Reading Seminar Xx Lacans Major Work On Love Knowledge And Feminine Sexuality:

Reading Seminar XX Suzanne Barnard, Bruce Fink, 2012-02-01 This collection offers the first sustained in depth commentary on Seminar XX Encore considered the cornerstone of Lacan's work on the themes of sexual difference knowledge jouissance and love Although Seminar XX was originally popularized as Lacan's treatise on feminine sexuality these essays by some of today's foremost Lacanian scholars go beyond feminine sexuality to address Lacan's significant intertwining concern with the rupture between reality and the real produced by modern science and the implications of this rupture for subjectivity knowledge jouissance and the body The essays clarify basic concepts but for readers already familiar with Lacan they also offer sophisticated workings through of the more challenging and obscure arguments in Encore both by tracing their historical development across Lacan's œuvre and by demonstrating their relation to particular philosophical theological mathematical and scientific concepts They cover much of the terrain necessary for understanding sexual difference not in terms of chromosomes body parts choice of sexual partner or varieties of sexual practice but in terms of one's position vis vis the Other and the kind of jouissance one is able to obtain In so doing they make significant interventions in the debates regarding sex gender and sexuality in feminist theory philosophy queer theory and cultural studies

Sexual Politics of Desire and Belonging Nick Rumens, Alejandro Cervantes Carson Cervantes C., 2007 Designed for students academics and the general reader alike Sexual Politics of Desire and Belonging provides theoretical and empirical insights into the linkages between sexualities and forms of desire and ways of belonging and relating to others in specific contexts and moments in time Opening with a substantial introduction by one of the editors this collection of thirteen essays is organised into three parts each section making important contributions to contemporary debates regarding the sexual politics of citizenship marriage friendship pornography intimacies eroticism and desire As such the essays introduce fresh perspectives for thinking about how individuals construct senses of belonging and modes of relating to others in their everyday lives within the disciplinary frameworks of sociology organisational analysis and cultural studies As well the volume analyses representations of desire and eroticism in British Pop Art trauma and feminist fiction polyamory self help literature Hollywood films and sociological and psychoanalytic theory Analytical insights offered within these essays will do much to stimulate debate about aspects of the socially and historically constituted relationship between desire and sexuality Because of the diverse approaches and conclusions it contains the volume will be essential reading for anyone interested in engaging with inter and multidisciplinary perspectives in order to understand the dynamics between constructions of desire and belonging and discourses of gender sex and sexuality

Jacques Lacan Sean Homer, 2004-11-04 Jacques Lacan is one of the most challenging and controversial of contemporary thinkers as well as the most influential psychoanalyst since Freud Lacanian theory has reached far beyond the consulting room to engage with such diverse disciplines as literature film gender and social theory This book covers the full extent of Lacan's career and provides an accessible guide to Lacanian concepts and his writing on the imaginary and the symbolic the Oedipus Complex and the meaning of the phallus the subject and the unconscious the real sexual difference Locating Lacan's work in the context of contemporary French thought and the history of psychoanalysis Sean Homer's Jacques Lacan is the ideal introduction to this influential theorist Reading Lacan's Écrits: From 'Signification of the Phallus' to 'Metaphor of the Subject' Stijn Vanheule, Derek Hook, Calum Neill, 2018-10-09 The critic was Jacques Lacan's single most important text a landmark in psychoanalysis which epitomized his aim of returning to Freud via structural linguistics philosophy and literature Reading Lacan's critic is the first extensive set of commentaries on the complete edition of Lacan's critic to be published in English An invaluable document in the history of psychoanalysis and one of the most challenging intellectual works of the twentieth century Lacan's critic still today begs the interpretative engagement of clinicians scholars philosophers and cultural theorists The three volumes of Reading Lacan's critic offer just this a series of systematic paragraph by paragraph commentaries by some of the world's most renowned Lacanian analysts and scholars on the complete edition of the critic inclusive of lesser known articles such as Kant with Sade The Youth of Gide Science and Truth Presentation on Transference and Beyond the Reality Principle The originality and importance of Lacan's critic to psychoanalysis and intellectual history is matched only by the text's notorious inaccessibility Reading Lacan's critic is an indispensable companion piece and reference text for clinicians and scholars exploring Lacan's magnum opus Not only does it contextualize explain and interrogate Lacan's arguments it provides multiple interpretative routes through this most labyrinthine of texts Reading Lacan's critic provides an incisive and accessible companion for psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists in training and in practice as well as philosophers cultural theorists and literary social science and humanities researchers who wish to draw upon Lacan's pivotal work Time Driven Adrian Johnston, 2005-07-27 Freud outlines two types of conflict that between drives and reality and that between the drives themselves Adrian Johnston identifies a third the conflict embedded within each and every drive Women, Love, and Commodity Culture in British Romanticism Daniela Garofalo, 2016-02-17 Offering a new understanding of canonical Romanticism Daniela Garofalo suggests that representations of erotic love in the period have been largely misunderstood Commonly understood as a means for transcending political and economic realities love for several canonical Romantic writers offers instead a contestation of those realities Garofalo argues that Romantic writers show that the desire for transcendence through love mimics the desire for commodity consumption and depends on the same dynamic of delayed fulfillment that was advocated by thinkers such as Adam Smith As writers such as William Blake Lord Byron Sir Walter Scott John Keats and Emily Brontë engaged with the period's concern with political economy and the nature of desire they challenged stereotypical representations of women either as self-denying consumers or as intemperate participants in the market economy Instead their works show the importance of women for understanding modern economics with women's desire conceived as a force that not only undermines the political economy's emphasis on productivity growth and perpetual consumption but also holds forth the possibility of alternatives to a system of capitalist exchange

