Memoir Of Rev Claudius Buchanan:

Memoir of Rev. Claudius Buchanan, D.D. Hugh Pearson, 1899 The Memoir of Dr Buchanan here presented to the christian public is that by Dr Pearson much abridged in parts which cannot be of permanent interest in this country with the insertion in the order of time of the most valuable portions of Dr Buchanan s Christian Researches in Asia published by himself which Dr Pearson felt constrained to omit What is retained from Dr Pearson is given in his own words except that the narrative of Dr Buchanan s life after his return to England is condensed by the American editor into one short chapter with the addition of some concluding remarks and in a few instances connecting sentences have been inserted The division of the book into parts has been dropped and the whole included in consecutive chapters It is believed that every thing of permanent value in the Memoir by Pearson is retained and that the additions from the Researches in Asia will render this volume more valuable than the original and indeed in relation to Eastern missions one of the most instructive and useful works that have been written page 3 Memoirs of the Life and Writings of the Rev.
