Memoirs Of A Less Travelled Road A Historians Life:

Theoretical Perspectives on Historians' Autobiographies Memoirs of a Less Traveled Road Marcel Trudel. 2001 Jaume Aurell, 2015-07-24 E H Carr wrote study the historian before you begin to study the facts This book approaches the life work ideas debates and the context of key 20th and 21st century historians through an analysis of their life writing projects viewed as historiographical sources Merging literary studies on autobiography with theories of history it provides a systematic and detailed analysis of the autobiographies of the most outstanding historians from the classic texts by Giambattista Vico Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams to the Annales historians such as Fernand Braudel Philippe Ari s and Georges Duby to Marxist historians such as Eric Hobsbawm and Annie Kriegel to postmodern historians such as Carolyn Steedman Robert A Rosenstone Carlos Eire Luisa Passerini Elisabeth Roudinesco Gerda Lerner and Sheila Fitzpatrick and to interventional historians such as Geoff Eley Jill Ker Conway Natalie Davis and Gabrielle Spiegel Using a comparative approach to these texts this book identifies six historical autobiographical styles humanistic biographic ego historical monographic postmodern and interventional By privileging historians autobiographies this book proposes a renewed history of historiography one that engages the theoretical evolution of the discipline the way history has been interpreted by historians and the currents of thought and ideologies that have dominated and influenced its writing in the 20th and 21st Settling and Unsettling Memories Nicole Neatby, Peter Hodgins, 2012-01-01 Settling and Unsettling Memories centuries analyses the ways in which Canadians over the past century have narrated the story of their past in books films works of art commemorative ceremonies and online This cohesive collection introduces readers to overarching themes of Canadian memory studies and brings them up to date on the latest advances in the field With increasing debates surrounding how societies should publicly commemorate events and people Settling and Unsettling Memories helps readers appreciate the challenges inherent in presenting the past Prominent and emerging scholars explore the ways in which Canadian memory has been put into action across a variety of communities regions and time periods Through high quality essays touching on the central questions of historical consciousness and collective memory this collection makes a significant contribution to a rapidly growing field Hidden and Forgotten Iheanyi M. Enwerem, 2019-04-16 Catholics of African descent have been in the Catholic Church in Canada since Canada s pre independent days and yet there has been and still is a poverty of pastoral outreach to them In a richly researched yet enjoyably readable study Father Enwerem posits that the recent arrival of African missionaries is a good sign for the rejuvenation of Catholicism in Canada but he suggests that the Church's continuing silence on the presence and contributions of Africans in the historiography of Catholicism in Canada betrays a subtle racism Compelling and utterly convincing Hidden and Forgotten addresses the urgent need to correct this incomplete and therefore false history of Catholicism in Canada Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Rise to Greatness. Volume 1: Colony (1000-1867) Conrad Black, 2017-03-07 Masterful ambitious and groundbreaking this is a major new history of our country by one of our most respected thinkers and historians a book every Canadian should own From the acclaimed biographer and historian Conrad Black comes the definitive history of Canada a revealing groundbreaking account of the people and events that shaped a nation The first of three volumes spanning from the year 1000 to 1867 and beginning with Canada's first inhabitants and the early explorers this masterful history challenges our perception of our history and Canada s role in the world taking on sweeping themes and vividly recounting the story of Canada's development from colony to dominion to country Black persuasively reveals that while many would argue that Canada was perhaps never predestined for greatness the opposite is in fact true the emergence of a magnificent country against all odds was a remarkable achievement Brilliantly conceived this major new reexamination of our country's history is a riveting tour deforce by one of the best writers writing today Rise to Greatness, Volume 3: Realm (1949-2017) Conrad Black, 2017-05-05 Colourful comprehensive and masterfully written this is the third and final volume in a major history of our country by one of our most respected thinkers and historians a book every Canadian should own From the acclaimed biographer and historian Conrad Black comes the definitive history of Canada a vivid revelatory account of the people and events that shaped a nation The final of three volumes spanning from the year 1949 2014 this compelling history challenges our perception of our Canada's role in the world taking on sweeping themes and recounting the story of Canada's development from colony to dominion to country Black persuasively reveals that while many would argue that Canada was perhaps never predestined for greatness the opposite is in fact true the emergence of a magnificent country against all odds was a remarkable achievement Brilliantly conceived this major new reexamination of our country's history is a riveting tour deforce by one of the best writers writing Donald Creighton Donald A. Wright, 2015-09-15 A member of the same intellectual generation as Harold Innis today Northrop Frve and George Grant Donald Creighton 1902 1979 was English Canada's first great historian The author of eleven books including The Commercial Empire of the St Lawrence and a two volume biography of John A Macdonald Creighton wrote history as if it had happened he said the day before yesterday And as a public intellectual he advised the prime minister of Canada the premier of Ontario and at least on one occasion the British government Yet he was as Donald Wright shows also profoundly out of step with his times As the nation was re imagined along bilingual and later multicultural lines in the 1960s and 1970s Creighton defended a British definition of Canada at the same time as he began to fear that he would be remembered only as a pessimist a bigot and a violent Tory partisan Through his virtuoso research into Creighton's own voluminous papers Wright paints a sensitive portrait of a brilliant but difficult man Ultimately Donald Creighton captures the twentieth century transformation of English Canada through the life and times of one of its leading intellectuals

