Memoirs From The Beijing Film Academy:

Memoirs from the Beijing Film Academy Zhen Ni, 2003-01-09 Presents for the first time in English and in depth account of the origins of China's famous Fifth Generation of filmmakers Chinese Film Jason McGrath, 2023-01-31 A tour de force chronicling the development of realism in Chinese cinema The history of Chinese cinema is as long and complicated as the tumultuous history of China itself Be it the silent the Communist or the contemporary each Chinese cinematic era has necessitated its own form in conversation with broader trends in politics and culture In Chinese Film Jason McGrath tells this fascinating story by tracing the varied claims to cinematic realism made by Chinese filmmakers officials critics and scholars Understanding realism as a historical dynamic that is both enabled and mitigated by aesthetic conventions of the day he analyzes it across six different types of claims ontological perceptual fictional social prescriptive and apophatic Through this method McGrath makes major claims not just about Chinese cinema but also about realism as an aesthetic form that negotiates between cultural conventions and the ever evolving real He comes to envision it as more than just a cinematic question showing how the struggle for realism is central to the Chinese struggle for modernity itself Chinese Films in Focus II Chris Berry, 2019-07-25 Chinese cinema continues to go from strength to strength After art house hits like Chen Kaige's Yellow Earth 1984 and Wong Kar wai's In the Mood for Love 2000 the Oscar winning success of Ang Lee's Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon 2000 disproved the old myth that subtitled films could not succeed at the multiplex Chinese Films in Focus II updates and expands the original Chinese Films in Focus 25 New Takes with fourteen brand new essays to offer thirty four fresh and insightful readings of key individual films The new edition addresses films from mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and other parts of the Chinese diaspora and the historical coverage ranges from the 1930s to the present The essays by leading authorities on Chinese cinema as well as up and coming scholars are concise accessible rich and on the cutting edge of current research Each contributor outlines existing writing and presents an original perspective on the film making this volume a rich resource for classroom use scholarly research and general reading for anyone wanting to understand more about the historical development and rich variety of Chinese cinema Contributors Annette Aw Chris Berry Yomi Braester Felicia Chan Esther Cheung Robert Chi Rey Chow Mary Farquhar Carolyn FitzGerald Ping Fu Kristine Harris Margaret Hillenbrand Brian Hu Tan See Kam Haiyan Lee Vivian Lee Helen Hok Sze Leung David Leiwei Li Song Hwee Lim Kam Louie Fran Martin Jason McGrath Corrado Neri Jonathan Noble Beremoce Reynaud Cui Shuqin Julian Stringer Janice Tong Yiman Wang Faye Hui Xiao Gang Gary Xu Audrey Yue Yingjin Zhang John Zou The Editor Chris Berry is Professor of Film and Television at Goldsmiths University of London The Education of the Filmmaker in Europe, Australia, and Asia M. Hjort, 2013-07-17 Practice based film education is a crucial element in the institutional landscape of film This book fills the gap in understanding practice based film scholarship focusing on Europe Asia and Australia Re-writing Culture in Taiwan , Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Lawrence R. Sullivan, 2016-08-03 When the Chinese Communist Party CCP assumed power in October 1949 China was one of the poorest nations in the world and so weak it had been conquered in the late 1930s and early 1940s by its neighbor Japan a country one 10th its size More than five decades later the People's Republic of China PRC is an emerging economic political and major military power with the world's fastest growing economy and largest population 1.35 billion in 2015 A member of the United Nations Security Council since the early 1970s and a nuclear power China wields enormous influence in the world community while at home what was once a nation of largely poverty stricken peasants and urban areas with little to no industry has been transformed into an increasingly urbanized society with a growing middle class and an industrial and service sector that leads the world in such industries as steel and textiles while becoming a major player in computers and telecommunications All the while the country has remained under the tight political control of a one party system dominated by the Chinese Communist Party that despite periods of intense political conflict and turmoil governs China with a membership in 2014 of 88 million people the largest single organization on earth This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about China

