Reading, Writing, and the Study of Literature Arthur W. Biddle, Toby Fulwiler, 1994 reading, writing and the study of literature w. biddle toby fulwiler, 1989 English Studies Toby Fulwiler, William A. Stephany, 2002 This work offers an introduction to the study of literature for both potential majors and non majors The opening section of the text outlines both traditional and alternative genres of literary study the middle section demystifies and discusses critical theory and the third section guides students through the rigorous but rewarding process of writing about literature critically creatively and with research Handbook of College Reading and Study Strategy Research Rona F. Flippo, 2008-08-15 This Handbook is the most comprehensive and up to date source available for college reading and study strategy practitioners and administrators In response to changing demographics politics policy issues and concerns in the field of college reading and study strategies since publication of the first edition in 2000 this new edition has been substantially revised and fully updated to reflect the newest research in the field including six new chapters and a more user friendly structure to make it easier for researchers program administrators college instructors and graduate students to find the information that they need In this thorough and systematic examination of theory research and practice college reading teachers will find information to make better instructional decisions administrators will find justification for programmatic implementations and professors will find in one book both theory and practice to better prepare graduate students to understand the parameters and issues of this field The Handbook is an essential resource for professionals researchers and students as they continue to study research learn and share more about college reading and study strategy issues and instruction Reading, Writing, and Talking Gender in Literacy Learning Barbara J. Guzzetti, Josephine Peyto Young, Margaret M. Gritsavage, Laurie M. Fyfe, Marie Hardenbrook, 2013-10-08 Until now there has been no systematic analysis or review of the research on gender and literacy With all the media attention and research surveys surrounding gender bias and the inequities that continue to flourish in education a synthesis of the research studies was needed to raise awareness of gender issues in learning and literacy to provide successful interventions and recommendations to educators and to point out the direction for future inquiries by examining the unanswered questions of the existing research For the convenience of readers the studies are organized by genre gender and discussion reading writing electronic text and literacy autobiography Published by International Reading Association Resources in Education , 1998-07 The Handbook of English for Specific Purposes Brian Paltridge, Sue Starfield, 2014-09-15 Featuring a collection of newly commissioned essays edited by two leading scholars this Handbook surveys the key research findings in the field of English for Specific Purposes ESP Provides a state of the art overview of the origins and evolution current research and future directions in ESP Features newly commissioned contributions from a global team of leading scholars Explores the history of ESP and current areas of research including speaking reading writing technology and business legal and medical English Considers perspectives on ESP research such as genre intercultural rhetoric multimodality English as a lingua franca and ethnography Studying English Literature Tory Young, 2008-05-22 Studying English Literature is a unique guide for undergraduates beginning to study the discipline of literature and those who are thinking of doing so Unlike books that provide a survey of literary history or non subject specific manuals that offer rigid guidelines on how to write essays Studying English Literature invites students to engage with the subject's history and theory whilst at the same time offering information about reading researching and writing about literature within the context of a university The book is practical yet not patronizing for example whilst the discussion of plagiarism provides clear guidelines on how not to commit this offence it also considers the difficulties students experience finding their own voice when writing and provokes reflection on the value of originality and the concepts of adaptation appropriation and intertextuality in literature Above all the book prizes the idea of argument rather than insisting upon formulaic essay plans and gives many ways of finding something to say as you read and when you write in chapters on Reading Argument Essays Sentences and References Exam Secrets in Literature-in-English: What JAMB, WAEC and NECO Want from Candidates Mazi Basil Nwokorie, Exam Secrets in Literature in English What JAMB WAEC NECO and NABTEB Want from candidates is specifically crafted for students and candidates who are preparing to take the examinations in Literature in English as administered by esteemed bodies such as Joint Admission And Matriculation Board JAMB West African Examination Council WAEC National Examination Council NECO and other similar institutions across Nigeria and Anglophonic West Africa With clear guidance and focused insights it equips candidates with the knowledge and strategies needed to succeed in these examinations confidently Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt, 1996 Reading, Writing, and Bookish Circles in the Ancient Mediterranean Jonathan D.H. Norton, Garrick Allen, Lindsey A. Askin, 2022-06-30 By integrating conversations across disciplines especially focusing on classical studies and Jewish and Christian studies this volume addresses several imbalances in scholarship on reading and textual activity in the ancient Mediterranean Contributors intentionally place Jewish Christian Roman Greek and other reading circles back into their encompassing historical context avoiding subdivisions along modern subject lines divisions still bearing marks of cultural and ideological interests In their examination contributors avoid dwelling upon traditional methodological debates over orality vs literacy and social classifications of literacy instead turning their attention to the social historical groups of people circles and networks strata and class scribal culture material culture epigraphic and papyrological evidence functions and types of literacy and the social relationships that all of these entail Overall the volume contributes to an emerging and important interdisciplinary collaboration between specialists in ancient literacy encouraging future discussion between two currently divided fields A Classification of Secondary School Courses, 1982 School Training for the Home Duties of Women Great Britain. Board of Education, 1905 The Professional Training of Teachers for the Canadian Public Schools as Typified by Ontario Arthur Gordon Melvin, 1923 Encyclopedia of Special Education Cecil R. Reynolds, Elaine

Fletcher-Janzen,2007-01-02 Offers a thoroughly revised comprehensive A to Z compilation of authoritative information on the education of those with special needs Studying Literature in English Dominic Rainsford,2014-06-27 Studying Literature in English provides the ideal point of entry for students of English Literature This book is an accessible guide for Literature students around the world This book Grounds literature and the study of literature throughout by referencing a selection of well known novels plays and poems Examines the central questions that readers ask when confronting literary texts and shows how these make literary theory meaningful and necessary Links British American and postcolonial literature into a coherent whole Discusses film as literature and provides the basic conceptual tools in order to study film within a literature course framework Places particular emphasis on interdisciplinarity by examining the connections between the study of literature and other disciplines Provides an annotated list of further reading From principal literary genres periods and theory to strategies for reading research and essay writing Dominic Rainsford provides an engaging introduction to the most important aspects of studying literature in English This book is invaluable reading for anyone studying literature in English Annual Report of the Regents of the University, to the Legislature of the State of New-York University of the State of New York,University of the State of New York. Board of Regents,1898 Chinese Creative Writing Studies Mo-Ling Rebecca Leung,2023-07-22 This book introduces Chinese creative writing to the English speaking world considering various aspects of literary and creative theories in research in Chinese writing It covers recent trends such as cross media practices pedagogy in creative writing in China Taiwan and Hong Kong specifically and looks at how Chinese classical culture brings new interpretations to creative writing within a global context Consisting of 14 chapters by established scholars and experts writers and poets working in various genres within the Chinese writing tradition the book presents data accrued from personal reflections classroom teaching video games museum studies radio dramas TV series and cyber literature The book includes leading Chinese leading scholars reflections on research and the field providing an omnibus perspective on theories of creative writing It focuses on the interconnection between Chinese creative writing and pedagogy and examines different writer training methods in Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan offering a comparative perspective that deepens the understanding of institutional effects on the development of creative writing It unpacks the interaction between Chinese creative writing and multimedia and ascertains the possibilities of incorporating media studies into writing practices It also presents new interpretations of Chinese classical culture assets to new creative or literary manuscripts such as TV series adaptation and Internet literature Relevant to researchers teachers and students working Chinese creative writing and Chinese literature it is also a landmark text in exposing English speaking creative writing scholars to the wealth of Chinese creative writing in English The Beginning Reading Instruction Study Marcy Stein,1993 Calling attention to the continuum of approaches reflected in beginning reading programs this report presents content and cost analyses for over 50 beginning reading programs The first of the report s five chapters is an introduction The second chapter begins with a brief description of the major issues in the area of beginning reading and concludes with a summary of important research based recommendations for instruction The third chapter outlines the evaluation criteria for a content analysis of the programs and provides operational definitions of evaluation criteria The chapter concludes with an analysis of the extent to which over 50 instructional programs and approaches reflect research in beginning reading The fourth chapter presents a cost analysis of each program evaluated and a description of how the cost analysis was determined The final chapter contains some conclusions and cautions about selecting and designing effective reading instructional programs RS

Teaching Literature in Times of Crisis Sofia Ahlberg, 2021-06-13 Teaching Literature in Times of Crisis looks at the range of different crises currently affecting students from climate change and systemic racism to the global pandemic Addressing the impact on students ability and motivation to learn as well as their emotional wellbeing this volume guides teachers toward strategies for introducing both canonical and contemporary literature in ways that demonstrate the future relevance of sophisticated and targeted literacy skills These reading practices are invaluable for framing and critically examining the challenges associated with crisis in order to help cope with grief and as a means to impart the skills needed to deal with crisis such as adaptability flexibility resilience and resistance Providing necessary background theory alongside practical case studies the book addresses Reading practices for demonstrating how literature explores ethical issues in specific and concrete rather than abstract terms Making connections between disparate phenomena and how literature mobilises affect in individual and collective human lives Supporting teachers in considering new imaginative ways students can learn from literary content and form in online or remote learning environments as well as face to face Combining close and distant reading with creative and hands on strategies presenting the principles of a transitional pedagogy for a world in flux This book introduces teachers to methods for reading and studying literature with the aim of strengthening and promoting resilience and resourcefulness in and out of the literature classroom and empower students as global citizens with local roles to play
