traces the restless career of the painter Hartley had troubled friendships with some of the most important artists and writers of his day Gertrude Stein William Carlos Williams Fairfield Porter Eugene O'Neill Georgia O'Keeffe and others His relationship with Alfred Stieglitz who supported him financially and exhibited his work runs like a leitmotif through the book and indicates Hartley's character demanding touchy often ungrateful but also compelling This frank and unsentimental account of a life of contradictions and paradoxes returns one to the artist's paintings with a fresh eye Publishers Weekly Marsden Hartley 1877-1943 had a virtually unique role as a modernist painter He was notable not only for his powerful canvases but for his poetry and essays Townsend Ludington's astute portrait of the artist focuses upon his cosmopolitan sensibility in a generation melding modern art with an American tradition of mystical idealism Ludington views Hartley as an essential American artist embarked on a spiritual odyssey Robert Taylor Boston Globe Two Hundred Years of American Painting Santa Barbara Museum of Art, 1961 Orange Coast Magazine, 1983-08 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County's most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award-winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County's only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county's luxe lifestyle
