Mel Ott The Gentle Giant:

Mel Ott Alfred M. Martin, 2003-03-25 What baseball player had more hits than Babe Ruth a better batting average than Willie Mays a better slugging average than Ty Cobb and more bases on balls than Stan Musial This is the inspirational story of Melvin Thomas Ott who at the strapping age of sixteen became a major league baseball player under the tutelage of the legendary manager of the New York Giants John McGraw Beyond the statistical record of this truly great baseball player this book focuses on Mel Ott's personal life his strong family ties and the contributions which he made to the game of baseball This volume is enhanced by intimate contact with the Ott family particularly his daughters Lyn and Barbara both of whom contributed to the story

The 1934 St. Louis Cardinals Edited by Charles F. Faber, The 1934 St Louis Cardinals were one of the most colorful crews ever to play the National Pastime Sportswriters delighted in assigning nicknames to the players based on their real or imagined qualities What a cast of characters it was None was more picturesque than Pepper Martin the Wild Horse of the Osage who ran the bases with reckless abandon led his team mates in off the field hi jinks and organized a hillbilly band called the Mississippi Mudcats He was quite a baseball player the star of the 1931 World Series and a significant contributor to the 1934 championship The harmonica player for the Mudcats was the irrepressible Dizzy Dean Full of braggadocio Dean delivered on his boasts by winning 30 games in 1934 the last National League hurler to achieve that feat Dizzy and his brother Paul accounted for all of the Cardinal victories in the 1934 World Series Some writers tried to pin the moniker Daffy on Paul but that name didn't fit the younger and much quieter brother The club's hitters were led by the New Jersey strong boy Joe Ducky Medwick who hated the nickname preferring to be called Muscles Presiding over this aggregation was the Fordham Flash Frankie Frisch Rounding out the club were worthies bearing such nicknames as Ripper Leo the Lip Spud Kiddo Pop Dazzy Ol Stubblebeard Wild Bill Buster Chick Red and Tex Some of these were aging stars past their prime and others were youngsters on their way up Together they comprised a championship ball club The Gas House Gang was the greatest baseball club I ever saw They thought they could beat any ballclub and they just about could too When they got on that ballfield they played baseball and they played it to the hilt too When they slid they slid hard There was no good fellowship between them and the opposition They were just good tough ballplayers Cardinals infielder Burgess Whitehead on When It Was A Game HBO Sports 1991
