Melancholy Of Resistance:

The Melancholy of Resistance László Krasznahorkai, 2012-09-30 From the winner of the 2015 Man Booker International Prize A powerful surreal novel in the tradition of Gogol about the chaotic events surrounding the arrival of a circus in a small Hungarian town The Melancholy of Resistance L szl Krasznahorkai s magisterial surreal novel depicts a chain of mysterious events in a small Hungarian town A circus promising to display the stuffed body of the largest whale in the world arrives in the dead of winter prompting bizarre rumors Word spreads that the circus folk have a sinister purpose in mind and the frightened citizens cling to any manifestation of order they can find music cosmology fascism The novel s characters are unforgettable the evil Mrs Eszter plotting her takeover of the town her weakling husband and Valuska our hapless hero with his head in the clouds who is the tender center of the book the only pure and noble soul to be found Compact powerful and intense The Melancholy of Resistance as its enormously gifted translator George Szirtes puts it is a slow lava flow of narrative a vast black river of type And yet miraculously the novel in the words of The Guardian lifts the The Melancholy of Resistance Laszlo?. Krasznahorkai, 2000 reader along in lunar leaps and bounds Cinematic Political Michael J. Shapiro, 2019-11-01 In this book Michael J Shapiro stages a series of pedagogical encounters between political theory represented as a compositional challenge and cinematic texts emphasizing how to achieve an effective research paper essay by heeding the compositional strategies of films The text s distinctiveness is its focus on the intermediation between two textual genres It is aimed at providing both a conceptual introduction to the politics of aesthetics and a guide to writing strategies In its illustrations of encounters between political theory and cinema the book s critical edge is its emphasis on how to intervene in cinematic texts with innovative conceptual frames in ways that challenge dominant understandings of life worlds The Cinematic Political is designed as a teaching resource that introduces students to the relationship between film form and political thinking With diverse illustrative investigations the book instructs students on how to watch films with an eye toward writing a research paper in which a film or set of films constitutes the textual Ecocriticism and the Island Pippa Marland, 2022-12-19 Islands have long been the vehicle for political theorizing subject of cultural fascination but in recent decades they have exerted an increasingly powerful centrifugal force sending writers to the outer edges of the British Irish archipelago in search of inspiration and insight Drawing on contemporary ecocritical approaches island studies and emergent archipelagic perspectives Ecocriticism and the Island explores a wide selection of island themed creative non fiction Through a combination of textual analysis and where possible original interviews and archival research Pippa Marland offers new insights into the work of Tim Robinson Brenda Chamberlain Christine Evans W G Sebald Stephen Watts Amy Liptrot Kathleen Jamie Adam Nicolson Robert Macfarlane and David Gange In assessing the ways in which these authors negotiate existing cultural tropes of the island while offering their own distinctive articulations of islandness this book represents an important intervention into island literary studies At the same time it contributes to the development of an archipelagic strand of ecocriticism one that offers a valuable perspective on human environmental relationships in an Anthropocene context W.G. Sebald and the Writing of History Anne Fuchs, Jonathan James Long, 2007 Summary W G Sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as Franz Kafka and Vladimir Nabokov is one of the most important European writers of recent decades He has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as Susan Sontag and Paul Auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim His work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history But his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other His texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images This volume seeks to respond to the complexities of Sebald's image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged Sebald experts It offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times Publisher description Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2017-06-01 The organic is by now a venerable concept within aesthetics architecture and art history but what might such a term mean within the spatialities and temporalities of film By way of an answer this concise and innovative study locates organicity in the work of B la Tarr the renowned Hungarian filmmaker and pioneer of the slow cinema movement Through a wholly original analysis of the long take and other signature features of Tarr s work author Thorsten Botz Bornstein establishes compelling links between the seemingly remote spheres of film and architecture revealing shared organic principles that emphasize the transcendence of boundaries Futurity Amir Eshel, 2024-05-31 When looking at how trauma is represented in literature and the arts we tend to focus on the weight of the past In this book Amir Eshel suggests that this retrospective gaze has trapped us in a search for reason in the madness of the twentieth century s catastrophes