Memoirs of Madame Madeleine, Etc MEMOIRS.,1968 Memoirs of Madame Madeleine Madeleine Raimbaud,1968
Memoirs of Madame Madeleine ,1930 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971 Memoirs Marie Mancini,Hortense Mancini,2009-05-15 The memoirs of Hortense 1646 1699 and of Marie 1639 1715 Mancini nieces of the powerful Cardinal Mazarin and members of the court of Louis XIV represent the earliest examples in France of memoirs published by women under their own names during their lifetimes Both unhappily married Marie had also fled the aftermath of her failed affair with the king the sisters chose to leave their husbands for life on the road a life quite rare for women of their day Through their writings the Mancinis sought to rehabilitate their reputations and reclaim the right to define their public images themselves rather than leave the stories of their lives to the intrigues of the court and to their disgruntled ex husbands First translated in 1676 and 1678 and credited largely to male redactors the two memoirs reemerge here in an accessible English translation that chronicles the beginnings of women s rights to personal independence within the confines of an otherwise circumscribed early modern aristocratic society Telling Political Lives Brenda DeVore Marshall,Molly A. Mayhead,2008-06-24 This book investigates the autobiographical writings of Barbara Jordan Patricia Schroeder Geraldine Ferraro Elizabeth Dole Wilma Mankiller Hillary Rodham Clinton Madeleine Albright and Christine Todd Whitman These eight women represent the diversity that permeates the cultural backgrounds life adventures and ideologies women bring to the political table From differences in race class and geographic location to variations in personal and family experiences religious beliefs and political ideology these women illustrate many of the divergent standpoints from which women craft their lives in the United States Each essay focuses on the autobiographical text as political discourse and therefore as an appropriate site for the rhetorical construction of a personal and civic self situated within local and national political communities The collection examines issues such as the intersection between the politicization of the private and the personalization of the public evident in the women s narratives the description of U S politics the women provide in their writings the ways in which the women s personal stories craft arguments about their political ideologies the strategies these women leaders employ in navigating the gendered double binds of politics and the manner in which the women s discourse serves to encourage instruct and empower future women leaders The analyses embody and explicate the political and rhetorical strategies these leaders employ in their efforts to act on their convictions highlight the need for and reality of women s involvement in all levels of politics and serve as an impetus and inspiration for scholars and activists alike Memories and Impressions of Helena Modjeska Helena Modjeska,1910 Writings by Pre-Revolutionary French Women Colette H. Winn,Anne R. Larsen,2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment Preface.
