The Mysticism of The Cloud of Unknowing William Johnston, 2000 The Cloud of Unknowing was the work of an unknown 14th century English writer with a powerful message of God's unconditional love in the face of despair Johnston's theological treatment of this and other works by the same writer makes a conscious comparison with Oriental ways of contemplation

Introduction to the Medieval Mystics of Europe Paul E. Szarmach, 1985-06-30 The European Middle Ages bequeathed to the world a legacy of spiritual and intellectual brilliance that has shaped many of the ideals preconceptions and institutions we now take for granted An Introduction to the Medieval Mystics of Europe examines this phenomenon in vivid and scholarly accounts of the lives and achievements of those men and women whose genius most inspired their own and subsequent ages These great mystics explored and consciously realized the relationship between human life and unconditioned transcendence Representing both the contemplative and scholastic traditions the mystics in these studies often found their solutions to ultimate questions in radically different ways Some of them such as Eckhart Aquinas and Cusa may already be familiar and here the reader will benefit from a new approach and summary of extensive research Others such as Smaragdus and several of the women mystics are little known even to specialists Finally and unusually for a study of European mysticism the influence of Spanish Kabbalists is discussed in relation to the Zohar and two figures from the mystical school of Safed Cordovero and Luria Though the essays focus on individuals the cultural and social implications of their lives and work are never ignored for the mystic way did not exist separately from the rest of medieval life it functioned as an integral part of the whole influencing the development of Christian and Jewish religions in both their internal and external forms Sense and Thought Greta Hort,2025-04-01 Originally published in 1936 the author investigates the working of the mind in various types of experiences showing how sense and thought volition and cognition practice and theory work together as well in secular as in religious experiences that in each type of experience reality presents itself but that while secular experiences are partial religious experiences are whole experiences The book discusses the love of God the conception of God as law the relation between the transcendent and the immanent and concludes by showing that the conception of the Absolute is inherent in one type of Christianity
