Mémoire sur la contagion des maladies exotiques Anastasios Geōrgiadēs,1833 Off-White Sheng-mei Ma,2019-11-14 How do English speaking novelists and filmmakers tell stories of China from a Chinese perspective How do they keep up appearances of pseudo Sino immanence while ventriloquizing solely in the English language Anglo writers and their readers join in this century old game of impersonating and dubbing Chinese Throughout this wish fulfillment writers lean on grammatical and conceptual frameworks of their mother tongue to represent an alien land and its yellowface aliens Off white or yellowish characters and their foreign sounding speech are thus performed in Anglo American fiction and visual culture both yellowface and Chinglish are of for by the white people Off White interrogates seminal Anglo American fiction and film on off white bodies and voices It commences with one Nobel laureate Pearl Buck and ends with another Kazuo Ishiguro almost a century later The trajectory in between illustrates that the detective and mystery genres continue unabated their stock yellowface characters who exude a magnetic field so powerful as to pull in Japanese anime This universal drive to fashion a foil is ingrained in any will to power so much so that even millennial China creates an off yellow darker hued Orient in Huallywood films to silhouette its global ascent Show Me Where It Hurts Monica Chiu,2023-12-12 In Show Me Where It Hurts Monica Chiu argues that graphic pathography long form comics by and about subjects who suffer from disease or are impaired re vitalizes and re visions various negatively affected corporeal states through hand drawn images By the body and for the body the medium is subversive and reparative and it stands in contradistinction to clinical accounts of illness that tend to disembodify or objectify the subject Employing affect theory spatial theory vital materialism and approaches from race and ethnic studies women and gender studies disability studies and comics studies Chiu provides readings of recently published graphic pathography Chiu argues that these kinds of subjective graphic stories by virtue of their narrative and descriptive strengths provide a form of resistance to the authoritative voice of biomedicine and serve as a tool to foster important change in the face of social and economic inequities when it comes to questions of health and healthcare Show Me Where It Hurts reads what already has been manifested on the comics page and invites more of what demands expression Pathbreaking and provocative this book will appeal to scholars and students of the medical humanities comics studies race and ethnic studies disability studies and women and gender studies The Georgian Era: Military and naval commanders. Judges and barristers. Physicians and surgeons, 1833 Memoir of Nathanael Emmons Park, 1861 A Diary From Dixie (Civil War Memoir) Mary Boykin Chesnut, 2019-12-18 A Diary From Dixie is a Civil War diary which paints a vivid picture of a society in the throes of its life and death struggle The author described the war from within her upper class circles of Southern planter society but encompassed all classes in her book Literary critics have praised Chesnut's diary The influential writer Edmund Wilson termed it a work of art masterpiece of the genre and the most important work by a Confederate author Memoir and Identity in Welsh Patagonia Geraldine Lublin, 2017-05-15 This literary investigation of identity construction in twentieth century Welsh Patagonia breaks new ground by looking at the Welsh community in Chubut not as a quaint anomaly but in its context as an integral part of Argentina Its focus is on historicising and problematising the adoption of the so called Welsh feat as foundational narrative for Chubut and its settler colonial implications in the larger settler colonial formation that is Argentina where indigenous re emergence seems to be leading the way towards real pluralism Exploring the understudied period immediately preceding the celebrated turn of the century revitalisation Memoir and Identity in Welsh Patagonia presents four memoirs written in Welsh and Spanish by Welsh Patagonian descendants read against the grain to foreground the tensions dissonances and ambivalences emerging from the individual narratives The study then probes the romanticised stereotype of the Welsh descendant so prevalent in media representations in order to describe a broader richer panorama of what it means to be a Welsh descendant in Patagonia in a modern Argentine context Homo Et Canis John Paul Dudley, 1892 Macmillan's Magazine, 1880 Speak Well of Me W. Sydney Robinson, 2021-10-07 Sir Ronald Harwood 1934-2020 was one of the most prolific playwrights and screenwriters of his generation His acclaimed play The Dresser has been constantly revived since its premiere in 1980 and has been adapted for both cinema and television most recently the 2015 BBC production starring Sir Anthony Hopkins and Sir Ian McKellen Harwood's other notable film adaptations included Roman Polanski's haunting depiction of life in the Warsaw Ghetto The Pianist 2002 Baz Luhrmann's frontier epic Australia 2008 and Dustin Hoffman's poignant celebration of old age

Quartet 2012 His many awards included an Oscar for The Pianist and a BAFTA for The Diving Bell and the Butterfly 2007 Speak Well of Me turns the focus onto Harwood himself Based on extensive interviews with the playwright during his final years the biography recounts Harwood's gradual transformation from lacklustre South African schoolboy to doyen of theatreland and Hollywood While dissecting each of his major works the book candidly explores Harwood's friendships with the likes of Harold Pinter J B Priestley Andr Previn Sir Donald Wolfit who inspired The Dresser and most controversially Roman Polanski The result is a biography as gripping and morally complex as one of Harwood's own dramas This new paperback edition includes memoirs and assessments of Harwood by Gyles Brandreth Sir Tom Courtenay Lady Antonia Fraser Frederic Raphael Sir Antony Sher and the playwright's oldest friend Gerald Masters