at the expense of literature s prospective vision Considering several key literary works Eshel argues in Futurity that by grappling with watershed events of modernity these works display a future centric engagement with the past that opens up the present to new political cultural and ethical possibilities what he calls futurity Bringing together postwar German Israeli and Anglo American literature Eshel traces a shared trajectory of futurity in world literature He begins by examining German works of fiction and the debates they spurred over the future character of Germany s public sphere Turning to literary works by Jewish Israeli writers as they revisit Israel s political birth he shows how these stories inspired a powerful reconsideration of Israel s identity Eshel then discusses post 1989 literature from Ian McEwan s Black Dogs to J M Coetzee's Diary of a Bad Year revealing how these books turn to events like World War II and the Iraq War not simply to make sense of the past but to contemplate the political and intellectual horizon that emerged after 1989 Bringing to light how reflections on the past create tools for the future Futurity reminds us of the numerous possibilities literature holds for grappling with the challenges of both today and tomorrow Poetics of Slow Cinema Emre Cağlayan, 2018-10-12 This book discusses slow cinema a contemporary global production trend that has recently gained momentum in film theory and criticism Slow films dispense with narrative progression in favour of a contemplative mood which is stretched out to the extreme in order to impel viewers to confront cinematic temporality in all its undivided glory Despite its critical reputation as an oblique mode of film practice slow cinema continues to attract challenge and provoke audiences Focusing on filmmakers B la Tarr Tsai Ming liang and Nuri Bilge Ceylan this book identifies nostalgia absurd humour and boredom as intrinsic dimensions of slow cinema and explores the ways in which these directors negotiate local filmmaking conventions with the demands of a global cinephile niche As the first study to treat slow cinema both as an aesthetic style and as an institutional discourse Poetics of Slow Cinema offers an illuminating perspective on the tradition's historical genealogy and envisions it with a Janus faced disposition in the age of digital technologies lamenting at once the passing of difficult ambiguous modernist film and capitalizing on the yearning for its absence The Fun Stuff James Wood, 2012-10-30 Following The Broken Estate The Irresponsible Self and How Fiction Works books that established James Wood as the leading critic of his generation The Fun Stuff confirms Wood's preeminence not only as a discerning judge but also as an appreciator of the contemporary novel In twenty three passionate sparkling dispatches that range over such crucial writers as Thomas Hardy Leon Tolstoy Edmund Wilson and Mikhail Lermontov Wood offers a panoramic look at the modern novel He effortlessly connects his encyclopedic passionate understanding of the literary canon with an equally in depth analysis of the most important authors writing today including Cormac McCarthy Lydia Davis Aleksandar Hemon and Michel Houellebecg Included in The Fun Stuff are the title essay on Keith Moon and the lost joys of drumming which was a finalist for last year s National Magazine Awards as well as Wood's essay on George Orwell which Christopher Hitchens selected for the Best American Essays 2010 The Fun Stuff is indispensable reading for anyone who cares about contemporary literature The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers Tommy Carteret Justus Miles Forman, 1906 Redeeming Words David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 2013-10-21 In this probing look at Alfred D blin s 1929 novel Berlin Alexanderplatz and the stories of W G Sebald Redeeming Words offers a philosophical meditation on the power of language in literature David Kleinberg Levin draws on the critical theory of Benjamin and Adorno the idealism and romanticism of Kant Hegel H Iderlin Novalis and Schelling and the nineteenth and twentieth century thought of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida He shows how D blin and Sebald writers with radically different styles working in different historical moments have in common a struggle against forces of negativity and an aim to bring about in response a certain redemption of language Kleinberg Levin considers the fast paced staccato and hard cut sentences of D blin and the ghostly languorous and melancholy prose fiction of Sebald to articulate how both writers use language in an attempt to recover and convey this utopian promise of happiness for life in a time of mourning Travellers' Tales of Wonder Simon Cooke, 2013-02-22 Exploring travellers tales of wonder in contemporary literature this study challenges a sensibility of disenchantment with travel It reassesses travel writing as an aesthetically and ethically innovative form in contemporary international literature and demonstrates the crucial role of wonder in the travel narratives of writers such as Bruce Chatwin V S Naipaul and W G Sebald Their travellers tales of wonder are read as a challenge to the hubris of thinking the world too well known and an invitation to encounter the world including its most troubling histories with a sense of wonder The Hungarian Quarterly, 2005 British Authors, Legacies of Romanticism Carmen Casaliggi, Paul