The Nasty Woman and The Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2018-12-07 The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema puts forward the theoretical notion of the nasty woman as a means of examining female protagonists in contemporary culture and cinema particularly films directed by women The phrase is taken from an insult thrown at Hillary Clinton during the 2016 Presidential election debates and reclaimed by the feminists worldwide The volume also draws from the figure of the femme fatale in film noir Piotrowska presents the nasty woman across cultural and mythical landscape as a figure fighting against the entitlement of the patriarchy The writer argues that in films such as Zero Dark Thirty Red Road Stories We Tell and even Gone Girl the nastiness of female characters creates a new space for reflection on contemporary society and its struggles against patriarchal systems The nasty woman or neo femme fatale is a figure who disrupts stable situations and norms she is pro active and self determining and at times unafraid to use dubious means to achieve her goals She is often single but when married she subverts and undermines the fundamental principles of this patriarchal institution For students and researchers in Cultural Studies Women s Gender and Sexuality Studies Film Studies and Psychoanalysis in Film Studies The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema offers an original way of thinking about female creativity and subjectivity It is also a proud celebration of feminist and female authorship in contemporary Hollywood

Embracing the Void Richard Boothby, 2022-11-15 A radical reinterpretation of the origin of religion through a psychoanalytic theorization of the unknown Renowned psychoanalytic philosopher Richard Boothby puts forward a novel theory of religion inspired by Jacques Lacan s theory of das Ding the disquieting inaccessible dimension of fellow human beings This notion of an unfathomable excess originally encountered in the figure of the mother led Lacan to break with Freud s formulation of the Oedipus complex and underlies Lacan s distinctive conception of unconscious dynamics Leaning on this account Boothby shows how our sense of the sacred arises from our relation to what we do not know Embracing the Void lays out the range of Freud s attempts at a psychoanalytic theory of religion and then sketches the rough contours of Lacan s contrasting approach From there Boothby offers the theoretical tools for interpreting the religious impulse and analyzes key religious traditions from ancient Greek polytheism to Judaism and Christianity and from Hinduism and Buddhism to Islam finally turning to modern capitalist culture and the seductive deity that dominates it money Lucid accessible and compelling the book provides a cogent intervention in one of the psychoanalytic tradition s most contentious topics and offers a new approach to our understanding of religion

Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary

Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades

Asexuality and Freudian-Lacanian Psychoanalysis Kevin Murphy, 2022-12-05 Asexuality and Freudian Lacanian Psychoanalysis Towards a Theory of an Enigma proposes that asexuality is a libidinally founded desire for no sexual desire a concept not included in psychoanalytic theory up to now Asexuality is defined as the experience of having no sexual attraction for another person as an emerging self defined sexual orientation it has received practically no attention from psychoanalytic research This book is the first sustained piece of exploratory and theoretical research from a Freudian Lacanian perspective Using Freudian concepts to understand the intricacies of human sexual desire this volume will also employ Lacanian conceptual tools to understand how asexuality might sustain itself despite the absence of Other directed sexual desire This book argues that asexuality holds a mirror to contemporary sexualized society which assumes sexual attraction and eroticism as the benchmarks for experiencing sexual desire It also argues that asexuality may be a previously unrecognized form of human sexuality which can contribute new understandings to the range and breadth of what it means to be a sexual being This book will be of interest to anyone in the area of asexuality or sexuality psychoanalysts psychotherapists psychologists psychiatrists university lecturers researchers students or those simply curious about the possibilities of the human sex drive

Sexual Difference Between Psychoanalysis and Vitalism Arun Saldanha, Hoon Song, 2015-03-24 Throughout the twentieth century psychoanalysis and feminism were the practico intellectual fields most systematic and subversive in demonstrating that humanity is sexually fissured More recently further advances in the philosophy of difference and renewed emphases on embodiment materiality and life offer possibilities for attending to dimensions of gender and sexuality that were previously underdeveloped This collection examines these possibilities insofar as they can either deepen or displace the traditional centrality of psychoanalysis in matters sexual The authors come from a wide range of backgrounds and defend their approaches to the problem of sexual difference in a variety of idioms drawing on key thinkers such as Lacan Irigaray Deleuze Foucault and Badiou It is rare to come across these thinkers together but sex is too crucial a site for critical thought not to mobilize every conceptual power available This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki The Journal of the Theoretical Humanities

A Concise Companion to Psychoanalysis, Literature, and Culture Laura Marcus, Ankhi Mukherjee, 2014-06-23 This concise companion explores the history of psychoanalytic theory and its impact on contemporary literary criticism by tracing its movement across disciplinary and cultural boundaries Contains original essays by leading scholars using a wide range of cultural and historical approaches Discusses key concepts in psychoanalysis such as the role of dreaming psychosexuality the unconscious and the figure of the double while considering questions of gender race asylum and international law queer theory time and memory Spans the fields of psychoanalysis literature cultural theory feminist and gender studies translation studies and film Provides a timely and pertinent assessment of current psychoanalytic methods while also sketching out future directions for theory and interpretation Beckett, Lacan and the Mathematical Writing of the Real Arka Chattopadhyay,2019-01-01

Beckett Lacan and the Mathematical Writing of the Real proposes writing as a mathematical and logical operation to build a bridge between Lacanian psychoanalysis and Samuel Beckett s prose works Arka Chattopadhyay studies aspects such as the fundamental operational logic of a text use of mathematical forms like geometry and arithmetic the human obsession with counting the moving body as an act of writing and love and sexuality as a challenge to the limits of what can be written through logic and mathematics Chattopadhyay reads Beckett s prose works including How It Is Company Worstward Ho Malone Dies and Enough to highlight this terminal writing which halts endless meanings with the material body of the word and gives Beckett a medium to inscribe what cannot be written otherwise Scenes of Intimacy Jennifer Cooke,2013-05-09

Scholars from a range of critical perspectives explore representations of intimacy in contemporary writing from fiction to autobiography Studying Lacan's Seminar VII Carol Owens,2023-11-24 Studying Lacan s Seminar VII offers a contemporary critically informed set of analyses of Lacan s ethics seminar and astute reflections about what Lacan s ethics offer to the field of psychoanalytic thought today The volume interrogates the seminar with fresh voices and situated curiosities and perspectives making for a compellingly exciting range of explorations of the crucial matters related to an ethics of psychoanalysis The chapters question and tease out the paradoxes Lacan draws attention to in his seminar of 1959 1960 and in addition they offer radical engagements with the seminar in light of theories of racism inequality capitalism education and subjectivity The key elements in Lacan s seminar are explained debated and reconsidered with Antigone das Ding and the inevitable ne c der pas sur son d sir duly unpacked examined and ruminated upon Studying Lacan s Seminar VII will be of interest to psychoanalytic scholars and students of Lacanian psychoanalysis as well as psychoanalytic therapists and analysts It will also be of interest to scholars and students of politics philosophy and studies at the intersections of racism film feminism sociology gender and queer theory Works like a Charm Robert O. McDonald,2023-08-01 Works like a Charm addresses a simple question Why are incentives everywhere now From inducements to work harder at our jobs to tax rebates for corporations incentive names a general theory of motivation according to economists we are incentive driven creatures Yet far from being a neutral generalization this understanding of human behavior smuggles in a quintessentially economic way of seeing the world Works like a Charm applies Jacques Lacan s psychoanalytic concept of retroactive

