Memoirs Of A Biscuit Baron:

Tales from Africa Douglas Collins,1995      Theatre Near the Equator Annabel Maule,2004      Beyond Politics Njeri Rugene,2021-08-27 Kiraitu Murungi easily fits into the category of Philosopher King a leader who according to Plato combines intellect intelligence and wisdom in leadership An alumnus of the University of Nairobi and the prestigious Harvard University Kiraitu has applied these qualities to serve the society at constituency county and national levels In this candid interview with veteran journalist Njeri Rugene Kiraitu is blunt brutal frank and rational on politics and development issues The first of its kind in the country this lengthy interview is not only inspiring but also an insightful and igniting expos of realpolitik in Kenya      From Simple to Complex J. M. Mungai,2002 An autobiography of one of Kenya s foremost scholars and medical researches one time Vice Chancellor of the University of Nairobi and a key figure in the search for a viable solution to HIV AIDS in Kenya and Africa more widely He tells his account against the background of events and developments in Kenya s history covering his early life and rural up bringing his time as a medical practitioner and educator in the Kenyatta period and his later role as an administrator in public life      A Fly in Amber Susan Wood,1997      In Pursuit of Peace in Africa Opande, Daniel,2019-08-23 Lieutenant General Daniel Opande in his autobiography In Pursuit of Peace in Africa shares his experiences in childhood education family and military career until his retirement He wore many hats soldier military leader peacemaker humanitarian peace ambassador and mediator Notable highlights include his role in Kenya s Shifta Campaign of the 1960s and engaging with rebels during peace operations he led in Namibia Mozambique Liberia and Sierra Leone In retirement General Opande has occasionally mediated conflicts among them the 2007 2008 2013 and 2017 election crises in Kenya and the aftermath of the 2015 upheavals in South Sudan This book is a rich inspirational resource for aspiring leaders      The African-Asian Divide Paul Vandenberg,2013-09-13 Why have Africans not gained a more dominant position in urban manufacturing in Kenya This question is explored through an analysis of the institutions both formal and informal that have affected patterns of capital accumulation in Kenya by the African and Asian Indian communities Using a new institutional economics approach this book explores the history of economic activity through the pre colonial colonial and post colonial periods including the transformative period of British rule During the colonial period Asians were brought in to build the railways and subsequently focused on urban based activities Africans meanwhile found it difficult to move out of agriculture Thus the ethnic sectoral division of activities was entrenched by the formal laws and powers of the British Following independence the network and financial capital that Asians had built up allowed them to survive early attempts at the Africanization of industry Africans now supported by the formal institutions of the state still found it difficult to engage in manufacturing because they lacked the informal networks that support trade and credit The analysis is supported by the results of a contemporary survey of 120 manufacturing firms in Nairobi s metal sector that highlight the division between smaller African firms and larger Asian ones      Kenyan Student Airlifts to America

1959-1961 Stephens, Robert F.,2014-01-16 What did it take to get hundreds of Kenyan students thirsting for higher education into US colleges in the late 1950s and early 1960s It took perseverance help from countless people and the overwhelming desire of the students themselves This is an engaging and insightful book about an important and ignored slice of history When we think of vital historical airlifts minds race back to the Berlin Airlift Robert Stephens takes us to another American sponsored airlift that brought a generation of future African leaders to American shores for higher education This effort profoundly altered the lives of these men and women the development of East African nations and the perception of America At a time when the world struggled to understand the value of soft as opposed to military power this book offers a valuable historical model Set during the last days of colonialism in Kenya the book documents the development of human talent that would foster a majority ruled independent Kenya Its focus on Africans their individual and collective biographies aspirations and intermittent assistance from the US and others is the story Commerce with the Universe Gaurav Desai,2013-09-24 Reading the life narratives and literary texts of South Asians writing in East Africa Gaurav Desai builds a new history of Africa s encounter with slavery colonialism migration nationalism development and globalization Rather than approach literature and culture from a nation centered perspective Desai connects the medieval trade routes of the Islamicate empire the early independence movements galvanized in part by Gandhi s southern African experiences the invention of new ethnic nationalisms and the rise of plural multiethnic nations to the fertile exchange taking place across the Indian Ocean Dash before Dusk Khamisi, Joe,2015-03-01 Dash before Dusk A slave descendant s journey in freedom is an account of the life and times of Joe Khamisi a Kenyan slave descendant whose ancestors were taken captive by Arab traders from Nyasaland and Tanganyika rescued at sea by the British and settled at Rabai a slave encampment along the East African coast Khamisi a former journalist diplomat and politician narrates the significant contributions former slaves and their descendants made in the transformation of Kenya into an independent state and their continuing struggle for recognition A Daunting Journey Kiereini, Jeremiah Gitau,2015-09-04 He is described as a Mau Mau oath taker seemingly of two minds both for and against loyal and disloyal In A Daunting Journey Jeremiah Gitau Kiereini lets us into his life spanning three generations He reveals insights into the influences and intrigues surrounding the early civil service and the powerful individuals who held Kenya s future in their hands Kiereini also exposes the dichotomy that irreconcilably split the communities involved in the struggle for independence and the personal contradictions and challenges he encountered as he sought to find pride and loyalty in service to a newly independent Kenya This is truly a fascinating chronicle that takes us from the humble and difficult years of childhood through the Mau Mau years the Kenyatta administration the Moi regime and on to the present in the life of Jeremiah Kiereini Most captivating is the narrative on the infamous 1969 oath taking commonly referred to as Caai wa Gatundu and the 1982 coup Obama Senior Fredrick Donde,2015-08-06 On January 20 2009 Barack Hussein Obama made history as the first African American president of the United States of America since its founding in 1776 Around the world people celebrated his election as if he were one of their own and held exceedingly high expectations of his presidency When as senator of Illinois he visited his fathers village in Nyangoma KOGelo in Kenya he was struck by the ecstatic reception that the people accorded him He was deeply touched by the abject poverty and fullness of spirit of the people The level of need and the challenges that he witnessed in the poor neighbourhoods of Chicago in the US in Indonesia and Kenya may have significantly contributed to his spirited drive to the White House In this book the author re traces the life of Barack Obama Senior and how his character vision and intellect influenced his sons drive to the most powerful office in the land In so doing the author revisits the events in pre and post colonial Kenya and how these too had a bearing on the life of Obama Senior The book also relates the history of his people the Luo from their original settlements along the Nile in Egypt and the Sudan to their present homelands in East Africa and the Great Lakes region It details the often tragic and ultimately triumphant struggle of a people in pursuit of a just peaceful and progressive society