March-Russell, 2013-03-05 This book visits the Romantic legacy that was central to the development of literature and culture from the 1830s onward Although critical accounts have examined aspects of this long history of indebtedness this is the first study to survey both Nineteenth and Twentieth century culture The authors consider the changing notion of Romanticism looking at the diversity of its writers the applicability of the term and the ways in which Romanticism has been reconstituted The chapters cover relevant historical periods and literary trends including the Romantic Gothic the Victorian era and Modernism as part of a dialectical response to the Romantic legacy Contributors also examine how Romanticism has been reconstituted within postmodern and postcolonial literature as both a reassessment of the Modernist critique and of the imperial contexts that have throughout this time frame underpinned the Romantic legacy bringing into focus the contemporaneity of Romanticism and its political legacy This collection reveals the diversity and continuing relevance of the genre in new and exciting ways offering insights into writers such as Browning Ruskin Pater Wilde Lewis MacNeice and Auster Manifest Manners Gerald Robert Vizenor, 1999-01-01 Gerald Vizenor counters the cultural notions of dominance false representations and simulations of absence and by documents experience and theories secures a narrative presence of Native Americans Badiou and the German Tradition of Philosophy Jan Völker, 2019-02-07 The oeuvre of Alain Badiou has gained international success and recognition but most of the secondary literature focuses on internal problems of Badiou s philosophy rather than its position within a broader philosophical genealogy This book unites philosophers from Germany Slovenia the UK Australia and France to trace the relation between elements of Badiou's philosophy and the German philosophical tradition namely the three significant movements of German Idealism Phenomenology Marxism and the Frankfurt School This is a discussion that has not yet been established although the parallels and decisive differences between poststructuralist French philosophy and German philosophy are apparent Through these paradigms Badiou s reception of German Idealism Marxism Adorno and the Critical Theory and Heideggerian phenomenology the authors shed light onto Badiou's inheritance of and engagement with these specific traditions but also highlight the links between these philosophies to open up new questions for contemporary continental thought With an original chapter from Alain Badiou himself looking back at his influences and antagonisms within the German tradition this book is essential for readers interested in the exploration of Badiou's legacy It illustrates the continuation of poststructuralist philosophy Critical Theory and the Frankfurt School assessing the place of classic continental philosophy to tackle how we might benefit from these intellectual exchanges today Institutional Trauma Lucy Thompson, 2025-11-07 This book develops a critical psychological account of trauma as an institutional phenomenon which is currently missing in psychological discourse While a great deal of attention has been paid to understanding trauma in individualized terms comparatively little attention has been paid to understanding trauma as a feature of institutions Based on the observation that experiences of trauma are deeply lodged in institutional conditions this book asks what comes into view when psychological trauma is approached as an institutional phenomenon Recognizing that the personal is political this book proposes an expanded institutional analytic of trauma and lays critical foundations for responses that treat institutions as sites of trauma and its management Drawing on a range of disciplines including critical psychology feminist theory postcolonial studies and critical trauma studies this expanded institutional analytic advocates for institutional transformation within and beyond the confines of dominant psychological knowledge's and practice Institutional Trauma is fascinating reading for academics students practitioners and anybody interested in understanding institutional power violence and harm All Y'all Heidi Siegrist, 2024-11-11 The South is often perceived as a haunted place in its region s literature one that is strange deviant or queer The peculiar often sexually charged literary worlds of contemporary writers like Fannie Flagg Monigue Truong and Randall Kenan speak to this connection between queerness and the South Heidi Siegrist explores the boundaries of negotiating place and sexuality by using the concept of Southernness a purposefully fluid idea of the South that extends beyond simple geography eschewing familiar ideas of the Southern canon When the connection between queerness and Southerness becomes apparent Siegrist shows a Southern branded queer deviance can not only change the way we think about literature but can also change Southern queer people s lived experiences Siegrist gathers a bevy of undertheorized writers from Kenan and Truong to Dorothy Allison and even George R R Martin showing that there are many queer Souths Siegrist offers these multiverses as a way to appreciate a place that is often unfriendly even deadly to gueer people But as Siegrist argues none of these Souths from the terrestrial to the imaginary would be what they are without the influence and power of queer literature
