the radical gestures of the Hollywood Renaissance of the late 1960s and early 1970s to the current dominance of the corporate blockbuster Geoff King covers new Hollywood dynamically and accessibly in this thoroughly modern introductory text He discusses diverse films as well as the film makers and film companies focusing on the interactions between the film texts their social contexts and the industry producing them Using examples across Hollywood and its genres King reveals how the positions of studios within media conglomerates together with the impact of television advertising and franchising on the New Hollywood shape the form and content of the films American Silent Horror, Science Fiction and Fantasy

Feature Films, 1913-1929 John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, Steve Joyce, 2014-01-10 During the Silent Era when most films dealt with dramatic or comedic takes on the boy meets girl boy loses girl theme other motion pictures dared to tackle such topics as rejuvenation revivication mesmerism the supernatural and the grotesque A Daughter of the Gods 1916 The Phantom of the Opera 1925 The Magician 1926 and Seven Footprints to Satan 1929 were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of highly unlikely Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror science fiction and fantasy in the years from 1913 through 1929 Hollywood and Africa Opio

Dokotum, 2020-02-05 Hollywood and Africa recycling the Dark Continent myth from 1908 2020 is a study of over a century of stereotypical Hollywood film productions about Africa It argues that the myth of the Dark Continent continues to influence Western cultural productions about Africa as a cognitive based system of knowledge especially in history literature and film Hollywood and Africa identifies the colonial mastertext of the Dark Continent mythos by providing a historiographic genealogy and context for the terms development and consolidation An array of literary and paraliterary film adaptation theories are employed to analyse the deep genetic strands of Hollywood Africa film adaptations The mutations of the Dark Continent mythos across time and space are then tracked through the classical neoclassical and new wave Hollywood Africa phases in order to illustrate how Hollywood productions about Africa recycle revise reframe reinforce transpose interrogate and even critique these tropes of Darkest Africa while sustaining the colonial mastertext and rising cyberactivism against Hollywoods whitewashing of African history Italian Gothic Horror Films, 1957-1969 Roberto Curti, 2015-03-27 The Gothic style was a key trend in Italian cinema of the 1950s and 1960s because of its peculiar often strikingly original approach to the horror genre These films portrayed Gothic staples in a stylish and idiosyncratic way and took a daring approach to the supernatural and to eroticism with the presence of menacing yet seductive female witches vampires and ghosts Thanks to such filmmakers as Mario Bava Black Sunday Riccardo Freda The Horrible Dr Hichcock and Antonio Margheriti Castle of Blood as well the iconic presence of actress Barbara Steele Italian Gothic horror went overseas and reached cult status The book examines the Italian Gothic horror of the period with an abundance of previously unpublished production information drawn from official papers and original scripts Entries include a complete cast and crew list home video releases plot summary and the author s analysis Excerpts from interviews with filmmakers scriptwriters and actors are included The foreword is by film director and scriptwriter Ernesto Gastaldi Film Genre Reader IV Barry Keith Grant,2012-12-01 From reviews of the third edition Film Genre Reader III lives up to the high expectations set by its predecessors providing an accessible and relatively comprehensive look at genre studies The anthology s consideration of the advantages and challenges of genre studies as well as its inclusion of various film genres and methodological approaches presents a pedagogically useful overview Scope Since 1986 Film Genre Reader has been the standard reference and classroom text for the study of genre in film with more than 25 000 copies sold Barry Keith Grant has again revised and updated the book to reflect the most recent developments in genre study This fourth edition adds new essays on genre definition and cycles action movies science fiction and heritage films along with a comprehensive and updated bibliography The volume includes more than thirty essays by some of film s most distinguished critics and scholars of popular cinema including Charles Ramirez Berg John G Cawelti Celestino Deleyto David Desser Thomas Elsaesser Steve Neale Thomas Schatz Paul Schrader Vivian Sobchack Janet Staiger Linda Williams and Robin Wood The Evolution of the Western Martin Kich,2024-09-05 Explore the enduring influence of the Western the quintessential American film genre and its essential role in US and world culture Follow the entire history of the Western from its roots in the pulp novels of the early 20th century through the serials of the silent era and the mid century classics of John Ford and John Wayne to the recent award winning revisionist works like Unforgiven and No Country for Old Men that provide a more complex and nuanced take on history of the West Perhaps more than any other pop culture genre the Western allows us to view how Americans have seen themselves over the last 150 years Build a foundational understanding of the genre with 5 introductory essays exploring the development of the Western Mythos in the traditional Western the heyday of the traditional Western in the post WWII period revisionist Westerns and the counterculture race and identity and the Western outside of the USA Close to 100 encyclopedia entries examine one or more movies or television programs and show how their creation and plots demonstrate the overall evolution of the genre Easily compare films and TV programs from early genre favorites such as Gunsmoke to more recent releases like Django Unchained with essential facts boxes accompanying each entry with information on the director studio key actors and box office receipts Product Placement in Hollywood Films Kerry Segrave,2014-11-18 This is the history of advertising in motion pictures from the slide ads of the 1890s to the common practice of product placement in the present Initially product placement was seen as a somewhat sleazy practice and also faced opposition from the film industry itself it has grown dramatically in the past 25 years From Maillard s Chocolates advertising with a shot of Cardinal Richelieu enjoying a hot cup of cocoa in 1895 to product placements in 2002 s Minority Report for which advertisers were rumored to have paid 25 million this book explores the developing union of corporate America and Hollywood This work addresses such topics as television s conditioning of filmgoers to accept commercials companies donation of props the debate about advertising such activities as smoking and drinking in films and product displacement or demands by companies to keep their products absent from unpopular or controversial films Film stills and a bibliography complete the book
