Mei Ling Discovers Jack Miner Jane Buttery, Yolanda Lamoure, 1997 Jack Miner was one of the first Canadians to see the need to protect the migrating ducks and geese He set up his own bird sanctuary near Kingsville in Southern Ontario over ninety years ago This story is centred around Mei Ling a recent immigrant from Hong Kong and her school friend John who visit Jack Miner s Bird Sanctuary when they want to find out more about the Canada goose Through the story more of Mei Ling s life is revealed as she discovers more about Jack Miner and his beloved geese An Unexpected Friendship Jane Buttery, 2010-10-27 Josiah Stokes Josh is the 12 year old son of an escaped slave with a desire to learn He is encouraged and supported by his teacher at the unique inter racial school He also helps in his uncle s general store after school and is reluctant to face local bullies These characteristics and the town s growing prejudice toward blacks lead to constant pestering by a bully and his gang Josh meets Seamus Maloney the 14 year old son of poor new Irish immigrants in the town he cannot read and lacks confidence but he has a gift for playing the tin whistle As their friendship grows Josh helps Seamus learn to read and the favour is returned as Seamus sticks up for Josh when bullies pick on him Together they find a joy in making music The boys adventures are set against the backdrop of growing prejudice as more slaves seek freedom in Canada There is a fire on the Amherstburg dock and a steamship trip to Toronto to pick up Seamus cousins who were orphaned as a result of the terrible sea journey from Ireland The details of the book reveal something of pioneer life as well as the desperation of Irish people who faced a voyage on a wretched coffin ship rather than die of starvation in Ireland Readers not only experience a friendship of unusual strength but also part of the history of Amherstburg Ontario a last stop on the Underground Railroad The story of two young boys respect for one another in the historical context of An Unexpected Friendship leaves readers with the realization that all men truly are created equal Canadian Book Review Annual ,1998 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 *Canadian Books in Print.
