Unit 5

- Harari: Germans and Gorillas
 - About 7 million years ago, chimpanzees and gorillas had common ancestors
 - Human tribes tend to coalesce over time into larger groups
 - Modern Germans were created from the merger of Saxons, Prussians, Swabians, and Bavarians
 - Mergers don't always last
 - Humankind was divided into countless isolated tribes but with each passing millennium these fuse into larger and larger groups
 - This creates fewer and fewer distinct civilizations
 - In recent generations, civilizations have been blending into a single global civilization
 - The process of human unification has taken two distinct forms:
 - Establishing links between distinct groups
 - Homogenizing practices across groups
 - War spreads ideas, technologies, and people far more quickly than commerce does
 - People across the globe are increasingly sharing identical beliefs and practices
 - Global politics thus follows the Anna Karenina principle:
 - Successful states are all alike, but every failed state fails in its own way, by missing this or that ingredient of the dominant political package
 - Each country in the world has an anthem that conforms to the same universal model
 - National flags display the same dreary conformity
 - People still have different religious and national identities, but when it comes to the practical stuff almost all of us belong to the same civilization
- Frank: Worldwide Trends in Criminal Regulation of Sex
 - Focuses on cross-national and longitudinal data on the criminal regulation of rape, adultery, sodomy, and child sexual abuse between 1945 and 2005
 - Reforms Across Countries and Domains of Sexual Activity
 - Between 1945 and 2005, criminal laws regulating sexual activity shifted all over the world
 - Ex) New Zealand, the Prostitution Reform Act shifted the burden of criminal sanctions from sex workers onto those who exploit them
 - Case-By-Case Approaches
 - The case-study approach to sex-law reforms enjoys advantages like data availability

Toward Natural Right and History Leo Strauss,2022-12-22 Collected lectures and essays offering insight into the philosopher and his ideas on politics natural law and social sciences Toward Natural Right and History collects six lectures

by Leo Strauss written while he was at the New School and a full transcript of his 1949 Walgreen Lectures These works show Strauss working toward the ideas he would present in fully matured form in his landmark work Natural Right and History In them he explores natural right and the relationship between modern philosophers and the thought of the ancient Greek philosophers as well as the relation of political philosophy to contemporary political science and to major political and historical events especially the Holocaust and World War II Previously unpublished in book form Strauss's lectures are presented here in a thematic order that mirrors Natural Right and History and with interpretive essays by J A Colen Christopher Lynch Svetozar Minkov Daniel Tanguay Nathan Tarcov and Michael Zuckert that establish their relation to the work Rounding out the book are copious annotations and notes to facilitate further study

Secularization in the Long 1960s Numerating Religion in Britain provides a major empirical contribution to the literature of secularization It moves beyond the now largely sterile and theoretical debates about the validity of the secularization thesis or paradigm Combining historical and social scientific perspectives Clive D Field uses a wide range of quantitative sources to probe the extent and pace of religious change in Britain during the long 1960s In most cases data is presented for the years 1955-80 with particular attention to the methodological and other challenges posed by each source type Following an introductory chapter which reviews the historiography introduces the sources and defines the chronological and other parameters Field provides evidence for all major facets of religious belonging behaving and believing as well as for institutional church measures The work engages with and largely refutes Callum G Brown's influential assertion that Britain experienced revolutionary secularization in the 1960s which was highly gendered in nature and with 1963 the major tipping point Instead a more nuanced picture emerges with some religious indicators in crisis others continuing on an existing downward trajectory and yet others remaining stable Building on previous research by the author and other scholars and rejecting recent proponents of counter secularization the long 1960s are ultimately located within the context of a longstanding gradualist and still ongoing process of secularization in Britain
