Memoir Of The Life Public John Charles:

Memoir of the Life and Public Services of John Charles Frémont ... John Bigelow, 1856 This book examines the life of John Charles Frémont American explorer politician and soldier who in 1856 became the first candidate of the anti slavery Republican Party for the office of President of the United States

Memoir of the Life and Public Services of John Charles Fremont ... With ... Illustrations and ... Portrait, Etc John BIGELOW (the Elder.), 1856 Memoir of the Public Life of the Right Hon. John Charles Herries in the Reigns of George III., George IV., William IV. and Victoria Edward Herries, 1880 John Charles Fremont Andrew F. Rolle, 1999-03-01 As an explorer John Charles Frémont

led five expeditions into the American West two of them disastrous He was also one of California's first two senators 1850 America's first Republican candidate for president 1856 a Civil War general and the territorial governor of Arizona 1878-83 But his life was one of rash and rebellious conduct against authority During the Mexican War he claimed to be the military governor of California which resulted in a court martial in 1848 At the outbreak of the Civil War he reentered the army as one of four major generals outranking even Ulysses S Grant However when he antagonized President Abraham Lincoln by issuing his own emancipation proclamation in advance of the president's Lincoln relieved him of command In this comprehensive biography Andrew Rolle carefully examines the historical record with a psychobiographical approach that explores and explains the many irrationalities of Frémont's character How the West Was Drawn David Bernstein, 2018-08-01 How the West Was Drawn explores the geographic and historical experiences of the Pawnees the Iowas and the Lakotas during the European and American contest for imperial control of the Great Plains during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries David Bernstein argues that the American West was a collaborative construction between Native peoples and Euro American empires that developed cartographic processes and culturally specific maps which in turn reflected encounter and conflict between settler states and indigenous peoples Bernstein explores the cartographic creation of the Trans Mississippi West through an interdisciplinary methodology in geography and history He shows how the Pawnees and the Iowas wedged between powerful Osages Sioux the horse and captive rich Comanche Empire French fur traders Spanish merchants and American Indian agents and explorers devised strategies of survivance and diplomacy to retain autonomy during this era The Pawnees and the Iowas developed a strategy of cartographic resistance to predations by both Euro American imperial powers and strong indigenous empires navigating the volatile and rapidly changing world of the Great Plains by brokering their spatial and territorial knowledge either to stronger indigenous nations or to much weaker and conquerable American and European powers How the West Was Drawn is a revisionist and interdisciplinary understanding of the global imperial contest for North America's Great Plains that illuminates in fine detail the strategies of survival of the Pawnees the Iowas and the Lakotas amid accommodation to predatory Euro American and Native empires

Early American Nature Writers Daniel Patterson, 2007-11-30 At a time when the environment is of growing concern to students and general readers nature writing is especially meaningful This book profiles the literary careers of 52 early American nature writers such as John James Audubon Ralph Waldo Emerson Caroline Stansbury Kirkland Thomas Jefferson Henry David Thoreau and Mabel Osgood Wright Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses the writer s life and works Entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and the encyclopedia ends with suggestions for further reading Global warming pollution and other issues have made the environment a topic of constant discussion these days Many environmental concerns were treated by early American nature writers who recognized the beauty of the natural world in an age of commercial expansion Some of the most famous writers of the 18th and 19th centuries wrote about nature and their works are stylistic masterpieces At a time when students are being encouraged to read and write about nonfiction these masterworks of early American nature writing are all the more important This book gives students and general readers a welcome introduction to early American nature writers