causality to explain the metastasis of the language and logic of incentives To discover an incentive is to place in the untouchable past an economic cause for a contextual historical force Tracing incentive from its roots in antiquity to its uptake by neoclassical and then Chicago school economists Robert O McDonald diagnoses the spread of incentives across the social cultural and political field and warns readers of the dangers of handing over causality to the economists Lacan and the Destiny of Literature Ehsan Azari,2011-10-27 In contemporary academic literary studies Lacan is often considered impenetrably obscure due to the unavailability of his late works insufficient articulation of his methodologies and sometimes stereotypical use of Lacanian concepts in literary theory This study aims to integrate Lacan into contemporary literary study by engaging with a broad range of Lacanian theoretical concepts often for the first time in English and using them to analyse a range of key texts from different periods Azari explores Lacan s theory of desire as well as his final theories of littoral and the sinthome and interrogates a range of poststructuralist interpretive approaches In the second part of the book he outlines the variety of ways in which Lacanian theory can be applied to literary texts and offers detailed readings of texts by Shakespeare Donne Joyce and Ashbery This ground breaking study provides original insights into a number of the most influential intellectual discussions in relation to Lacan and will fill a recognised gap in understanding Lacan and his legacy for literary study and criticism Žižek in the Clinic Eliot Rosenstock,2019-01-25 Psychotherapist Eliot Rosenstock proposes a philosophical foundation for mental health treatment based on the writings and ideas of Slavoj Žižek in the Clinic examines the state of the psychotherapy profession capital motivated reductionist treatment modalities and a philosophy of liberation for the therapeutic subject With the acceleration of technological advancement reminiscent of the machine gun s implementation in World War One the contemporary subject can be benefited by a working knowledge of their own psyche so as not to be pulled in the direction of anything that provides comfort and vague entertainment Žižek s analysis and application of Lacanian theory is a necessary component in the psychoanalytic fight for our own minds and our will to shape our own future in the deterritorialized hellscape of modern technocapital Civilization has never known discontents like the ones currently wrought This is not to say Civilization is more brutal than it has ever been Civilization is however at a certain tipping point regarding technological information flow and the expansion of capital a future demanding illusion The answer isn t a collapse of all ideology which we use to function in our day to day lives but a clinical Žižekian lens

Theorizing Desire K. Gorton,2008-03-13 What is the nature of desire This book gives an accessible introduction to the concept and a coherent critique of the competing theories of desire within contemporary theory Through analysis of representations of desire in television and film it considers ways in which the concept is theorized and presented on screen

The Political Psychology of the Veil Sahar Ghumkhor,2019-11-21 Veiled women in the West appear menacing Their visible invisibility is a cause of obsession What is beneath the veil more than a woman This book investigates the preoccupation with the veiled body through the imaging and imagining of Muslim women It examines the relationship between the body and knowledge through the politics of freedom as grounded in a natural body in the index of flesh The impulse to unveil is more than a desire to free the Muslim woman What lies at the heart of the fantasy of saving the Muslim woman is the West's desire to save itself The preoccupation with the veiled woman is a defense that preserves neither the object of orientalism nor the difference embodied in women's bodies but inversely insists on the corporeal boundaries of the West's mode of knowing and truth making The book contends that the imagination of unveiling restores the West's sense of its own power and enables it to intrude where it is other thus making it the centre and the agent by promising universal freedom all the while stifling the question of what freedom is
