College Grad Seeks Future Howard R. Greene, Matthew W. Greene, 2010-05-11 In College Grad Seeks Future, Howard and Matthew Greene will help post-collegians to find their true calling, pursue the field that best fits their talents and passion, and utilize their unique skills to build a career efficiently and effectively. In the coming years, college graduates will have a more difficult time than ever entering the job market. Opportunities in traditional fields are shrinking as the competition increases exponentially. Despite this glaring truth, far too many post-collegians automatically consider the most visible traditional careers, usually out of confusion, uncertainty, and peer and parental pressures. Fields like law, medicine, and banking, just to name a few, are often overpopulated and thus extremely competitive for entry-level positions. The Greenes explain to readers the highly individualistic nature of choosing a career, the interesting choices that are frequently overlooked, and the imaginative ways in which young adults can identify their goals and take the necessary steps to realize them.

How to Be Successful in Your First Year of Teaching College Terry Webster, 2010 Imagine yourself in front of a classroom on the first day of your career as a college instructor. You pass your new set of students a fresh copy of the syllabus that you spent hours perfecting over the summer. You introduce yourself and begin getting to know your students.
