Prepare Our Hearts Advent And Christmas Traditions For Families:

Prepare Our Hearts Muriel Tarr Kurtz, 2012-10-25 When we join a group be it Boy Scouts Girl Scouts Rotary or Kiwanis we expect to give it time and energy to fulfill the mission of the group If we don't participate we receive no benefits from our membership We don't join a family God puts us into one but the same thoughts apply Being in a family that lives separately under one roof is a huge loss God could predict this so we have the passage in Deuteronomy 6 which is worth re-reading from time to time Prepare Our Hearts will give you new thoughts about your Christmas celebrations It may help you appreciate that many people before us have longed to be ready for the birth of the Christ child and have taken time to alter their patterns and make room for activities that inspire Advent the four weeks before Christmas can be a wonder-filled time for families to begin the practice of gathering as a family for a common purpose During Advent we prepare our hearts thoughts and homes for the coming of the Christ child It is a perfect time for sharing reading Scripture and special stories about Christmas singing praying and lighting the candles in the Advent wreath The family is encouraged to plan for others and enjoy activities together Families need encouragement in our day when many forces intrude Think seriously how your family lives in December Use the suggestions to make your own traditions Most importantly don't allow the precious years with your children to vanish into nothingness Prepare Our Hearts will contribute to memory making that will be remembered long after the gifts exchanged no longer fit or hold interest

Deacon Rick's homilies capture the joys and challenges of being a husband, father, and educator. He embraces his role as an evangelist and encourages all the faithful to do the same. His homilies offer them guidance on being God's storytellers, as well.
