Melito the Philosopher Melito The Philosopher,2004-06 In place of Isaac the just a ram appeared for slaughter in order that Isaac might be liberated from his bonds The slaughter of this animal redeemed Isaac from death In like manner the Lord being slain saved us being bound He loosed us being sacrificed He redeemed us For the Lord was a lamb like the ram which Abraham saw caught in the bush Sabec 10 But this bush represented the cross and that place Jerusalem and the lamb the Lord bound for slaughter

The Apologists and Paul Todd D. Still,David E. Wilhite,2024-06-13 This volume examines the use of Paul s writing within the work of ante Nicene apologetic writers It takes apologetics as a broad genre in which many early Christian writers participated offering rhetorical defenses for emerging aspects of doctrine rooted in understanding of the scriptures and often specifically the writings of Paul The volume interacts with the writings of many significant apologetic writers including Melito of Sardis Clement of Alexandria Tatian Tertullian Hippolytus and Cyprian The chapters examine how these early Christian writers used the letters of Paul to develop their own philosophical ideas and defenses of aspects of the emerging Christian faith The internationally renowned contributors have all been specially commissioned for this volume and an afterword by Todd D Still considers the question of whether or not Paul was an apologist himself

The Ante-Nicene Fathers Alexander Roberts,2007-05-01 One of the first great events in Christian history was the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD convened to organize Christian sects and beliefs into a unified doctrine The great Christian clergymen who wrote before this famous event are referred to as the Ante Nicenes and the Apostolic Fathers and their writings are collected here in a ten volume set The Ante Nicenes lived so close to the time of Christ that their interpretations of the New Testament are considered more authentic than modern voices But they are also real and flawed men who are more like their fellow Christians than they are like the Apostles making their words echo in the ears of spiritual seekers In Volume VIII of the 10 volume collected works of the Ante Nicenes first published between 1885 and 1896 readers will find a collection of ancient writings including The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs Excerpts of Theodotus Two Epistles Concerning Virginit the writings of Pseudo Clement the Apocryphal books of the New Testament The Decretals the memoirs of Edessa and various fragments of writings from the second and third centuries Many of the authors of these works are unknown but the works themselves have been greatly influential The Works of Lactantius: A treatise on the anger of God.
