Present Imperfect Andrew van der Vlies, 2017-05-26 Present Imperfect asks how South African writers have responded to the end of apartheid to the hopes that attended the birth of the new nation in 1994 and to the inevitable disappointments that have followed. The first full length study of affect in South Africa's literature it understands disappointment both as a description of bad feeling and as naming a missed appointment with all that was promised by the anti colonial and anti apartheid Struggle. A disappointment. Attending to contemporary writers treatment of temporality genre and form it considers a range of negative feelings that are also experiences of temporal disjuncture including stasis impasse boredom disaffection and nostalgia. Present Imperfect offers close readings of work by a range of writers some known to international Anglophone readers including J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavic and Zo Wicomb some slightly less well known including Afrikaans language novelists Marlene van Niekerk and Ingrid Winterbach and others from a new generation including Songeziwe Mahlangu and Masande Ntshanga. It addresses key questions in South African studies about the evolving character of the historical period in which the country now finds itself. It is also alert to wider critical and theoretical conversations looking outward to make a case for the place of South African writing in global conversations and mobilizing readings of writing marked in various ways as South African in order to complicate the contours of World Literature as category discipline and pedagogy. It is thus also a book about the discontents of neoliberalism the political energies of reading and the fates of literature in our troubled present. Expressionism's Utopian Vision [lecture] Reinhold Heller, 2000 Emotionally Durable Design Jonathan Chapman, 2015-04-10 Emotionally Durable Design presents counterpoints to our throwaway society by developing powerful design tools methods and frameworks that build resilience into relationships between people and things. The book takes us beyond the sustainable design field's established focus on energy and materials to engage the underlying psychological phenomena that shape patterns of consumption and waste. In fluid and accessible writing the author asks why do we discard products that still work He then moves forward to define strategies for the design of products that people want to keep for longer Along the way we are introduced to over twenty examples of emotional durability in smart phones shoes chairs clocks teacups toasters boats and other material experiences Emotionally Durable Design transcends the prevailing doom and gloom rhetoric of sustainability discourse to pioneer a more hopeful meaningful and resilient form of material culture This second edition features pull out quotes illustrated product examples a running glossary and comprehensive stand firsts this book can be read cover to cover or dipped in and out of It is a daring call to arms for professional designers educators researchers and students from in a range of disciplines from product design to architecture framing an alternative genre of design that reduces the consumption and waste of resources by increasing the durability of relationships between people and things

Rethinking Democracy for Post-Utopian Worlds Jorge León Casero, Julia Urabayen, 2024-06-06 This book is both a conceptualization and detailed analysis of the current crisis in which modern utopian categories of political institutions find themselves as well as a reflection and clarification of the new dangers and opportunities facing post utopian politics in the making Met with those who believe that no more utopian political projects are possible the post utopian movement maintains a non fantastic or illusory character of being able to apply new great discourses and radically democratic historical narratives while respecting both the autonomy and emancipation of individuals as plurality and the socio cultural differences of communities With this purpose in mind the book is divided into five thematically differentiated sections the new utopian categories beyond modern epistemes the possibility of liberal utopian democracies without neoliberalism the opportunities of socialist empowerments and insurgencies the necessity of thinking in the space between two ages and the urgency to create eco political post utopias

The Task of Utopia Erin McKenna, 2001 At their best both American pragmatism and utopianism are about hope Both encourage people to think about the future as a guide to understanding the past and forming the present Just as pragmatism has often been misunderstood as valueless instrumentalism utopianism has been limited to dreams of a static perfect world In this book Erin McKenna argues that utopian vision informed by pragmatism results in a process model of utopia that can help form the future based on critical intelligence Using John Dewey's works with feminist theory and literature McKenna develops this pragmatist feminist model of utopia

From North to South Helen F. Bergin, 2013-08-31 From North to South brings together the interests in Edward Schillebeeckx of eight theologians from Australia New Zealand and Malaysia In each chapter theologians dialogue from a southern context with one of Schillebeeckx's themes or methods Themes such as suffering and negative contrast experiences political holiness ecclesiology God and the cross resurrection and hope and theology and culture are addressed Attention to Schillebeeckx's hermeneutics lies at the heart of several chapters but is generally woven throughout Contributors bring their particular southern contexts into serious dialogue with Schillebeeckx's northern thought The book concludes with a response to the south from North American theologian Kathleen McManus OP In short the book witnesses to the ongoing challenge and stimulation of Edward

Schillebeeckx's theology Science Fiction Literature in East Germany Sonja Fritzsche, 2006 East German science fiction enabled its authors to create a subversive space in another time and place One of the country's most popular genres it outlined futures that often went beyond the party's official version Many utopian stories provided a corrective vision intended to preserve and improve upon East German communism This study is an introduction to East German science fiction The book begins with a chapter on German science fiction before 1949 It then spans the entire existence of the country 1949 1990 and outlines key topics essential to understanding the genre popular literature socialist realism censorship fandom and international science fiction An in depth discussion addresses notions of high and low literature elements of the fantastic and utopia as critical narrative strategies ideology and realism in East German literature gender and the relation between literature and science Through a close textual analysis of three science fiction novels the author expands East German literary history to include science fiction as a valuable source for developing a multi faceted understanding of the country's short history Finally an epilogue notes new titles and developments since the fall of the Berlin Wall The Psychoanalytic Quarterly Dorian Feigenbaum, Bertram David Lewin, Gregory Zilboorg, Frankwood Earl Williams, 1975 Primitive high gods by G eza R oheim v 3 no 1 pt 2 133 p Encyclopedia of Global Studies Helmut K. Mary K. Leigh, Kevin K. Durand, 2013-11-04 The work of Karl Marx is revered in social philosophy political science and literary criticism but there is an area where Marxism seems not to have penetrated That area is the study of popular culture especially the cinema where Marxism provides a useful lens through which seemingly disparate films can be explored As a whole the new essays assembled here approach a wide cross section of cinematic history and provide analysis of blockbusters cult hits comedies suspenseful dramas and history making films within a framework of power power relations and class struggle The collection brings to popular culture studies the same scholarly weight that attends the work of Aristotle or Plato or Derrida and at the same time presents that scholarship in an accessible style Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives Magda Nico, Ana Caetano, 2021-05-12 Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives brings together different takes on the possible combinations of agency and structure in the life course thus rejecting the notion that young individuals are the single masters of their lives but also the view that their social destinies are completely out of their hands How did I get here This is a question young people have always asked themselves and is often asked by youth researchers There is no easy and single answer The lives that are told on one hand and their interpretation on the other may have the underlying idea of own doing or the idea of social determinism or more accurately and frequently a combination of the two This collection constitutes a comprehensive map on how to make sense of youth's biographies and trajectories it questions and reshapes the discussion on the role and responsibility of youth studies in the understanding of how people juggle opportunities and constraints and contributes to escaping what Furlong and Cartmel identified as the epistemological fallacy of late modernity in which young people find themselves responsible for collective failures or inevitabilities It can thus interest students researchers and professors youth workers and all of those who work for and with young people
