Presenting America, Encountering the Philippines Gerald T. Burns, 1992 Asian American Literature in Transition, 1965-1996: Volume 3 Asha Nadkarni, Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, 2021-06-17 This volume traces the formation of the Asian American literary canon and the field of Asian American Studies from 1965 1996 It is intended for an academic audience ranging from advanced undergraduate students to scholars from a variety of disciplines interested in the formation of Asian American literary studies from 1965 1996 Teaching Creative Writing in Asia Darryl Whetter, 2021-08-26 This book examines the dynamic landscape of creative educations in Asia exploring the intersection of post coloniality translation and creative educations in one of the world s most relevant testing grounds for STEM versus STEAM educational debates Several essays attend to one of today s most pressing issues in Creative Writing education and education generally the convergence of the former educational revolution of Creative Writing in the anglophone world with a defining aspect of the 21st century the shift from monolingual to multilingual writers and learners The essays look at examples from across Asia with specific experience from India Singapore China Hong Kong the Philippines and Taiwan Each of the 14 writer professor contributors has taught Creative Writing substantially in Asia often creating and directing the first university Creative Writing programs there This book will be of interest to anyone following global trends within creative writing and those with an interest in education and multilingualism in Asia The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Cities and Nationhood Ian Morley, 2018-06-30 The Treaty of Paris in 1898 initiated America s administration of the Philippines By 1905 Manila had been replanned and the city of Baguio built as expressions of colonial sovereignty and as symbols of a society disassociating itself from its hitherto uncivilized existence Against this historical backdrop Ian Morley undertook a thorough investigation to elucidate the meaning of modern American city planning in the Philippines and examine its dissemination throughout the archipelago with respect to colonial governmental ideals social advancement and the shaping of national identity By focusing on the forces of the early years of American colonial rule Cities and Nationhood offers a historical paradigm that not only re grounds our grasp of Philippine cities but also illuminates complex national identity movements and city design practices that were evident elsewhere during the early 1900s Cities and Nationhood places the design of Philippine cities within a framework of America s distinct religious and racial identity colonial politics and local cultural expansion In doing so it expands knowledge about city planning its influence and role within national development by providing valuable insights into the nature of Philippine society during an era when America felt morally compelled to enact progressive civilization by instruction and example Producing a new understanding of the role of America s colonial mission the City Beautiful modern of urban design and Philippine cities and the inclusions and exclusions designed into their built forms the author addresses two fundamental intellectual matters First the work recontextualizes the planning history of Philippine cities Analysis of the ideals of nationalism and civility at a key period in Philippine history shifts scholarship on the plans of Philippine cities Second the book offers an example of how studies of city design can profitably embrace additional geographical cultural and chronological territories in order to rethink the abstract and tangible meaning of arranging urban places after major governmental changes and identity transitions have occurred
