AUTHOR, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Memoirs of the Rev Walter M Lowrie Missionary to China The Editor of this Memoir has done little more than to select and arrange the papers of his beloved son A few remarks have been made with the view of noticing his early years and connecting the different periods of his short but active and not unvaried life The plan adopted was to let him speak for himself in his letters and journals though some letters from his missionary brethren and others in the ministry at home who knew him have been given at the end of the volume From these every reader will form his own estimate of his character and acquirements A few of the many letters from Christian friends as the sad intelligence of his death reached them have also been inserted His letters for the most part were hastily written many of them in the confidence of Christian and endeared friendship His journals also were written at the dates mentioned and his other engagements gave him no time to correct or copy them Two volumes of private journals were found after his death among his papers but they were destroyed in accordance with his special written request to his friend Rev M S Culbertson or either of his surviving colleagues The work has been stereotyped and the entire expense of this edition has been defrayed by Christian friends to whom his memory is very dear Whatever profit may arise from the sale will be applied to the enlargement of the Ningpo mission under the care of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Memoirs of the Rev. Calvin, 1800-2000, 2009-04-24 Calvinism's influence and reputation have received ample scholarly attention. But how John Calvin himself, his person, character and deeds, was remembered, commemorated and memorialized is a question few historians have addressed. Focussing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, this volume aims to open up the subject with chapters on Calvin's monumentalization in statues and museums, his appearance in novels, children's books and travel writing, his iconic function for Hungarian nationalists and Presbyterian missionaries to China, his reputation among Mormons and freethinkers and his rivalry with Michael Servetus in French Protestant memory. The result is a fresh contribution to the field of religious memory studies and an invitation to further comparative research. Contributors include R. Bryan Bademan, Patrick Cabanel, R. Scott Clark, Thomas J. Davis, Stephen S. Francis, Joe B. Fulton, Botond Gál, Stefan Laube, Johan de Niet, Herman Paul, James Rigney, Michèle Sacquin, Jonathan Seitz, Robert Vosloo, Bart Wallet and Valentine Zuber.