Indians in Kenya Sana Aiyar,2015-04-06 Working as merchants skilled tradesmen clerks lawyers and journalists Indians formed the economic and administrative middle class in colonial Kenya In general they were wealthier than Africans but were denied the political and economic privileges that Europeans enjoyed Moreover despite their relative prosperity Indians were precariously positioned in Kenya Africans usually viewed them as outsiders and Europeans largely considered them subservient Indians demanded recognition on their own terms Indians in Kenya chronicles the competing often contradictory strategies by which the South Asian diaspora sought a political voice in Kenya from the beginning of colonial rule in the late 1890s to independence in the 1960s Indians intellectual economic and political connections with South Asia shaped their understanding of their lives in Kenya Sana Aiyar investigates how the many strands of Indians diasporic identity influenced Kenya s political leadership from claiming partnership with Europeans in their mission to colonize and civilize East Africa to successful collaborations with Africans to battle for racial equality including during the Mau Mau Rebellion She also explores how the hierarchical structures of colonial governance the material inequalities between Indians and Africans and the racialized political discourses that flourished in both colonial and postcolonial Kenya limited the success of alliances across racial and class lines Aiyar demonstrates that only by examining the ties that bound Indians to worlds on both sides of the Indian Ocean can we understand how Kenya came to terms with its South Asian minority

Breaking the Illusions Sicily Kariuki,2024-02-08 Breaking the Illusions is the story of resolve and grit in the face of seemingly insurmountable challenges In this tell all book the author paints an insider s view of government exposing the odds that are inexorably ranged against those who challenge the status quo and are perceived to be all powerful Hers is the intriguing story of a mistaken tag that at once opens multiple warfronts with shadowy detractors and opens previously unimaginable doors The author provides a window into statecraft in a way that leaves the reader researchers ministers and even serving and aspiring public servants the richer

by racial dichotomy and identity crisis specifically between the North and the South Added to these is the long history of domination unfavourable policies and uneven development The resulting marginalisation neglect and underdevelopment has bred a series of fierce conflicts culminating in one of the longest civil wars in Africa between the Khartoum forces and the Sudan Peoples Liberation Army and Movement SPLA M The war ended with the signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA in Nairobi on 9th January 2005 Unlike other publications The Southern Sudan Struggle for Liberty provides an in depth view of the struggle from a veteran s perspective Having himself lived the struggle and rising to the position of Commander in the SPLA the author renders a story of the conflict of Southern Sudan right from the Juba Conference of 1947 and the August 1955 mutiny through the Anyanya Movements to the civil war and eventual peace Using personal experience and accounts he also carries with him the personalities and events that shaped the struggle and expresses his hopes and fears of the future of Southern Sudan The events in the book are captivating the narrative riveting and the historical perspective academically stimulating The author s standpoint on issues is so provocative that it s bound to raffle a number of feathers in the political corridors of Southern Sudan

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

The Biscuit Lizzie Collingham, 2020-10-29 Bourbons Custard Creams Rich Tea Jammie Dodgers Chocolate Digestives Shortbread Ginger snaps Which is your favourite British people eat more biscuits than any other nation they are as embedded in our culture as fish and chips or the Sunday roast We follow the humble biscuit s transformation from durable staple for sailors explorers and colonists to sweet luxury for the middling classes to comfort food for an entire nation Like an assorted tin of biscuits this charming and beautifully illustrated book has something to offer for everyone combining recipes for hardtack and macaroons Shrewsbury biscuits and Garibaldis with entertaining and eye opening vignettes of social history      From Bush to Bush Steven Wöndu, 2011 Steven Wöndu left school at a young age and strayed into the Anyanya Army for a short stint before he was released to wander in the bushes of Eastern Sudan. Wöndu's trails from the bushes of South Sudan and attempts to synthesize the historical precedents leading to the long war in the Sudan. Written at the dawn of a new nation for the South Sudanese, the author conveys the depressing impact of war on individual and family life. He captures the intricate reality where distrust and fear of Muslims and Arabs found root in the minds of the South Sudanese. From bush to BUSH is the story of Steven Wöndu's outstanding life journey and the story of the turbulent journey to the birth of a new nation. Steven Wöndu is a graduate of several Universities: Makerere in Uganda, Nairobi in Kenya, Reading in the United Kingdom, George Washington in the United States, and the Kenya Institute of Administration. He is a former Sudanese Ambassador to Japan and has co-authored the book Battle for Peace in Sudan. Ambassador Wöndu is currently the Auditor General of South Sudan.      African Studies Review & Newsletter, 1996      Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature. He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re-imagination in post-colonial Africa. Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing, this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga, Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Wangari Maathai, and Bethwell Ogot. The analysis dwells on self-representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works. Thus, the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir, the forms and styles it takes, the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives. Series: Contributions to African Research, Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung, Vol. 63. Subject: African Studies, Literary Criticism.
