Memoirs of Sir Wemyss Reid 1842 To 1885 Stuart J. Reid,2004-06 I had one curious experience in writing Gladys Fane that may or may not be common to most novelists Certain of the characters were founded upon real men and women I painted no portraits of course but I undoubtedly took hints from people whom I knew My heroine for example had a prototype in real life who served for the first sketch but as I wrote I made her character develop until she was a wholly different woman from her model Black criticising the story in a letter remarked that the further the heroine was removed from all likeness to the original the more natural and real she became Memoirs of Sir Wemyss Reid 1842-1885 J.
