carried in a basket by a nurse in order that we might make a long day of it Mlle Boquet was fifteen years old and I fourteen We were rival beauties I had changed completely and had become good looking Her artistic abilities were considerable as for mine I made such speedy progress that I soon was talked about and this resulted in my making the gratifying acquaintance of Joseph Vernet That famous painter gave me cordial encouragement and much invaluable advice I also got to know the Abbe      Memoirs of Madame Vigée Lebrun Louise-Elisabeth Vigée-Lebrun, 2022-10-26

This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1903 edition Excerpt the arrival of summer I took a great delight in the walks and hastened to enjoy the beautiful surroundings of St Petersburg I very often went to the Lake of Pergola alone with my Russian manservant to take what I called an air bath I enjoyed the contemplation of its limpid water which vividly reflected the trees on its banks And then I would mount to the heights adjacent On one side the horizon was bounded by the sea and I could distinguish the sails lit up by the sun Here a silence reigned that was disturbed only by the song of a thousand birds or sometimes by the sound of a distant bell The pure air and the wild picturesque place enchanted me My faithful Peter who warmed up my little dinner or picked flowers of the field for me made me think of Robinson on his island with Friday The heat being considerable I often went with my daughter for early walks on the island of Krestovski The extreme point of this island seemed to merge into the sea on which large vessels were navigating Sometimes we went there in the evening to see the Russian peasants dance their national dress being very picturesque I remember on the subject of the excessive heat often prevailing at St Petersburg a certain day in the month of July of some year in which that month was hotter than in Italy On this day I saw Princess Dolgoruki s mother Princess Bariatinski who was once as lovely as an angel and whose clever and spontaneous wit rendered her one of the most fascinating women of St Petersburg established in her cellar with her lady s companion seated on the bottom step very quietly reading to her from a book But to return to the island of Krestovski Taking a row in a boat one day we came upon a crowd of men and women all bathing
