Sight-Translation Preparation Exercise

Reading Lesson: Sight-Translation Preparation

Instructions: This lesson is for you to prepare for the sight translation exercise "Affirmation" that will appear on the next screen.

Scenario

In the following exercise you will be sight translating part of an affirmation being signed in the presence of a notary.

Imagine you need to read this document into your target language to a NES customer.

Terminology

Below are some of the terms that are included in the document. Are you familiar with what they mean? How would you interpret these terms into your target language? Look them up in the dictionary, if you're not sure. Also, remember if you don't know the exact translation of a term, you can explain the term. That's why it's always important to know the meaning of the term before deciding on a translation.

Preparation For Translation Ver 3:

Bible in China JostOliver Zetzsche,2017-07-05 The Union Version China s preeminent and most widely used translation of the Bible had achieved the status of a sacred Chinese classic within the Chinese Church not long after its publication in 1919 Jost Zetzsche s monograph on this remarkable translation traces the historical and linguistic background that led to the decision to translate the Union Version with detailed analyses of the translation efforts that preceeded it Special attention is given to the cooperation and confrontation among Protestant denominations as well as the rising prominence of the Chinese translators as these groups attempted to form a cohesive translation of the Bible This is set against the background of the development of the Chinese language during the 30 year translation process both in the perception of the translators and in the country at large
