Memoirs of an Art Dealer 2 G. Blair Laing, 1982 Memoirs of an Art Dealer G. Blair Laing, 1979 Fair Warning Vladimir Visson, 1986 Memoirs of an Art Dealer G. Blair Laing, 1979 Confessions of an Art Dealer John Howard Swanson, 1995 Jack Swanson's autobiographical fast paced book that powerfully captures the art fever that enthralled the American public over the past two decades Swanson a colorful entrepreneur FAX 415 433 1030 Paul Durand-Ruel Flavie Durand-Ruel, Paul-Louis Durand-Ruel, 2014-11-11 Paul Durand Ruel redefined the role of the art dealer An exceptional entrepreneur and precursor of the international art market scene he established a network of galleries between Paris London Brussels and New York and organized international traveling exhibitions The first to recognize the talent of the Barbizon School artists and the Impressionists and confident in his role championing their art Paul Durand Ruel was able to establish the careers of ground breaking artists including Renoir Monet Sisley Berthe Morisot and Mary Cassatt Paul Durand Ruel Memoirs of the First Impressionist Art Dealer 1831-1922 is a unique and indispensable reference work for those who wish to understand the artistic life and the art market of the nineteenth century It is a testament to Durand Ruel's passion as a friend and patron of the artists the promoting the Barbizon School and later Impressionism Retracing his life from 1831 to 1922 the book features more than sixty illustrations including archival documents and reproduction of works of art a selection of articles and letters a list of the principal exhibitions and artworks he displayed as well as a biographical timeline and family tree Memories of a London Fine Art Dealer Alexander Wengraf, 2020 Memories of a London Art Dealer is the distillation of a lifetime's experience and expertise in the art world Neither an autobiography nor a traditional memoir the book consists of reflections anecdotes telling conversations encounters touches of humour and a choice selection of the triumphs and disasters heroes and villains encountered by an accidental art dealer Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chaz Humber's epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850 Mark Westgarth, 2020-04-07 Rather than the customary focus on the activities of individual collectors The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850 The Commodification of Historical Objects illuminates the less studied roles played by dealers in the nineteenth-century antique and curiosity markets Set against the recent art market turn in scholarly literature this volume examines the role activities agency and influence of antique and curiosity dealers as they emerged in the opening decades of the nineteenth century This study begins at the end of the Napoleonic Wars when dealers began their wholesale importations of historical objects it closes during the 1850s after which the trade became increasingly specialised reflecting the rise of historical museums such as the South Kensington Museum V A Focusing on the archive of the early nineteenth-century London dealer John Coleman Isaac c 1803-1887 as well as drawing on a wide range of other archival and contextual material Mark Westgarth considers the emergence of the dealer in relation to a broad historical and cultural landscape The emergence of the antique and curiosity dealer was part of the rapid economic social political and cultural change of early nineteenth-century Britain centred around ideas of antiquarianism the commercialisation of culture and a distinctive and evolving interest in historical objects This book will be of interest to scholars in art history histories of collecting museum and heritage studies and nineteenth-century culture

Memoir of an Art Gallery Julien Levy, 2003 Introduction by Ingrid Schaffner Art Markets, Agents and Collectors Adriana Turpin, Susan Bracken, 2021-05-06 Art Markets Agents and Collectors brings together a wide variety of case studies based on letters and detailed archival research which nuance the history of the art market and the role of the collector within it Using diaries account books and other archival sources the contributions to this volume show how agents set up networks and acquired works of art often developing the taste and knowledge of the collectors for whom they were working They are therefore seen as important actors in the market having a specific role that separates them from auctioneers dealers museum curators or amateurs while at the same time acknowledging and analyzing the dual positions that many held Each chronological period is introduced by a contextual essay written by a leading expert in the field which sets out the art market in the period concerned and the ways in which agents functioned This book is an invaluable tool for those needing a broader introduction to the intricate workings of the art market Memoirs from Argentina: Canvas of Memories and Echoes of the Past Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-05 Drawing inspiration from the real-life capture of Nazi war criminal Adolf

