

PR strategy

1. Research everything

Researching the environment in which you want to create your PR strategy and campaign is the most important aspect of every endeavour.

2. Objectives

Goals and objectives can vary depending on the focus of your campaign. Whether it is to spread awareness, send a message, promote a new product or service or make an announcement.

4. Set clear milestones

Have to set clear week-to-week milestones to help identify when activities are to be completed or when a campaign should be launched.

3. Integrate your content calendar

The content calendar includes all elements needed to successfully pitch and gain coverage as part of your plan.

5. Measure / Monitor Success

It's essential to know what the KPIs look like and how to monitor success and the tools needed to do so must be identified in your strategy.

6. What to do after you receive media coverage?

It is important to develop your relationship with the journalist that published your content.