Canada's Storytellers | Les grands écrivains du Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2021-03-24 For over three quarters of a century the Governor General s Literary Awards have been awarded annually in a variety of evolving categories Fifteen Governors General have served as their patron The impressive list continues to grow apace between 1936 and 2018 the awards recognized 719 books in English and French and have been presented to 580 authors illustrators and translators This beautifully illustrated bilingual compendium presents the biographies of all 580 award laureates many accompanied by stunning archival portraits This is the final instalment in Andrew Irvine's remarkable and comprehensive research into what has become a touchstone of Canada's literary culture Together with Canada's Best and The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada A Bibliography this work provides readers with a definitive overview of this literary prize By itself Canada s Storytellers is an invaluable reading companion for anyone wanting to be introduced to many of our most influential authors illustrators and translators working in both French and English over the past decades It belongs on the shelf of every enthusiast of Canadian literature Bilingual edition Remembering 1759 Phillip Buckner, John G. Reid, 2012-05-11 This companion volume to Revisiting 1759 examines how the Conquest of Canada has been remembered commemorated interpreted and reinterpreted by groups in Canada France Great Britain the United States and most of all in Quebec It focuses particularly on how the public memory of the Conquest has been used for a variety of cultural political and intellectual purposes The essays contained in this volume investigate topics such as the legacy of 1759 in twentieth century Quebec the memorialization of General James Wolfe in a variety of national contexts and the re imagination of the Plains of Abraham as a tourist destination Combined with Revisiting 1759 this collection provides readers with the most comprehensive wide ranging assessment to date of the lasting effects of the Conquest of Canada Champlain's Dream David Hackett Fischer, 2009-11-03 The entralling biography of the visionary adventurer explorer master mariner soldier artist spy who has straddled our history for 400 years David Hackett Fischer one of North America's most acclaimed historians brings to life with rare immediacy and drama the story of Samuel de Champlain A remarkable leader in his time he dreamed of humanity and peace in a world riven by violence built the first European settlement in Canada founded on a dream of harmony and respect and played a role in starting the growth of three populations Qu b cois Acadian and M tis in the place he called Quebec His legacy is with us today and helps define Canada With consummate storytelling skill and comprehensive scholarship drawing on Champlain s own diaries and accounts Fischer has definitively recreated for us the life of a rare and fascinating man and the result is inspiring and gripping Rise to Greatness Conrad Black, 2014 Controversial newspaper publisher and historian Conrad Black has written a definitive history of Canada This is a revealing account of the people and events that shaped a nation Spanning from 874 to 2014 and beginning with Canada's first inhabitants and the early explorers this masterful history challenges our perception of our history and Canada's role in the world From Champlain to Carleton Baldwin and Lafontaine to MacDonald Laurier and King from Canada's role in peace and war to Quebec's quest for autonomy Black takes on sweeping themes Biographical Dictionary of Enslaved Black People in the Maritimes Harvey Amani Whitfield, 2022-03-01 This important book sheds light on more than 1 400 brief life histories of mostly enslaved Black people with the goal of recovering their individual lives Harvey Amani Whitfield unearths the stories of men women and children who would not otherwise have found their way into written history. The individuals mentioned come from various points of origin including Africa the West Indies the Carolinas the Chesapeake and the northern states showcasing the remarkable range of the Black experience in the Atlantic world Whitfield makes it clear that these enslaved Black people had likes dislikes distinct personality traits and different levels of physical spiritual and intellectual talent Biographical Dictionary of Enslaved Black People in the Maritimes affirms the notion that they were all unique individuals despite the efforts of their owners and the wider Atlantic world to dehumanize and erase them History's People Margaret MacMillan.2015-09-08 Part of the CBC Massey Lectures Series In History's People internationally acclaimed historian Margaret MacMillan gives her own personal selection of figures of the past women and men some famous and some little known who stand out for her Some have changed the course of history and even directed the currents of their times Others are memorable for being risk takers adventurers or observers She looks at the concept of leadership through Bismarck and the unification of Germany William Lyon MacKenzie King and the preservation of the Canadian Federation Franklin Delano Roosevelt and the bringing of a unified United States into the Second World War She also notes how leaders can make huge and often destructive mistakes as in the cases of Hitler Stalin and Thatcher Richard Nixon and Samuel de Champlain are examples of daring risk takers who stubbornly went their own ways often in defiance of their own societies Then there are the dreamers explorers and adventurers individuals like Fanny Parkes and Elizabeth Simcoe who manage to defy or ignore the constraints of their own societies Finally there are the observers such as Babur the first Mughal emperor of India and Victor Klemperer a Holocaust survivor who kept the notes and diaries that bring the past to life History's People is about the important and complex relationship between biography and history individuals and their times Rise to Greatness, Volume 2: Dominion (1867-1949) Conrad Black, 2017-04-04 Sweeping ambitious and revelatory this is the