Eichmann by Israeli intelligence agent Peter Malkin this book delves into the complexities of war justice and the human spirit Through a unique blend of personal accounts historical insights and evocative artwork the book captures the essence of Argentina's tumultuous past and its enduring legacy The author's journey to uncover the truth behind Eichmann's capture unfolds alongside vivid descriptions of Buenos Aires its vibrant Jewish community and the shadows of the Holocaust that lingered in the air The book also explores the profound impact of the Eichmann trial not only on the world stage but also on the survivors and witnesses who testified The author delves into the psychological toll of confronting such unspeakable horrors and the search for closure and reconciliation Beyond the historical narrative the book showcases the power of art as a means of healing and remembrance The author's evocative sketches and paintings created during his time in Argentina serve as a visual testament to the horrors of the past and the resilience of the human spirit Ultimately this book is a poignant reminder of the fragility of peace and the importance of vigilance against intolerance It is a tribute to those who fought against tyranny and a call to action to ensure that such atrocities never happen again If you like this book write a review on google books

Priceless Roy Miles, 2003 Roy Miles is one of the most prolific talented and knowledgeable art dealers in the world He once owned one of the largest galleries in London from Manet to Gainsborough from Toulouse Lautrec to Stubbs there are few great artists whose work has not passed through his hands Moving in the upper reaches of society Roy has met a host of famous and fascinating people including Prince Charles Princess Margaret Ted Heath and Ivana Trump He even organized portraits to be painted for Rudolf Nureyev and for Margaret Thatcher This is a tale of money deals scandal and intrigue Roy's life has been a blend of art travel the rich and the famous and this book gives you a glimpse into a world where money does the talking and the deal is all that matters

Art Smart Alan D. Bryce, 2007-01-01 Art Smart's advice will allow you to venture into the often intimidating world of art with confidence and make intelligent purchases for pleasure and profit

