Reading Today Heta Pyrhönen, Janna Kantola, 2018-01-15 New technologies are changing our reading habits Laptops e readers tablets and other handheld devices supply new platforms for reading and we must learn to manage them by scrolling clicking or tapping Reading Today places reading in current literary and cultural contexts in order to analyse how these contexts challenge our conceptions of who reads what reading is how we read where we read and for what purposes and then responds to the questions this analysis raises Is our reading experience becoming a flat one And does reading in a media environment favour quick reading Alongside these questions the contributors unpack emerging strategies of reading They consider for example how paying attention to readers emotional reactions as an indispensable component of reading affects our conception of the reading process Other chapters consider how reading can be explored through such topics as experimental literature the contemporary encyclopedic novel and the healing power of books Twentieth Century Reading

Education: Understanding Practices of Today in Terms of Patterns of the Past Gerard Giordano, 2021-09-13 This book examines twentieth century reading education Among the major educational issues reviewed are testing diagnosis individualized education textbooks readability multiculturalism bi lingualism disability and technology The book explores attempts by educators and psychologists to answer theoretical as well as practical questions about why only some students developed literacy skills It examines the efforts to prevent reading failure as well as to aid those learners who had not learned to read The four types of remedial programs explored are skills based language based literature based and technology based The book identifies the social emotional physical and cognitive factors that have been linked to remedial reading instruction Based on a review of more than 3000 primary sources from the 1800s to the present extensive quotations have been integrated into the text to give readers a sense of intellectual involvement with the educators who are discussed

Wise Bauer, Susan Wise Bauer, 2004-09-28 Presents a history of the ancient world from 6000 B C to 400 A D The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation
