Lowenstein,2010-07-09 A landmark study that offers an alternative history of the Cold War from the point of view of the world's poor Here from a brilliant young writer is a paradigm shifting history of both a utopian concept and global movement the idea of the Third World      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978      Reading Feminist Theory Susan Archer Mann,Ashly Suzanne Patterson,2016 Reading Feminist Theory From Modernity to Postmodernity interweaves classical and contemporary writings from the social sciences and the humanities to represent feminist thought from the late eighteenth century to the present Editors Susan Archer Mann and Ashly Suzanne Patterson pay close attention to the multiplicity and diversity of feminist voices visions and vantage points by race class gender sexuality and global location Along with more conventional forms of theorizing this anthology points to multiple sites of theory production both inside and outside of the academy and includes personal narratives poems short stories zines and even music lyrics Offering a truly global perspective the book devotes three chapters and more than thirty readings to the topics of colonialism imperialism and globalization It also provides extensive coverage of third wave feminism poststructuralism queer theory postcolonial theory and transnational feminisms      Reading Kenneth Frampton Gevork Hartoonian,2022-05-10 This book focuses on the first edition of Kenneth Frampton's Modern Architecture A Critical History published in 1980 It searches for clues and positions that will provide the reader with an unprecedented insight into the significance of Frampton's historiography of modern architecture It explores selected themes in line with Frampton's many faceted contribution certain aspects of which can be noted between the lines of his ongoing criticism of the present day architecture which inevitably lead us to a critical understanding of the past the modernity of architecture's contemporaneity The compiled chapters attempt to open a window onto the constellation of themes that allowed Frampton to hold on to his anteroom view of history even amidst the flow of time and flood of temporalities spanning 1980-2020 The book elucidates how Frampton's critical presentation of the history of modern movement architecture and the book's classificatory mode periodization contribute to our understanding of the contemporaneity of architecture today      Reading the Global Sanjay Krishnan,2007 The global is an instituted perspective not just an empirical process Adopted initially by the British in order to make sense of their polyglot territorial empire the global perspective served to make heterogeneous spaces and nonwhite subjects legible and in effect produced the regions it sought merely to describe The global was the dominant perspective from which the world was produced for representation and control It also set the terms within which subjectivity and history came to be imagined by colonizers and modern anticolonial nationalists In this book Sanjay Krishnan demonstrates how ideas of the global took root in eighteenth and nineteenth century descriptions of Southeast Asia Krishnan turns to the works of Adam Smith Thomas De Quincey Abdullah bin Abdul Kadir and Joseph Conrad four authors who discuss the Malay

Archipelago during the rise and consolidation of the British Empire These works offer some of the most explicit and sophisticated discussions of the world as a single interconnected entity inducting their readers into comprehensive and objective descriptions of the world The perspective organizing these authors conception of the global the frame or code through which the world came into view is indebted to the material and discursive possibilities set in motion by European conquest The global therefore is not just a peculiar mode of thematization it is aligned to a conception of historical development unique to European colonial capitalism Krishnan troubles this dominant perspective Drawing on the poststructuralist and postcolonial approaches of Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and challenging the recent historiography of empire and economic histories of globalization he elaborates a bold new approach to the humanities in the age of globalization

Reading the Bible as a Postexilic Biblical Author Read T. N. Huu-Thien, 2025-01-31 Millions of Christians read the Bible not only to know what happened in ancient biblical times but also to find God s message to them Consequently the Bible is the best selling book of all time However scholars have observed that over the past two hundred years biblical interpretation in the West has traditionally focused mainly on studying what the text meant For Western biblical scholars the study of what the Bible means to readers today falls within the realm of theological studies rather than biblical studies In contrast Asian biblical interpretation is holistic studying both what the text meant and what it means Interestingly this book demonstrates that long before any modern biblical reading approaches emerged the Chronicler as demonstrated in the book of Chronicles read his biblical sources to actualize the messages of those biblical materials in ways relevant to his postexilic audience The Chronicler s reading is similar to Asian biblical readings This book proposes a reading approach that synthesizes the strengths of the Chronicler s reading and two modern biblical reading approaches employed by Asians to achieve the dual aim of biblical interpretation and make biblical reading meaningful and applicable to modern readers
