Poetry Against the World Magdalena Kay, 2018-10-31 Poetry Against the World Philip Larkin and Charles Tomlinson in Contemporary Britain brings together two major poets who espouse opposite aesthetic ambitions yet are both taken as paragons of Englishness in order to ask how they pitch their poetry against an inhospitable world This book explores how these two representative poets seek to redress an age of demolition through their poetry and how their audiences react to the types of redress they propose

How Poets See the World Willard Spiegelman, 2005-06-23 Spiegelman looks closely at a handful of contemporary poets including John Ashbery Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Charles Tomlinson and Charles Wright to illustrate the art of description in poetry

Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer s Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet s relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa Sewell, Kazim Ali, 2020-02-25 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series Like the earlier anthologies this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe Elline Lipkin on Alice Notley Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine and many more A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt, Alan Michael Parker, 2002 Global in perspective this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors Who's Who in Twentieth Century World Poetry Alan Parker, Mark Willhardt, 2005-12-05 Publicity Title Foreword by Andrew Motion Poet Laureate 900 entries by 75 international contributors all experts in their field Covers both canonical and lesser known contemporary poets Very broad range of coverage taking in poets from all over the world The only book of its kind to look at non English language poets in such detail Movements in Chicano Poetry Rafael Pèrez-Torres, 1995-01-27 Studies the central concerns addressed by recent Chicano poetry Poetry in Person Alexander Neubauer, 2010-11-03 In the fall of 1970 at the New School in Greenwich Village a new teacher posted a flyer on the wall begins Alexander Neubauer's introduction to this remarkable book It read Meet Poets and Poetry with Pearl London and Guests Few students responded No one knew Pearl London the daughter of M Lincoln Schuster cofounder of Simon with Galway Kinnell his influential notion that the new nature poem must include the city and not exclude man with June Jordan

Contemporary Scottish Poetry and the Natural World Monika Szuba, 2019-06-24 With an exciting and provocative approach to the reading of landscape and the non human world in the work of four major Scottish poets this groundbreaking book merges phenomenology and ecocritical literary criticism The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Poetry Matthew Bevis, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Poetry offers an authoritative collection of original essays and is an essential resource for those interested in Victorian poetry and poetics Between the Lines: Yang Lian's Poetry Through Translation Cosima Bruno, 2012-06-08 Between the Lines provides theoretical foundation and a methodology for studying poetry through translation With insider's perspective the author Cosima Bruno presents contemporary Chinese poems by Yang Lian b 1955 as case study The Romantic Poetry Handbook Michael O'Neill, Madeleine Callaghan, 2017-10-24 An absorbing survey of poetry written in one of the most revolutionary eras in the history of British literature This comprehensive survey of British Romantic poetry explores the work of six poets whose names are most closely associated with the Romantic era Wordsworth Coleridge Blake Keats Byron and Shelley as well as works by other significant but less widely studied poets such as Leigh Hunt Charlotte Smith Felicia Hemans and Letitia Elizabeth Landon Along with its exceptional coverage the volume is alert to relevant contexts and opens up ways of understanding Romantic poetry The Romantic Poetry Handbook encompasses the entire breadth of the Romantic Movement beginning with Anna Laetitia Barbauld and running through to Thomas Lovell Beddoes and John Clare In its central section Readings it explores tensions change and continuity within the Romantic Movement and examines a wide range of individual poems and poets through sensitive attentive and accessible analyses In addition the authors provide a full introduction a detailed historical and cultural timeline biographies of the poets whose works are featured in the Readings section and a helpful guide to further reading The Romantic Poetry Handbook is an ideal text for undergraduate and postgraduate study of British Romantic poetry It also will appeal to every reader with an interest in the Romantics and in poetry generally Why Write Poetry? Jeannine Johnson, 2007 Poets have long been defending poetry in prose and essays by Sidney Shelley and others are a familiar and important part of the Anglo American literary tradition This book identifies and examines a related genre the verse defense of poetry which shares the same impulse that has led to the composition of prose essays namely the desire to protect poetry from its detractors and to promote its value as a vital human endeavor In the last century or so this impulse to engage questions of poetry's value in poems has become increasingly widespread and it has dominated the careers of at least five poets H D Wallace Stevens W H Auden Adrienne

Rich and Geoffrey Hill Though these poets espouse very different aesthetic principles they like many of their contemporaries have repeatedly turned to apology in their verse At first glance this seems an odd gesture given that the readers and writers of poetry are those who least need convincing of poetry's worthiness But questioning poetry in verse is a form of lyric introspection that is productive and well suited for a modern poet characterized as one of indifference defense helps these authors make a claim for poetry's cultural relevance as well as for its private profit Jeannine Johnson is a Preceptor in Expository Writing at Harvard University

Text World Theory and Keats' Poetry Marcello Giovanelli, 2013-08-15 Text World Theory and Keats Poetry applies advances in cognitive poetics and text world theory to four poems by the nineteenth century poet John Keats It takes the existing text world theory as a starting point and draws on stylistics literary theory cognitive linguistics cognitive psychology and dream theories to explore reading poems in the light of their emphasis on states of desire dreaming and nightmares It accounts for the representation of these states and the ways in which they are likely to be processed monitored and understood Text World Theory and Keats Poetry advances both the current field of cognitive stylistics but also analyses Keats in a way that offers new insights into his poetry It is of interest to stylisticians and those in literary studies

The Poet Percival Stockdale, 1773

Poetry Of The Second World War Desmond Graham, 2011-05-31 Poetry of the Second World War brings to light a neglected chapter in world literature In its chorus of haunting poetic voices over a hundred of the most articulate minds of their generation record the true experience of the 1939-45 conflict and its unending consequences In keeping with its subject it has an international scope with poems from over twenty countries including Japan Australia Europe America and Russia poems in which human responses echo each other across boundaries of culture and state Auden Brecht Stevie Smith Primo Levi Zbigniew Herbert and Anna Akhmatova are set alongside the eloquence of unknown poets The anthology has been arranged to bring out the chronological and cumulative human experience of the war pre war fears air raids the boredom fear and camaraderie of military life battle occupation and resistance surviving and the aftermath Here at last are the poems of the Holocaust the Blitz Hiroshima of soldiers refugees and disrupted lives What emerges is a poetry capable of conveying the vast and terrible sweep of war

The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton, 2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times Mandelstam's Worlds Andrew Kahn, 2020-07-28 Rightly appreciated as a poet's poet Mandelstam has been habitually read as a repository of learned allusion Yet as Seamus Heaney observed his work is as firmly rooted in both an historical and cultural context as real as Joyce's Ulysses or Eliot's Waste Land Great lyric poets offer a cross section of their times and Mandelstam's poems represent the worlds of politics history art and ideas about intimacy and creativity The interconnections between these domains and Mandelstam's writings are the subject of this book showing how engaged the poet was with the history social movements political ideology and aesthetics of his time The importance of the book also lies in showing how literature no less than history and philosophy enables readers to confront the huge upheaval in outlook can demand of us thinking with poetry is to think through the moral compromise and tension felt by individuals in public and private contexts and to create out of art experience in itself The book further innovates by integrating a new comprehensive discussion of the Voronezh Notebooks one of the supreme achievements of Russian poetry This book considers the full political dimension of works that explore the role of the poet as a figure positioned within society but outside the state caught between an ideal of creative independence and a devotion to the original ameliorative ideals of the revolution
