Fahim, 1994-07-12 The purpose of this study is to examine the rationale of Doris Lessing's development from Classical Realism to mysticism and forms of science fiction and to consider the unifying motifs that appear throughout her novels in her consistent search for Sufi Equilibrium The four novels selected in this study represent significant stages in Lessing's work Chapter one focuses on The Grass is Singing which represents the author's early traditionally realistic writing to show how far the preoccupations of Lessing's later novels find expression in this early work Chapter two studies The Golden Notebook which marks a turning point in formal structure in Lessing's canon and is selected as evidence of her interest in Sufism at that early stage Chapter three concentrates on the study of The Memoirs of a Survivor which has elicited a comparatively limited amount of criticism but which proves to be a major achievement when brought into line with Sufi methods of writing Chapter four considers Lessing's science fiction series Canopus in Argos tracing sources from Oriental literature a key which unlocks many areas of obscurity

Rivers, Memory, And Nation-building Dorothy Zeisler-Vralsted, 2014-11-01 Rivers figure prominently in a nation's historical memory and the Volga and Mississippi have special importance in Russian and American cultures. Beginning in the pre-modern world both rivers served as critical trade routes connecting cultures in an extensive exchange network while also sustaining populations through their surrounding wetlands and bottomlands. In modern times Mother Volga and the Father of Waters became integral parts of national identity contributing to a sense of Russian and American exceptionalism. Furthermore both rivers were drafted into service as the means to modernize the nation state through hydropower and navigation. Despite being forced into submission for modern day hydrological regimes the Volga and Mississippi Rivers persist in the collective memory and continue to offer solace recreation and sustenance. Through their histories we derive a more nuanced view of human interaction with the environment which adds another lens to our understanding of the past.
