Hurry is not simply speed It may result in congestion slowing down or inaction in the face of over stimulus Speeding up is often competitive faster traffic on better roads made it harder for pedestrians to cross or for horse drawn vehicles and cyclists to share the carriageway with motorized vehicles Focusing on the cultural and material manifestations of hurry the book's contributors analyse the complexities tensions and contradictions inherent in the impulse to higher rates of circulation in modernizing cities The collection includes but also goes beyond accounts of new forms of mobility bicycles buses underground trains and infrastructure street layouts and surfaces business exchanges and hotels to show how modernity's architectures of hurry have been experienced represented and practised since the mid nineteenth century Ten case studies explore different expressions of hurry across cities and urban regions in Asia Europe and North and South America and substantial introductory and concluding chapters situate hurry in the wider context of modernity and mobility studies and reflect on the future of hurry in an ever accelerating world This diverse collection will be relevant to researchers scholars and practitioners in the fields of planning cultural and historical geography urban history and urban sociology

Quebec's Eastern Townships and the World Cheryl Gosselin, Andrew C. Holman, Christopher Kirkey, 2025-03-04 The Eastern Townships of Quebec are celebrated in popular discourse as a charming and remote nature playground for busy Montrealers an appendage to stately Quebec City and a northern abutment to the Northeast Kingdom of the United States A closer look reveals a region with its own gravity sense of being and worldly connections Quebec's Eastern Townships and the World examines the region's direct links to larger prevailing international forces and identities Here the Eastern Townships take centre stage as the reader encounters the vibrancy of a place marked not by its insularity but by its long history a central meeting ground shaped by its many engagements with the world The book provides new perspectives on compelling and significant topics in Townships history and culture including Indigenous land use the mobility of peoples to and from the region linguistic diversity economic production education sport religion and culture in myriad forms These studies recast the Eastern Townships as a centre a borderland a lieu de passage between nations communities and peoples Featuring original and compelling insights Quebec's Eastern Townships and the World confirms that this beautiful region was and is a global place one intimately connected to the world

Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools Dia Dabby, 2022-02-01 Canadian public schools have long been entrusted with the mandate of socializing children Yet this duty can rest uneasily alongside religious diversity questions Grounding its analysis in three seminal Supreme Court cases involving religion in schools Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools reveals legal processes that are unduly linear compressing multidimensional conversations into an oppositional format and stripping away the voices of children themselves Dia Dabby contends that schools are in fact

microsystems worthy of their own consideration and with the power to construct their own rules and relationships This compelling work connects many of the themes that have animated public discourse since multiculturalism was officially enacted in Canada Situating its analysis in relation to concepts of nation education and diversity Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools encourages a deeper conversation about how religion is mediated through public schools and invites a critical reassessment of the role of law in education

A Short History of Quebec John Alexander Dickinson, 2008 Written by two of Quebec's most respected historians A Short History of Quebec offers a concise yet comprehensive overview of the province from the pre-contact native period to the present day John A Dickinson and Brian Young bring a refreshing perspective to the history of Quebec focusing on the social and economic development of the region as well as the identity issues of its diverse peoples This revised fourth edition covers Quebec's recent political history and includes an updated bibliography and chronology and new illustrations A Canadian classic A Short History of Quebec now takes into account such issues as the 1995 referendum recent ideological shifts and societal changes considers Quebec's place in North America in the light of NAFTA and offers reflections on the Grard Bouchard Charles Taylor Commission on Accommodation and Cultural Differences in 2008 Engagingly written this expanded and updated fourth edition is an ideal place to learn about the dynamic history of Quebec

Montreal at War, 1914-1918 Terry Copp, 2021-11-01 Drawing from newspapers journals government reports and archival records Terry Copp one of Canada's leading military historians tells the story of how citizens in Canada's largest city responded to the challenges of the First World War Montreal at War addresses responses to the outbreak of war in Europe and the process of raising an army for service overseas It details the shock of intense combat and heavy casualties studies the mobilization of volunteers and follows the experience of battalions from Montreal to the Battle of Vimy Ridge Challenging long held assumptions Montreal at War aims to understand the war experience as it unfolded approaching history from the perspective of those who lived through it