second volume in a major history of our country by one of our most respected thinkers and historians a book every Canadian should own From the acclaimed biographer and historian Conrad Black comes the definitive history of Canada a masterful groundbreaking account of the people and events that shaped a nation The second of three volumes spanning from the year 1867 1949 this compelling history challenges our perception of our history and Canada's role in the world taking on sweeping themes and vividly recounting the story of Canada's development from colony to dominion to country Black persuasively reveals that while many would argue that Canada was perhaps never predestined for greatness the opposite is in fact true the emergence of a magnificent country against all odds was a remarkable achievement Brilliantly conceived this major new reexamination of our country's history is a riveting tour de force by one of the best writers writing today The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2018-11-27 The definitive bibliography of Canada's Governor General's Literary Awards Alice Munro Michael Ondaatje Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Gilles Vigneault For over three quarters of a century the Governor General's Literary Awards have been instrumental in recognizing many of Canada's best authors illustrators and translators. The result is impressive between 1936 and 2017 705 titles have been recognized with this prestigious award With careful attention to detail Andrew Irvine presents the history and evolution of the Awards and extols their importance for the careers of authors illustrators and translators as well as for the development of Canada's national literature. The heart of the book contains the first comprehensive bibliography of the awards including the first list of winning books organized according to their historically correct award categories information about five books wrongly omitted from previous lists of winning titles detailed information about award ceremonies film adaptations and jury members and other key information This is a seminal work that belongs on the shelf of every scholar and every lover of Canadian literature This book is published in English Une bibliographie incontournable des Prix litt raires du Gouverneur q n ral du Canada Alice Munro Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Michael Ondaatje Gilles Vigneault Les crivains canadiens sont depuis longtemps encens s sur la sc ne nationale comme l chelle mondiale et les Prix du Gouverneur q n ral jouent un r le cl dans la reconnaissance de certains de nos meilleurs auteurs illustrateurs et traducteurs La liste est impressionnante ce prestigieux prix a r compens 705 oeuvres entre 1936 et 2017 Avec un souci minutieux au d tail Andrew Irvine pr sente l histoire et l volution des Prix et vante leurs vertus indispensables la carri re des crivains et des traducteurs ainsi que dans l'laboration d'une litt rature nationale au Canada Cette bibliographie est la toute premi re recension compl te des Prix litt raires du Gouverneur g n ral et donne des renseignements d taill s au sujet des c r monies des adaptations cin matographiques des membres des jurys ainsi que d autres informations cl s Le livre pr sente aussi une copie exhaustive et exacte de donn es bibliographiques tir es d archives une premi re dans le monde de l dition En somme une r f rence incontournable Ce livre est publi en anglais Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec Brian Young, 2014-10-01 History has often ignored the influence in modern Quebec of family dynasties patriarchy seigneurial land and traditional institutions Following the ascent of four generations from two families through eighteenth century New France to the onset of the First World War Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec compares the French Catholic Taschereaus and the Anglican and English speaking McCords Consulting private institutional and legal archives Brian Young studies eight family patriarchs Working as merchants or colonial administrators in the first generation they became seigneurial proprietors officeholders and prelates The heads of both families used marriage arrangements land stewardship and judgeships to position their heirs Young shows how patriarchy was a central force in both domestic and public life as well as the ways in which Taschereau and McCord family strategies extended into the marrow of Quebec society through moral authority influence on national identities and their positions within senior offices in religious judicial and university institutions Through courthouses cemeteries belfries and their own chapels and neoclassical estates they created encompassing cultural landscapes Later generations used museums archives historian collaborators photography and modern print to elevate family achievement to the status of heroic national narratives Sagas of the monied and entrepreneurial nationalist imperatives to protect a vulnerable people and skepticism about the lasting power of great families and historical institutions have relegated the influence of the Taschereaus and McCords to obscurity Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec resuscitates the central role these elite families played in English and French Quebec

Memoirs of a Less Travelled Road Marcel Trudel,2002 Winner of the Governor General's Award for translation Memoirs of a Less Traveled Road A Historian's Life is the absorbing and candid story of Marcel Trudel's journey from the small village of Saint Narcisse de Champlain where he was born in 1917 to become one of Canada's major historians Trudel recreates his youth as the child of a poor family that broke up after the early death of his mother and the years with his adopted family where as a lonely child he learned to love books His lively descriptions draw the reader into the now vanished world of life of a boarder in the strictly regimented coll ges classiques of his day and later the vicissitudes of academic life A brilliant student and tireless researcher Trudel nevertheless had an intrepid streak that drove him to challenge accepted attitudes despite reprimands and setbacks At crucial moments of his life he took the road less traveled by and that made all the difference This book dedicated to his granddaughter Catherine is by turns amusing touching and deeply informative about the conflicting attitudes that led to the Quiet Revolution Rotunda, 2003 Quill & Quire, 2002
