Educating Teachers for Sustainable Development and Global Citizenship Britta Freitag-Hild, Stefanie Goertz, Isolde Malmberg, Linda P. Juang, Ursula Hardenbicker, Andreas Borowski, Marco Rieckmann, Michele Brott, Ceren Kocaman, Amitabh Banerji, Howard Nicholas, Gigi Peterson, Marina Gall, Sharleen Pevec, Christoph Balzar, Jana Roos, Esther Pürgstaller, Stefan Meier, Sebastian Ruin, Manuela Hackel, Winnie-Karen Giera, Aylin Braunewell, Jana Buschmann, Claudia-Susanne Günther, Melina Fabian, Kevin Larkin, Ulrich Kortenkamp, 2025-04-11

In an era of rapid societal change and political and ecological global crises universities play a vital role in educating future teachers for sustainable development and global citizenship As teacher educators at universities solving these complex issues is beyond our scope Nevertheless our volume addresses the pivotal role of teacher education in fostering inclusive sustainable and peaceful societies How can universities empower future teachers to navigate these complexities and cultivate the competencies needed for sustainable development and global citizenship How can they guide learners towards becoming responsible citizens of the world Our volume explores these questions presenting concepts and pedagogical approaches developed within the international project UP Network for Sustainable Teacher Education 2021 2024 coordinated by the University of Potsdam and sponsored by the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD with funds from the Federal Ministry of Education and Research BMBF Laying the theoretical foundation by providing a framework that emphasizes the transformative potential of Education for Sustainable Development and the importance of action oriented pedagogy the volume offers insights from the interdisciplinary international Summer School Teaching the SDGs held in 2022 The Summer School concept provides a practical example of how Education for Sustainable Development and Global Citizenship can be integrated into teacher education programs through practical experiences and subject specific viewpoints Recognizing the global nature of the challenges associated with sustainable development and our shared responsibility to address them this volume concludes by presenting various successful strategies and models from the University of Potsdam By sharing our collaborative projects in this volume we aim to offer insights into our activities contribute to the academic discourse on Education for Sustainable Development and Global Citizenship in teacher education and inspire collaboration across diverse contexts We invite teacher educators from all fields to join us in sharing context specific concepts and approaches fostering the development of global competencies for a sustainable future      Resources in Education ,1994

“Buyurdum ki...” - The Whole World of Ottomanica and Beyond ,2023-09-04 This book is dedicated to Claudia R mer and brings together 33 contributions spanning a period from the 15th to the 20th century and covering the wide range of topics with which the honouree is engaged The volume is divided into six parts that present current research on language literature and style as well as newer approaches and perspectives in dealing with sources and terminologies Aspects such as conquest administration and financing of provinces are found as well as problems of endowments and the circulation of goods in the Arab provinces of the Ottoman Empire Another main topic is dedicated to minorities and their role and situation in various provinces and cities of the Ottoman Empire as represented by various sources But also topics like conversion morality and control are illuminated Finally the volume provides an insight into the late Ottoman and early republican period in which some previously unpublished sources such as travel letters memoirs are presented and re discussed The book is not only aimed at scholars and students of the Ottoman Empire the thematic range is also of interest to linguists historians and cultural historians      Popular Culture, Geopolitics, and Identity Jason Dittmer,Daniel Bos,2019-03-19 Now in a thoroughly revised edition this innovative and engaging text surveys the field of popular geopolitics exploring the relationship between popular culture and international relations from a geographical perspective Jason Dittmer and Daniel Bos connect global issues with the questions of identity and subjectivity that we feel as individuals arguing that who we think we are influences how we understand the world Building on the strengths of the first edition each chapter focuses on a specific theme such as representation audience and affect by explaining the concept and then outlining some of the emerging debates that have revolved around it New and updated case studies including heritage and social media help illustrate the significance of the concepts and capture the ways popular culture shapes our understandings of geopolitics within everyday life Students will enjoy the text s accessibility and colorful examples and instructors will appreciate the way the book brings together a diverse multidisciplinary literature and makes it understandable and relevant      Critical Readings in Teacher Education ,2008-01-01 Like other fields of study teacher education defines itself both by what it includes and by what it excludes Teacher educators and researchers have spent a great deal of time seeking and attempting to eradicate the flaws in existing structures and practices but significantly less time learning to perceive the absences The premise of this book is that until we can identify and begin to address what is absent teacher education will be constrained by a perennial recycling of concerns that have characterized so much of research policy and practice to date If teacher education is to have a different future we need to ask different and difficult questions This book with contributions from theorists in Australia Canada and the United States addresses the challenges we face in establishing a more hopeful future for teacher education The authors provocative contributions identify what is missing in teacher education while providing critical counterpoints to existing frames of reference in the field In writing against the grain they open up new conceptual spaces and exciting trajectories for a different teacher education

The Transnationalism of American Culture Rocío G. Davis, 2013 This book studies the transnational nature of American cultural production specifically literature film and music examining how these serve as ways of perceiving the United States and American culture The volume's engagement with the reality of transnationalism focuses on material examples that allow for an exploration of concrete manifestations of this phenomenon and trace its development within and outside the United States Contributors consider the ways in which artifacts or manifestations of American culture have traveled and what has happened to the texts in the process inviting readers to examine the nature of the transnational turn by highlighting the cultural products that represent and produce it Emphasis on literature film and music allows for nuanced perspectives on the way a global phenomenon is enacted in American texts within the U S also illustrating the commodification of American culture as these texts travel The volume therefore serves as a coherent examination of the critical and creative repercussions of transnationalism and by juxtaposing a discussion of creativity with critical paradigms unveils how transnationalism has become one of the constitutive modes of cultural production in the 21st century
