Presence Of Mind Museums And The Spirit Of Learning:

Presence of Mind American Association of Museums, 1999 A comprehensive and wide ranging look at the current state and future prospects of education within the museum at the beginning of the 21st century Contributors are past winners of the annual Award for Excellence and the John Cotton Dana Award presented by the Education Committee of AAM Authors include Diane Frankel Michael Spock Mary Ellen Munley Elaine Gurian Bonnie Pitman and Alberta Sebolt George among other leading educators and museum professionals

Civilizing the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian, 2006-05-17 Written over a thirty five year career the essays in Civilizing the Museum introduce students to the powerful sometimes contested and often unrealized notion that museums should welcome all because they house the collective memory of all Drawing on her experience working in and with museums in the US and throughout the world Author Elaine Heumann Gurian explores the possibilities for making museums more central and relevant to society The twenty two essays are organized around five main themes museum definitions civic responsibility and social service architectural spaces exhibitions spirituality and rationality And these themes address the elements that would make museums more inclusive such as exhibition technique space configurations the personality of the director the role of social service power sharing types of museums the need for emotion humour and spirituality Without abandoning the traditional museum processes Gurian shows how museums can honour tradition whilst embracing the new Enriched by her experience in groundbreaking museums Gurian has provided a book that provokes thought dialogue and action for students and professionals in the field to realize the inclusive potential of museums

Learning from Museums John H. Falk, Lynn D. Dierking, 2018-10-16 This is the second edition of John H Falk and Lynn D Dierking s ground breaking book Learning from Museums While the book still focuses on why how what when and with whom people learn from their museum experiences the authors further investigate the extension of museums beyond their walls and the changing perceptions of the roles that museums increasingly play in the 21st century with respect to the publics they serve and those they would like to serve This new edition offers an updated and synthesized version of the Contextual Model of Learning as well as the latest advances in free choice learning research theory and practice in order to provide readers a highly readable and informative understanding of the personal sociocultural and physical dimensions of the museum experience Falk and Dierking also fill in gaps in the 1st edition Falk s research focuses increasingly on the self related needs that museums meet and these findings enhance the personal context chapter Dierking s work delves deeply into the macro sociocultural dimensions of learning a topic not discussed in the sociocultural chapter in the first edition Emphasizing the importance of time and space the second edition adds an entirely new chapter to describe the important dimension of time They also insert findings from the burgeoning field of neuroscience Latter chapters of the book discuss the evolving role of museums in the rapidly changing Information Learning Society of the 21st century New examples and suggestions highlight the ways that the new understandings of learning can help museum practitioners reinvent how museums can and should support the public's lifelong life wide and life deep learning      Reinventing the Museum Gail Anderson, 2004-03-09 This reader brings together 35 seminal articles that reflect the museum world's ongoing conversation with itself and the public about what it means to be a museum one that is relevant and responsive to its constituents and always examining and reexamining its operations policies collections and programs In conjunction with the editor's introductory material and recommended additional readings these articles will help students grasp the essentials of the dialogue and guide them on where to turn for further details and developments      Museum Management and Marketing Richard Sandell, Robert R. Janes, 2007-04-11 Drawing together a selection of high quality intellectually robust and stimulating articles on both theoretical and practice based developments in the field this Reader investigates the closely linked areas of management and marketing in the museum The articles from established and world renowned contributors practitioners and writers at the leading edge of their fields deal with the museum context of management and how marketing and management practices must take account of the specifics of the museum and the not for profit ethos Key writings from broader literature are included and the collection of key writings on the investigation and study of management and marketing in the museum are of great benefit not only to those studying the subject but also to professionals working and developing within the field

Centering the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian, 2021-09-14 Drawing on Elaine Heumann Gurian's fifty years of museum experience Centering the Museum calls on the profession to help visitors experience their shared humanity and find social uses for public buildings in order to make museums more central and useful to everyone in difficult times Following the same format as Civilizing the Museum this new volume includes material written especially for a re emergent time and relevant public lectures not included in the author's previous book Divided into six separate content clusters with over twenty different essays the book identifies many small subtle ways museums can become welcoming to more and to all Drawing on her extensive experience as a deputy director senior advisor to high profile government museums lecturer and teacher around the world the author provides recommendations for inclusive actions by intertwining sociological thinking with practical decision making strategies Writing reflectively Elaine also provides heritage students and professionals with insights that will help move their careers and organizations into more equitable yet successful terrain Centering the Museum will be an excellent companion volume to Civilizing the Museum and as such will be a useful support for emerging museum leaders It will be especially interesting to academics and students engaged in the study of cultural administration as well as museum and heritage practitioners working around the world      Educational Leadership Tina R Nolan, 2017-09-29 Sponsored by the Museum Education Roundtable this is volume 34 Number 2 of the Journal of Museum Education JME Educational Leadership published in the summer of 2009 This edition includes articles the museum educator crisis transforming education theory into practice benchmarking education growth and leadership implications for emerging leaders and change leadership      Great Tours! Essays on Museum Practice María Verónica Valarino de Abreu, The Journal of Museum Education ,2006

Engaged Anthropology Michelle Hegmon,B. Sunday Eiselt,2005-01-01 This collection of essays is based on the 2005 Society for American Archaeology symposium and presents research that epitomizes Richard I Ford s approach of engaged anthropology This transdisciplinary approach integrates archaeological research with perspectives from ethnography history and ecology and engages the anthropologist with Native partners and with socio natural landscapes Research papers largely focus on the U S Southwest but also consider other areas of North America issues related to museums collections and indigenous approaches to materials research

Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine,Svetlana Mintcheva,2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners

The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums Mary Kay Cunningham,2004 The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums helps institutions develop a customized training program for their interpreters Focusing on social interaction this book combines group exercises written and oral activities and interactive lectures to teach interpreters how to facilitate meaningful conversations with visitors

The Last "Darky" Louis Chude-Sokei,2006-01-16 Examines the use of Africa as a figure in the Harlem Renaissance and looks at the place of that movement within a wider Black modernism
