

The background of the cover is a photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, there is a calm body of water reflecting the sky and the land. The shoreline is composed of large, flat, grey rocks. Beyond the rocks, a grassy hill rises, covered in a mix of green and brown vegetation. Several bare, deciduous trees with intricate branch structures stand on the hill. In the background, more hills are visible under a sky filled with large, white and grey clouds. The overall mood is serene yet dramatic.

author's oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Argiz's sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty Department of English University College Dublin Ireland About the Author Dr Pilar Villar Argiz lectures in the Department of English Philology at the University of Granada Spain where she obtained a European Doctorate in English Studies Irish Literature She is the author of Eavan Boland's Evolution As an Irish Woman Poet An Outsider within an Outsider's Culture The Edwin Mellen Press 2007 She has also published extensively on the representation of femininity in contemporary Irish women's poetry on cinematic representations of Ireland and on the theoretical background and application of feminism and postcolonialism to the study of Irish literature In addition Dr Villar Argiz has co edited two books on English literature Irish Research Series No 51 Reading the Irish Landscape University College, Dublin. School of Architecture, Planning and Environmental Policy, 2015 Landscapes of Neolithic Ireland Gabriel Cooney, 2012-12-06 Landscapes of Neolithic Ireland is the first volume to be devoted solely to the Irish Neolithic using an innovative landscape and anthropological perspective to provide significant new insights on the period Gabriel Cooney argues that the archaeological evidence demonstrates a much more complex picture than the current orthodoxy on Neolithic Europe with its assumption of mobile lifestyles suggests He integrates the study of landscape settlement agriculture material culture and burial practice to offer a rounded realistic picture of the complexities and the realities of Neolithic lives and societies in Ireland Contemporary Irish Writing and Environmentalism Donna L. Potts, 2018-09-19 This book examines how the Irish environmental movement which began gaining momentum in the 1970s has influenced and been addressed by contemporary Irish writers artists and musicians It examines Irish environmental writing music and art within their cultural contexts considers how postcolonial ecocriticism might usefully be applied to Ireland and analyzes the rhetoric of Irish environmental protests It places the Irish environmental movement within the broader contexts of Irish national and postcolonial discourses focusing on the following protests the M3 Motorway the Burren campaign the Carnsore Point anti nuclear protest Shell to Sea the turf debate and the animal rights movement Europe's Living Landscapes Bas Pedroli, Anne van Doorn, Geert de Blust, 2014-12-22 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology The first symposium in 2005 was about the National Ecological Network in the Netherlands The reason was that the implementation of the NEN decided upon in 1990 was halfway The second symposium in 2006 was about urban ecology and the third one to be held in 2007 will be about civil infrastructure This book does not cover the conferences completely and new contributions are added The three themes are important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills Of course there are many more subjects to hold conferences about for example climate change urbanisation agriculture landscape ecology itself etc The focus of the conferences is on the Netherlands with its urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features Although many WLO members do their work abroad or in an international context these conferences offer a window on what happens in the Dutch context The experiences may be of value for other contexts and that is why we present the results in English The selected themes and the focus on the Dutch context are serious demarcations of what landscape ecology in the Netherlands is all about The book does not represent all research and applications of landscape ecology

Nature and the Environment in Nineteenth-century Ireland Matthew Kelly, 2019 The environmental humanities are one of the most exciting and rapidly expanding areas of interdisciplinary study and this collection of essays is a pioneering attempt to apply these approaches to the study of nineteenth century Ireland By bringing together historians geographers and literary scholars new insights are offered into familiar subjects and unfamiliar subjects are brought out into the light Essays re considering O Connellism Lord Palmerston and Isaac Butt rub shoulders with examinations of agricultural improvement Dublin's animal geographies and Ireland's healing places Literary writers like Emily Lawless and Seumas O Sullivan are looked at anew encouraging us to re think Darwinian influences in Ireland and the history of the Irish literary revival and transnational perspectives are brought to bear on Ireland's national park history and the dynamics of Irish natural history Much modern Irish history is concerned with access to natural resources whether this reflects the catastrophic effect of the Great Famine or the conflicts associated with agrarian politics but historical and literary analyses are rarely framed explicitly in these terms The collection responds to the material turn in the humanities and contemporary concern about the environment by re imagining Ireland's nineteenth century in fresh and original ways List of contributors Matthew Kelly Helen O Connell David Brown Colin W Reid Huston Gilmore Ronan Foley Juliana Adelman Mary Orr Patrick Maume and Se n Hewitt

Space, Place and Religious Landscapes Darrelyn Gunzburg, Bernadette Brady, 2020-10-01 Exploring sacred mountains around the world this book examines whether bonding and reverence to a mountain is intrinsic to the mountain constructed by people or a mutual encounter Chapters explore mountains in England Scotland Wales Italy Ireland the Himalaya Japan Greece USA Asia and South America and embrace the union of sky landscape and people to examine the religious dynamics between human and non human entities This book takes as its starting point the fact that mountains physically mediate between land and sky and act as metaphors for bridges from one realm to another recognising that mountains are relational and that landscapes form personal and group cosmologies The book fuses ideas of space place and material religion with cultural environmentalism and takes an interconnected approach to material religio landscapes In this way it fills the gap between lived religious traditions personal reflection phenomenology historical context environmental philosophy myths and performativity In defining material religion as active engagement with mountain forming and humanshaping landscapes the research and ideas presented here provide theories that are widely applicable to other forms of material religion
