Leader's Guide for Primary Source Readings in Catholic Church History Michael Greene, 2005-04 Primary Source

Readings in Catholic Church History is designed to accompany Catholic Church history textbooks but may be used with any course. It is a collection of significant primary sources through the Church's history. Thirty chapters include select documents along with commentary on who wrote them and why, how each document is significant to its time, and why it has endured as an important writing in Church history. The following are some of the historical writers included in this book: Saint Perpetua, Saint Augustine, Pope Saint Gregory, Saint Catherine of Siena, Martin Luther, Saint Theresa of Avila, Saint Francis, Junipero Serra, Dorothy Day, Second Vatican Council. The teaching manual for Primary Source Readings in Catholic Church History offers teachers guidance on why and how to use primary sources. It also includes review questions, in-depth questions with instructions for teachers, take-home activities, and homework extenders, well-developed classroom activities.

Readings in the History of Christian Theology, Volume 1, Revised Edition William Carl Placher, 2015-01-01 William Placher and Derek Nelson compile significant passages written by the most important Christian thinkers from the Reformers of the sixteenth century through the major participants in the contemporary theological conversation. Illustrating the major theologians, controversies, and schools of thought, Readings in the History of Christian Theology is an essential companion to the study of church history and historical theology. Excerpts are preceded by the editors' introductions, allowing the book to stand alone as a coherent history. This revised edition expands the work's scope, drawing throughout on more female voices and expanding to include the most important twenty-first century theological contributions. This valuable resource brings together the writings of major theologians from the Church's history for a new generation of students.
