Matthews, Thomas Rawson Taylor, 1836 Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story Children's Book Review Index 1995 Cumulative Beverly Baer, George Baer, 1996-04 Provides access to reviews of children's books and periodicals that are indexed by Book Review Index LA Record, 1996 The Junior Bookshelf, 1995 Children's Book Review Index Gary C. of reading in the eighteenth century and how this was expressed in the fascination with Don Quixote and in a proliferation of narratives about quixotic readers readers who attempt to reproduce and embody their readings Through intersecting readings of quixotic narratives including work by Charlotte Lennox Laurence Sterne George Colman Richard Graves and Elizabeth Hamilton Amelia Dale argues that literature was envisaged as imprinting most crucially in gendered terms the reader s mind character and body The Printed Reader brings together key debates concerning quixotic narratives print culture sensibility empiricism book history and the material text connecting developments in print technology to gendered conceptualizations of quixotism Tracing the meanings of quixotic readers bodies The Printed Reader claims the social and political text that is the quixotic reader is structured by the experiential affective and sexual resonances of imprinting and impressions Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Books Out Loud ,2007

The Indian Autobiographies in English RCP Sinha,2013-02-28 Self portrayal has become an integral part of modern culture and India equally shares this universal mood A large number of Indians have committed themselves to the writing of their autobiographies in English as well as in the regional languages It is exciting to know that those in English have been produced by some of the finest minds of the country such as Raja Rammohun Roy Lal Behari Day Surendra Nath Banerjea Bipin Chandra Pal Lala Lajpat Rai Mahatma Gandhi Rabindranath Tagore Jawaharlal Nehru Subhash Chandra Bose P C Roy S Radhakrishnan Sachchidanand Sinha and Nirad C Chaudhury It is highly fascinating to read their testimony in the shaping of modern Indian history Even more exciting are the glimpses into their private lives and the interrelation between the portrait and the man This study is the first comprehensive attempt to critically evaluate these works and shows how in modern times Indians begin to get over the proverbial Indian inhibition in talking of private affairs hesitatingly first and then with a devastating even embarrassing frankness This study in passing also tries to dispel the impression that no autobiographical tradition existed in ancient and medieval India The School Librarian ,1998 Invasive Alien Flora and Fauna in South Africa Charles F.