Ring Around the Maple Cynthia R. Comacchio, Neil Sutherland, 2024-10-29 Ring Around the Maple is about the condition of children in Canada from roughly 1850 to 2000 a time during which the modern increasingly disrupted traditional ways Authors Cynthia R Comacchio and Neil Sutherland trace the lives of children over this long century with a view to synthesizing the rich interdisciplinary often multi disciplinary literature that has emerged since the 1970s Integrated into this synthesis is the authors new research into many often seemingly disparate archival and published primary sources Emphasizing how the child and childhood are sociohistoric constructs and employing age analytically and relationally they discuss the constants and the variants in their historic dimensions While childhood tangibly modernized during these years it remained a far from universal experience due to identifiers of race gender culture region and intergenerational adaptations that characterize the process of growing up This work highlights children's perspectives through close critical against the grain readings of diaries correspondence memoirs interviews oral histories and autobiographies many buried in obscure archives It is the only extant historical discussion of Canadian children that interweaves the experiences of First Nations Métis and Inuit children with those of children from a number of settler groups Ring Around the Maple makes use of photographs catalogues advertisements government publications musical recordings radio shows television shows material goods documentary and feature films and other such visual and aural testimony Much of this evidence has not to date been used as historical testimony to uncover the lives of ordinary children This book is generously illustrated with photographs and ephemera carefully selected to reflect children's lives conditions interests and obligations It will be of special interest to historians and social scientists interested in children and the culture of childhood but will also appeal to readers who enjoy the little stories that together make up our collective history especially when those are told by the children who lived them Honorary Protestants David Fraser,2015-01-01 In Honorary

Protestants David Fraser presents the first legal history of the Jewish school question in Montreal Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec Brian Young,2014-10-01 History has often ignored the influence in modern Quebec of family dynasties patriarchy seigneurial land and traditional institutions Following the ascent of four generations from two families through eighteenth century New France to the onset of the First World War Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec compares the French Catholic Taschereaus and the Anglican and English speaking McCords Consulting private institutional and legal archives Brian Young studies eight family patriarchs Working as merchants or colonial administrators in the first generation they became seigneurial proprietors officeholders and prelates The heads of both families used marriage arrangements land stewardship and judgeships to position their heirs Young shows how patriarchy was a central force in both domestic and public life as well as the ways in which Taschereau and McCord family strategies extended into the marrow of Quebec society through moral authority influence on national identities and their positions within senior offices in religious judicial and university institutions Through courthouses cemeteries belfries and their own chapels and neoclassical estates they created encompassing cultural landscapes Later generations used museums archives historian collaborators photography and modern print to elevate family achievement to the status of heroic national narratives Sagas of the monied and entrepreneurial nationalist imperatives to protect a vulnerable people and skepticism about the lasting power of great families and historical institutions have relegated the influence of the Taschereaus and McCords to obscurity Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec resuscitates the central role these elite families played in English and French Quebec

History for the Future Jocelyn Létourneau,2004-07-08 In A History for the Future Jocelyn Létourneau a leader of the new wave of Quebec intellectuals examines the hotly debated topics of history and memory in Quebec and Canada Rather than focus on the past itself he considers the challenge of turning the past into a narrative that contributes to building a better society thereby establishing a liberating legacy for that society's heirs As relatively new societies whose memories and histories are built on European foundations the interrelated narratives of Quebec and Canadian history provide a rich body of material for such a far reaching reflection By investigating the role Quebec's historical narrative plays for contemporary Quebecers L. Tourneau shows how interpretations of the past affect a society's future. The Curriculum History of Canadian Teacher Education Theodore Michael Christou, 2017-08-07 Organized by region, this edited collection provides a comprehensive look at how teacher education has evolved regionally and nationally in Canada. Offering an in-depth look at specific provinces and territories, this volume contextualizes the landscape of Canadian public education and the place of teacher education within it. Shedding light on the ways Canadian teacher education was shaped by and in turn influenced its environment, contributors evaluate the current state of education and consider themes, tensions, and historical developments, presenting a view of teacher education that encompasses both its future and its past. A significant contribution to the field of curriculum history, this book offers a benchmark for conversations about the purposes, means, and ends of teacher education in Canada.