Film and the Chinese Medical Humanities Vivienne Lo, Chris Berry, Guo Liping, 2019-12-06 Film and the Chinese Medical Humanities is the first book to reflect on the power of film in representing medical and health discourse in China in both the past and the present as well as in shaping its future Drawing on both feature and documentary films from mainland China the chapters each engage with the field of medicine through the visual arts They cover themes such as the history of doctors and their concepts of disease and therapies understanding the patient experience of illness and death and establishing empathy and compassion in medical practice as well as the HIV AIDs epidemic during the 1980s and 90s and changing attitudes towards disability Inherently interdisciplinary in nature the contributors therefore provide different perspectives from the fields of history psychiatry film studies anthropology linguistics public health and occupational therapy as they relate to China and people who identify as Chinese Their combined approaches are united by a passion for improving the cross cultural understanding of the body and ultimately healthcare itself A key resource for educators in the Medical Humanities this book will be useful to students and scholars of Chinese Studies and Film Studies as well as global health medical anthropology and medical history

The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world Little Friends Stephanie Donald, 2005-04-07 Contributing to the growing debates on children and media worldwide Little Friends explores the pervasive presence of film culture in the lives of children in China The book also introduces the work of the little known Children s Film Studio and the Film Course a reform period attempt by Chinese filmmakers and policy leaders to control the media to which schoolchildren were exposed Stephanie Donald uses expansive firsthand interviews children s drawings and film history to tell a compelling cinematic story before it is forgotten in the onrush of globalized culture She is especially careful to bring in the interests and experiences of children themselves The book follows the trajectory of contemporary media analysis in privileging the use as well as the content of media The author s turn to the end user enriches her discussion of media literacy cultural competencies and perhaps especially in the Chinese case consideration of the desired uses of media in relation to state priorities and social expectations This is a trend that belongs to an era of digital experimentation and commercial development in interactive television streamed news and entertainment and the multiple unintended uses of Internet and mobile technologies Notwithstanding the contemporary context Donald s arguments consider a range of media deployment that although not especially new in technological terms offer new insights into a formalized Chinese media system for children Scholars and students of Asian and children s film and education will find this unique work a fascinating window into Chinese culture and society and a provocative exploration of media culture

Theorizing Colonial Cinema Nayoung Aimee Kwon, Takushi Odagiri, Moonim Baek, 2022-02 Theorizing Colonial Cinema is a millennial retrospective on the entangled intimacy between film and colonialism from film s global inception to contemporary legacies in and of Asia The volume engages new perspectives by asking how prior discussions on film form theory history and ideology may be challenged by centering the colonial question rather than relegating it to the periphery To that end contributors begin by excavating little known archives and perspectives from the colonies as a departure from a prevailing focus on Europe s imperial histories and archives about the colonies The collection pinpoints various forms of devaluation and misrecognition both in and beyond the region that continue to relegate local voices to the margins This pathbreaking study on global film history advances prior scholarship by bringing together an array of established and new interdisciplinary voices from film studies Asian studies and postcolonial studies to consider how the present is continually haunted by the colonial past Winner of the SCMS Best Edited Collection Award Transcendence and Spirituality in Chinese Cinema Kris H.K Chong,2020-05-27 This book provides a framework by which a global audience might think theologically about contemporary films produced in mainland China by Chinese directors Up to this point the academic discipline of Christian theology and film has focussed predominantly on Western cinema and as a result has missed out the potential insights offered by Chinese spirituality on film Mainland Chinese films produced within the nation s social structure offer an excellent lingua franca of China Illuminating the spiritual imagination of Chinese filmmakers and their yearning for transcendence the book uses Richard A Blake s concept of afterimage to analyse the potential theological implications of their films It then brings J rgen Moltmann s immanent transcendence and Robert K Johnston s God s wider Presence into conversation with Confucianist and Daoist ideas of there being spirituality speaking More in Life than Meets the Eye than simply material existence This all combines to move beyond film and allow for a Western audience to gain a new perspective on Chinese culture and traditions One that uses familiar Western terms while avoiding the imposition of a Western mindset This is a new perspective on cinema religion and Chinese culture that will be of keen interest to scholars of Religion and Film Religious Studies Theology Sociology of Religion and Chinese Studies The Education of the Filmmaker in Africa, the Middle East, and the Americas M. Hjort,2013-07-31 Using case studies from Nigeria Qatar the United States the West Indies and others the contributors to this volume examine aspects such as audience response film education for children and the impact on crime in the various studios clubs film festivals NGOs peripatetic workshops and alternative film schools where filmmaking is taught Historical Dictionary of Chinese Cinema Dan Luo,Tan Ye,Yun Zhu,2024-09-23 Motion pictures were introduced to China in 1896 and today China is a major player in the global film industry However the story of how Chinese cinema became what it is today is exceptionally turbulent encompassing incursions by foreign powers warfare among contending rulers the collapse of the Chinese empire and the massive setback of the Cultural Revolution This book covers the cinematic history of mainland China spanning across over one hundred and twenty years since its inception Historical Dictionary of Chinese Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 200 cross referenced entries on the major filmmakers actors and historical figures representative cinematic productions genre evolution significant events and institutions and market changes This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Chinese Cinema Sentimental Fabulations, Contemporary Chinese Films Rey Chow,2007 What is the sentimental and how can we understand it through the cinema of a particular culture in an age of globalisation Chow explores these questions by examining nine contemporary Chinese directors whose accomplishments have become historic events in world cinema Global Chinese

