Haule, 2016-10-15 Shortly before his death S P Rosenbaum began work on the history of the Bloomsbury Group s Memoir Club With original archival material and valuable insights on leading Bloomsbury figures such as Woolf Keynes and Forster this illuminating book offers a new perspective on our understanding of twentieth century autobiography and life writing The New World, 1920 British Women

Composers and Instrumental Chamber Music in the Early Twentieth Century Laura Seddon, 2016-04-15 This is the first full length study of British women s instrumental chamber music in the early twentieth century Laura Seddon argues that the Cobbett competitions instigated by Walter Willson Cobbett in 1905 and the formation of the Society of Women Musicians in 1911 contributed to the explosion of instrumental music written by women in this period and highlighted women s place in British musical society in the years leading up to and during the First World War Seddon investigates the relationship between Cobbett the Society of Women Musicians and women composers themselves The book s six case studies of Adela Maddison 1866 1929 Ethel Smyth 1858 1944 Morfydd Owen 1891 1918 Ethel Barns 1880 1948 Alice Verne Bredt 1868 1958 and Susan Spain Dunk 1880 1962 offer valuable insight into the women s musical education and compositional careers Seddon s discussion of their chamber works for differing instrumental combinations includes an exploration of formal procedures an issue much discussed by contemporary sources The individual composers reactions to the debate instigated by the Society of Women Musicians on the future of women s music is considered in relation to their lives careers and the chamber music itself As the composers in this study were not a cohesive group creatively or ideologically the book draws on primary sources as well as the writings of contemporary commentators to assess the legacy of the chamber works produced