Mary McCarthy's Collected Memoirs Mary McCarthy, 2013-12-10 Three candid affecting memoirs by the 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Group including a National Book Award finalist In Memories of a Catholic Girlhood Mary McCarthy begins with her recollections of a happy childhood cut tragically short by the death of her parents during the influenza epidemic of 1918 Tempering memory with invention McCarthy describes how orphaned at six she spent much of her childhood shuttled between two sets of grandparents and three religions Catholic Protestant and Jewish Early on McCarthy lets the reader in on her secret The chapter you just read may not be wholly reliable facts have been distilled through the hazy lens of time and distance How I Grew is McCarthy's intensely personal autobiography of her life from age thirteen to twenty one With detail driven by an almost astonishing memory recall the author gives us a masterful account of these formative years From her wild adolescence including losing her virginity at fourteen through her eventual escape to Vassar the bestselling novelist essayist and critic chronicles her relationships with family friends lovers and the teachers who would influence her writing career And Intellectual Memoirs opens with McCarthy as a married twenty four year old Communist and critic She's disciplined dedicated and sexually experimental At one point she realizes that in twenty four hours she had slept with three different men Over the course of three years she will have had two husbands the second being the esteemed much older critic Edmund Wilson It is Wilson who becomes McCarthy's mentor and muse urging her to try her hand at fiction Intellectual Memoirs is a vivid snapshot of a distinctive place and time New York in the late 1930s and the forces that shaped Mary McCarthy's life as a woman and a writer Memoirs of a Dada Drummer Richard Huelsenbeck, 1991-06-06 Huelsenbeck's memoirs bring to life the concerns intellectual, artistic and political of the individuals involved in the Dada movement and document the controversies within the movement and in response to it A Fire in His Soul Miles J. Unger, 2025-03-04 The fascinating story of Vincent van Gogh's two groundbreaking years in Paris where he transformed himself from a provincial unknown into one of the world's great visionary artists Vincent Van Gogh arrived in the French capital on the last day of February 1886 a month short of his thirty third birthday He was a man beaten down by life half starved and nearly broken psychologically He was saved by his brother Theo who provided him with room board and most crucially emotional support while he attempted to master the difficult craft of painting Thus far Vincent's crude scenes of peasant life rendered in murky shades of brown and gray were both hackneyed and amateurish Theo a successful art dealer at a prestigious Parisian firm dismissed them as gloomy unappealing and worst of all unmarketable By the time Vincent left Paris almost exactly two years later he'd transformed himself into one of the most original artists of the age turning out works of hallucinatory intensity in vivid hues and stamped with his own distinctive personality A Fire in His Soul chronicles this remarkable transformation It's a tale filled with tragedy and triumph personal anguish and creative fulfillment as Vincent through sheer force of will reinvents himself as a painter of unparalleled expressive power Along the way the reader will discover an unfamiliar Van Gogh not the solitary genius of the popular imagination shunned by an uncomprehending world and conjuring masterpieces from the depths of his lonely soul In Paris he was at the center of a community of like minded seekers Here Van Gogh was able to engage in a lively dialogue with fellow artists almost as daring as he was expanding his notion of what art could and should be It was in the cafes and studios of Montmartre and in the grand galleries of the Louvre and Luxembourg that Van Gogh received his artistic education a crash course that at first disoriented him but ultimately sparked his creative breakthrough Working alongside such legendary figures as Gauguin Toulouse Lautrec Seurat and Signac he found his voice and launched an artistic revolution Théodore Rousseau and the Rise of the Modern Art Market Simon Kelly, 2021-03-25 The 19th century in France witnessed the emergence of the structures of the modern art market that remain until this day This book examines the relationship between the avant garde Barbizon landscape painter Th odore Rousseau 1812-1867 and this market exploring the constellation of patrons art dealers and critics who surrounded the artist It argues for the pioneering role of Rousseau his patrons and his public in the origins of the modern art market and in so doing shifts attention away from the more traditional focus on the novel careers of the Impressionists and their supporters Drawing on extensive archival research the book provides new insight into the role of the modern artist as professional It provides a new understanding of the complex iconographical and formal choices within Rousseau's work rediscovering the original radical charge that once surrounded the artist's work and led to extensive and peculiarly modern tensions with the market place Memoir G. Thomas Couser, 2012-01-19 A compact pithy guide to the most popular form of life writing Memoir An Introduction provides a primer to the ubiquitous literary form and its many subgenres

The Young Vincent Massey Claude Bissell, 1981-12-15 For Vincent Massey youth was a period of protest and emerging public fame He broke with his strong family traditions of Methodist piety and American ties He became known as a patron of the arts innovator politician and diplomat This volume begins with his prosperous Victorian childhood and carries through days as a student and wartime officer He plans Hart House which becomes a cultural centre Promised a cabinet post he runs for Parliament and is defeated Instead he is sent to Washington as Canada's first minister there and achieves brilliant success He is prominent in educational circles he helps to reorganize the Liberal party presses for progressive policies and flirts with the idea of replacing Mackenzie King The book ends in 1935 as he sails to London as his country's high commissioner He considers it his first major job In between he writes poetry usually light sometimes venom tipped He acts and directs plays He sponsors a string quartet of international stature He marries Alice Parkin a handsome woman of strong convictions and with her builds a country home near Port Hope Ontario He becomes a leading collector of modern Canadian art and is involved with the painter David Milne The book is as well a history of the people and ideas which influenced the young Massey family teachers friends associates One chapter is given to his relations with Mackenzie King each of them convinced of his own rightness but separated by fundamental differences loud in protestations of friendship but nourishing an inner contempt for one another Claude Bissell has built this complex and absorbing portrait from the unpublished papers of Vincent Massey and members of his circle diaries of King and other politicians memories of artists and musicians He writes with vigour and elegance quoting extensively from private records and letters coining epigrams of his own His portrait is sympathetic but not uncritical with plenty of scope for the reader to make his own judgements This is the first of two volumes about one of Canada's best known and least understood figures statesman cultural advocate patron family man and first native governor general
