Memoirs Of Robert E Lee His Military And Personal History:

Memoirs of Robert E. Lee: His Military and Personal History Armistead Lindsay Long, 2015-09-04 This book is an interesting addition to the voluminous biographical literature of the war that has been made in the Memoirs of Robert E Lee General A L Long of the Confederate Army was a friend and fellow soldier of Lee This large volume has been written under great difficulties the author having lost his sight but like some more eminent American historians who have worked under similar disadvantages he has not slighted his task but has made diligent use of a great body of material The work is not autobiographical of course but makes large use of the words and records of General Lee Its value rests in its full clear and enthusiastic presentation of the character and career of one of the most remarkable men of a great epoch Included are also the full official Reports of Gen Lee with copious selections from his confidential letters dispatches and official communications never before published the only official record of the closing years of the war

Excerpt from Memoirs of Robert E Lee His Military and Personal History To overcome the inactivity to which loss of sight has for some years subjected me I have sought occupation in recording the recollection of familiar events Having obtained a slate prepared for the use of the blind I soon learned to write with a moderate degree of legibility In order to excite a pleasing interest in my work I undertook something that might prove of future benefit Having served on General Lee's personal staff during the most important period of his military career I began an eye witness narrative of his campaigns in the war between the States In the execution of my work I received valuable assistance from my wife and daughter my two sons and Miss Lucy Shackelford now Mrs Charles Walker all of whom lovingly and faithfully served me as copyists and readers I am also indebted to Colonel C S Venable of General Lee's staff Major Green Peyton of Rodes's staff and Major S V Southall of my own staff for indispensable aid in reviewing my manuscript informing me of facts that had not come to my knowledge or reminding me of such as had escaped my recollection My work is now completed and I offer it to the public hoping it may prove of value as a record of events which passed under my own observation and many of which have been described directly from my notes made at the time of their occurrence It is not intended to be a history of the war in detail but a statement of my personal knowledge of General Lee's life actions and character and of the part played by him in the great events of which he was the ruling spirit About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to