Cinema Gary D. Rawnsley, Ming-Yeh T. Rawnsley, 2011-09 Director Zhang Yimou's film Hero released in 2002 is widely regarded as the first globally successful indigenous Chinese blockbuster touching on key questions of Chinese culture, nation and politics. This book explores the reasons for the film's popularity with its audiences and provides fascinating insights into recent developments in Chinese society, popular culture and cultural production.

Dis.Ordering Distribution Cornelia Storz, Vinzenz Hediger, Matthias Krings, 2025-09-23 Dis.Ordering Distribution explores the intricate relationship between distribution and production drawing on empirical evidence from two vibrant centers of cultural production: Africa and Asia.

The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema Li Yang, 2018-10-31 The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema 1990-2003 examines the development of Chinese art film in the People's Republic of China from 1990 when the first Sixth Generation film Mama was released to 2003 when authorities acknowledged the legitimacy of underground filmmakers. Through an exploration of the production and consecration mechanisms of the new art wave and its representative styles, this book argues that the art wave of the 1990s fundamentally defined Chinese art cinema. In particular, this vital art wave was not enabled by democratic liberalism but by the specific industrial development in which the film system transitioned from Socialist propaganda into a commercialized entity. Allowing Chinese art film to grow but at the same time denying its legitimacy, this paradoxical transition process shaped Chinese art film's institutional and aesthetical alternative positioning which eventually helped consolidate the art wave into art cinema. Ultimately, this book is a history of the Chinese portion of global art cinema which also reveals the complex Chinese cultural experiences during the Reform Era.

Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema? Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted? Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field. It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity, showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent. The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation-state in countries as diverse as Japan, South Korea, Russia, France and Italy. The issues of a national cinema for nation-states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film-making in Taiwan, Ireland and Palestine. The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans-national cultural flows, exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America, Asia, the Middle East, India, Africa and Europe. Theorising National Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema.

Chinese Culture in the 21st Century and its Global Dimensions Kelly Kar Yue Chan, Chi Sum Garfield Lau, 2020-05-11 This book investigates the internationalization of Chinese culture in recent decades and the global dimensions of Chinese culture from comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives. It covers a variety of topics concerning the contemporary significance of Chinese culture in its philosophical literary and artistic manifestations including literature film performing arts creative media linguistics translations and philosophical ideas The book explores the reception of Chinese culture in different geographic locations and how the global reception of Chinese culture contrasts with the local Chinese community The chapters collectively cover gender studies and patriarchal domination in Chinese literature in comparison to the world literature explorations on translation of Chinese culture in the West Chinese studies as an academic discipline in the West and Chinese and Hong Kong films and performances in the global context The book is an excellent resource for both scholars and students interested in the development of Chinese culture on the global stage in the 21st Century
