

most enlightened Citizens, and under which we have enjoyed unexampled felicity, the whole nation is devoted. May one it therefore to Candor, and to the amicable Relations existing between the United States and those powers, to declare that we should consider any attempts on their part to extend their system to any portion of this Hemisphere, as dangerous to our peace and safety.
Notwithstanding the existing Colonies or dependencies of any European power, we have not interfered, and shall not interfere. But with the Governments who have declared their Independence, and maintain existence, and whose Independence we have, on great consideration, and on just principles, acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of opposing them, or controlling in any other manner, their destiny, by any European power, in any other light, than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition towards the United States. In the war between those new Governments and Spain, we declared our neutrality at the time of their recognition, and to this we have
