Memoirs Of A Survivor Of The Twentieth Century From Transylvania To The United States:

Memoirs of a Survivor of the Twentieth Century Elemer Mihalyi, 2001 This is an autobiography Describes the life of Elemer Mihalyi from early childhood through school years medical school and work as a doctor during the siege of Budapest and in a Russian prison camp After this he abandoned medical practice and for the rest of his life was engaged in scientific research first in Budapest then in Stockholm and finally in the USA for the last 30 years in the National Heart Lung and Blood Institute in Bethesda Maryland The tumultuous events in Central Europe between the World Wars and after form the background of the history of his family Romania occupied Transylvania in 1920 and an oppressive chauvinistic regime followed This was alleviated in the northern half when this was returned to Hungary however after the war Romanian rule was restored for the whole province The author escaped to Hungary but soon Communism was slowly encroaching this country Again he had to leave and by good luck arrived to America Beside the historical facts all of this is illustrated by numerous anecdotal events more than by an analytical approach All the episodes are true from the life of the author given without embellishments or omissions András Bodor and the History of Classical Studies in Transylvania in the 20th century Csaba Szabo, 2020-12-17

This volume focusses on the life and academic heritage of András Bodor 1915-1999 a classicist from Transylvania Based on a large number of unpublished documents and the major works of Bodor the book reconstructs the life of a classicist from the periphery of Europe a region that changed many times during the 20th century Teaching and Studying the Holocaust Samuel Totten, Stephen Feinberg, 2009-11-01 Originally Published in 2000 by Allyn Ida E King Distinguished Visitor Professor of Holocaust Studies Richard Stockton College and Former Director of Research at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum There are many scholars who are wont to criticize the teaching of the Holocaust Many journalists critique what they regard as kitsch or trendiness All critics of contemporary Holocaust education would do well to read this book One cannot fail to be impressed by the quality of its learning and the seriousness of its purpose It is a wonderful place for teachers to turn as they contemplate teaching the Holocaust an open invitation to learn more and teach more effectively Barry van Driel Coordinator International Teacher Education Anne Frank House Amsterdam Teaching and Studying the Holocaust is an invaluable resource for any teacher wanting to address the complex and sometimes overwhelming history of the Holocaust in the classroom The book offers a multitude of sensitive and responsible ways of dealing with the issue of the Holocaust It succeeds in showing teachers very clearly how the study of the Holocaust is not just a topic for history teachers but for teachers across the curriculum Dr Nili Keren Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv Israel Teaching about the Shoah is one of the most complicated tasks for educators Indeed teaching and studying this history raises unprecedented questions concerning modern civilization and presents teachers and students with tremendous challenges Samuel Totten and Stephen Feinberg have created a volume that provides educators with essential information and new insights regarding the teaching of this history and in doing so they assist educators to face the aforementioned challenges head on Teaching and Studying the Holocaust does not make the task easier but it does make it possible Samuel Totten is currently professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Prior to entering academia he was an English and social studies teacher in Australia Israel California and at the U S House of Representatives Page School in Washington D C Totten is also editor of Teaching Holocaust Literature published by Allyn Bacon Stephen Feinberg is currently the Special Assistant for Education Programs in the National Institute for Holocaust Education at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum With Samuel Totten he was co editor of a special issue Teaching the Holocaust of Social Education the official journal of the National Council for the Social Studies For eighteen years he was a history and social studies teacher in the public schools of Wayland MA

The Biographical Cyclopædia and Portrait Gallery with an Historical Sketch of the State of Ohio ..., 1884 The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe Amanda L. Capern, 2019-10-30 The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive and ground breaking survey of the lives of women in early modern Europe between 1450 and 1750 Covering a period of dramatic political and cultural change the book challenges the current contours and chronologies of European history by observing them through the lens of female experience The collaborative research of this book covers four themes the affective world practical knowledge for life politics and religion arts science and humanities These themes are interwoven through the chapters which encompass all areas of women's lives sexuality emotions health and wellbeing educational attainment litigation and the practical and leisured application of knowledge skills and artistry from medicine to theology The intellectual lives of women through reading and writing and their spirituality and engagement with the material world are also explored So too is the sheer energy of female work including farming and manufacture skilled craft and artwork theatrical work and scientific enquiry The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe revises the chronological and ideological parameters of early modern European history by opening the reader's eyes to an exciting age of female productivity social engagement and political activism across European and transatlantic boundaries It is essential reading for students and researchers of early modern history the history of women and gender studies The Pall Mall Budget ,1880 The Holocaust: A Guide to Europe's Sites, Memorials and Museums Rosie Whitehouse,2024-10-04 New from Bradt is The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials a unique travel guidebook to European locations that tell the story of the greatest crime ever perpetrated the Nazi genocide of 6 million Jews and other persecuted groups In recent years countries once reluctant to delve into the dark corners of their past have begun to document the history of the Holocaust and its aftermath Europe has many new ground breaking museums and memorials that tell us as much about the present as they do the past Chapters are dedicated to each country or region occupied by Nazi Germany plus nations like the UK and neutral Sweden which played a vital role both before and after the Holocaust Organised around city hubs in each country this Bradt guide helps visitors explore numerous destinations whether infamous well known or comparatively unexpected This is much much more than a guide to notorious sites such as Auschwitz Birkenau Buchenwald or Dachau You can take a walking tour in Vienna to view the new wall of names Or visit the Memorial des Martyrs de la Deportation in Paris Anne Frank House in Amsterdam or the Jewish Museum in Ferrara And you can learn how babies were smuggled out of the Kovno ghetto in potato sacks in Lithuania or read about Bavaria s Kloster Indersdorf a remarkable children s home that cared for survivors Written by a journalist and travel writer specialising in Jewish history Bradt s The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials provides the traveller with not only a list of must see sites in each country but also a comprehensive list of organisations that run tours commemorations and volunteer schemes Suggestions of where to eat and stay including Kosher restaurants and hotels ease the traveller s way as do descriptions of local Jewish organisations and tips on how to pace potentially difficult journeys into Europe s dark past Bradt s The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials is the first comprehensive travel guide to the genocide and the first to help the traveller understand the Holocaust by seeing the places where it unfurled The Spirit of Hungary Stephen Sisa,1983 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1981 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Indian Wars and Pioneers of Texas John Henry Brown,1988 The book leads the reader through the past to the present and here leaves him amid active and progressive men who are advancing along with him toward the future Including as it does lives of men now living it constitutes a connecting link between what has gone before and what is to come after It is therefore fitting that it should be dedicated to a prominent man of our day in preference to one of former times The matter presented in the nature of things is largely biographical There can be no foundation for history without biography History is a generalization of particulars It presents wide extended views To use a paradox history gives us but a part of history That other part which it does not give us the part which introduces us to the thoughts aspirations and daily life of a people is supplied by biography The men whose deeds are recorded in this book were or are deeply identified with Texas and the preservation in this volume in enduring form of some remembrance of them their names who and what they were has been a pleasant task to one who feels a deep interest and pride in Texas its past history its heroes and future destiny History of Kentucky William Elsey Connelley, Ellis Merton Coulter, 1922
