A Companion to Irish Literature Julia M. Wright, 2011-07-08 Featuring new essays by international literary scholars, the two volume Companion to Irish Literature encompasses the full breadth of Ireland's literary tradition from the Middle Ages to the present day. Covers an unprecedented historical range of Irish literature. Arranged in two volumes covering Irish literature from the medieval period to 1900 and its development through the twentieth century to the present day. Presents a re-visioning of twentieth century Irish literature and a collection of the most up to date scholarship in the field as a whole. Includes a substantial number of women writers from the eighteenth century to the present day. Includes essays on leading contemporary authors including Brian Friel, Seamus Heaney, Eavan Boland, Roddy Doyle and Emma Donoghue. Introduces readers to the wide range of current approaches to studying Irish literature. Simon Dubnow's "New Judaism" Robert Seltzer, 2013-12-05 In this volume Robert Seltzer examines Simon Dubnow 1860-1941 as the most eminent East European Jewish historian of his day and a spokesperson for his people setting out to define their identity in the future based on his understanding of their past. Rejecting Zionism and Jewish socialism espoused by contemporaries, he argued in Letter on Old and New Judaism that the Jews of the diaspora constituted a distinctive nationality deserving cultural autonomy in the liberal multi-national state he hoped would emerge in Russia. Seltzer traces the young Dubnow's personal encounter with European intellectual currents that led him from the traditional shtetl world to a non-religious conception of Jewishness that resonated beyond Tsarist Russia. Contemplating Shostakovich: Life, Music and Film Andrew Kirkman, 2016-05-13

Contemplating Shostakovich marks an important new stage in the understanding of Shostakovich and his working environment. Each chapter covers aspects of the composer's output in the context of his life and cultural milieu. The contributions uncover outside stimuli behind Shostakovich's works, allowing the reader to perceive the motivations behind his artistic choices. At the same time, the nature of those choices offers insights into the workings of the larger world, cultural, social, political, that he inhabited. Thus his often ostensibly quirky choices are revealed as responses, by turns sentimental, moving, sardonic and angry, to the particular conditions with all their absurdities and contradictions that he had to negotiate. Here we see the composer emerging from the role of tortured loner of older narratives into that of the gregarious and engaged member of his society that for better and worse characterized the everyday reality of his life. This invaluable collection offers remarkable new insight in both depth and range into the nature of Shostakovich's working circumstances and of his response to them. The collection contains the seeds for a wide range of new directions in the study of Shostakovich's works and the larger contexts of their creation and reception.
