International Economic Organizations in the International Legal Process Sergei A. Voitovich, 2023-08-28. Voitovich presents a clear and lucid discussion of the manner and form in which international economic organizations (IEOs) participate in two main stages of the international legal process: law making and law implementation. The book is based on normative instruments and fragments of practice of about fifty IEOs. In order to ensure a proper and timely realization of their normative acts, IEOs exercise a number of law implementing functions which are subject to a thorough comparative examination. The author concludes that existing IEOs, not being ideal institutional models, possess a sufficient arsenal of law implementing instruments to make a considerable impact on the international legal regulations in the economic field. The book will be of interest to academics and economic political scientists.

Moscow DMZ: The Story of the International Effort to Convert Russian Weapons Science to Peaceful Purposes Glenn E. Schweitzer, 2016-09-16. As the Soviet Union was collapsing in late 1991, reports began to reach the West about agents shopping for weapons systems and weapons scientists in the beleaguered Soviet military industrial complex. In response, the United States, the European Community, and Japan, in cooperation with the Russian government, created a program to reemploy Soviet scientific personnel in civilian projects dealing with the legacy of the Soviet system: a polluted environment, unsafe nuclear power facilities, and economic underdevelopment. In this fascinating first person account, the American environmental scientist who led the effort to establish the International Science and Technology Center in Moscow tells the diplomatic, scientific, and human story behind a remarkable post Cold War conversion initiative.
