The Law School - Global Issues, Local Questions Fiona Cownie, 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this international collection of essays on legal education addresses the following issues The Law School and the University Research into legal education has often been regarded as a marginal activity as compared with research into substantive areas of law However recent years have seen a growing interest in discussions about the purpose of the university law school and the ways in which law is taught within it Are we educating professional lawyers or legal scholars What do we really mean when we say we want to offer a liberal education in the law What effect are the current changes in higher education funding and policy having on law schools and what takes place within them The international group of scholars who have contributed to this collection come from very different jurisdictions but they have written about topics which while they have local resonances are of concern globally Global Issues Local Questions addresses matters which concern all law teachers whatever their field of substantive legal expertise

What is Legal Education for? Rachel Dunn, Paul Maharg, Victoria Roper, 2022-09-30 How we interpret and understand the historical contexts of legal education has profoundly affected how we understand contemporary educational cultures and practices This book the result of a Modern Law Review seminar both celebrates and critiques the lasting impact of Peter Birks influential edited collection Pressing Problems in the Law Volume 2 What is the Law School for Published in 1996 his book addresses many critical issues that are hauntingly present in the 21st century amongst them the impact of globalisation technological disruption and the tension inherent in law schools as they seek to balance the competing interest of teaching research and administration Yet Birks collection misses key issues too The role of wellbeing of emotion or affect the relation of legal education to education the status of legal education in what since his volume have become the devolved jurisdictions of Northern Ireland Wales and Scotland these and others are absent from the research agenda of the book Today legal educators face new challenges We are still recovering from the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic on our universities In 1996 Birks was keen to stress the importance of comparative research within Europe Today legal researchers are dismayed at the possibility of losing valuable EU research funding when the UK leaves the EU and at the many other negative effects of Brexit on legal education The proposed Solicitors Qualifying Examination takes legal education regulation and professional learning into uncharted waters This book discusses these and related impacts on our legal educations As law schools approach an existential crossroads post Covid 19 it seems timely to revisit Birks fundamental question what are law schools for

Structure and Justification in Private Law C.E.F. Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter Birks s tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague teacher and friend One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England Mapping the Law Essays in Memory of Peter Birks edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger This volume contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume reflecting the far flung habitations of its authors The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied instead they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy the relationship between contract property and unjust enrichment and the place of remedies within private law This volume featuring the work of some of the world's great private lawyers provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought provoking essays inspired by his example Contributors Kit Barker Michael Bryan Peter Butler Hanoch Dagan Simone Degeling Daniel Friedmann Mark Gergen Ross Grantham Steve Hedley John McCamus Mitchell McInnes Eoin O'Dell Charles Rickett Struan Scott Emily Sherwin Stephen Smith Richard Sutton Michael Tilbury Stephen Waddams Peter Watts Ernest Weinrib Eric Descheemaeker

Emotions in the Law School Emma Jones, 2019-08-23 Law schools are failing both their staff and students by requiring them to prize reason and rationality and to suppress or ignore emotions Despite innovations in terms of both content and teaching techniques there is little evidence that emotions are effectively acknowledged or utilised within legal education Instead law schools are clinging to an out dated and erroneous perception of emotions as at best irrational and at worst dangerous In contrast to this educational and scientific developments have demonstrated that emotions are a fundamental inescapable part of learning teaching and skills development Harnessing these emotions will therefore have a transformative effect on legal education and enable it to adapt to the needs and demands of the twenty first century This book provides a theoretical overview of the role played by emotions in all aspects of the life of the law school It explores the relationship emotions have with key traditional and contemporary approaches to legal education the ways in which emotions can be conceptualised their interaction with the politics and policies of legal education and their role within teaching and learning The book also considers the importance of emotional wellbeing for both law students and legal academics Overall this book argues for a more holistic form of legal education in which emotions play a valuable and valued role This requires a new vision for law schools in which emotions are acknowledged and embedded at all levels institutional and personal Exploring the 'Socio' of Socio-Legal Studies
