The short story and the novel, 1971 Modern Arabic Literature Muḥammad Muṣṭafá Badawī, 1992 This volume provides an authoritative survey of creative writing in Arabic from the mid nineteenth century to the present day

Readings in Modern Arabic Literature William M. Brinner, 1971 Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2017-06-02 The study of Arabic literature is blossoming This book provides a comprehensive theoretical framework to help research this highly prolific and diverse production of contemporary literary texts Based on the achievements of historical poetics in particular those of Russian formalism and its theoretical legacy this framework offers flexible transparent and unbiased tools to understand the relevant contexts within the literary system The aim is to enhance our understanding of Arabic literature throw light on areas of literary production that traditionally have been neglected and stimulate others to take up the fascinating challenge of mapping out and exploring them A Matter of Fate Dalya Cohen-Mor, 2001-05-03 Dalya Cohen Mor examines the evolution of the concept of fate in the Arab world through readings of religious texts poetry fiction and folklore She contends that belief in fate has retained its vitality and continues to play a pivotal role in the Arabs outlook on life and their social psychology Interwoven with the chapters are 16 modern short stories that further illuminate this fascinating topic Readings in Syrian Prison Literature R. Shareah Taleghani, 2021-06-21 The simple act of inscription both minute and epic can be a powerful tool to bear witness and give voice to those who are oppressed silenced and forgotten In the eras of Hafiz al Asad and his son Bashar Syrian political dissidents have written extensively about their experiences of detention both while in prison and afterwards This body of writing largely untranslated into English is essential to understanding the oppositional political culture among dissidents since the 1970s a culture that laid the foundation for the 2011 Syrian Revolution The emergence of prison literature as a specific genre helped articulate opposition to authoritarian states including the Asad regime However the significance of Syrian prison literature goes beyond a form of witnessing expressing creative opposition and illuminating the larger cultural and historical backstory of the Syrian uprising Prison literature in all its diversity challenges the narrative structures and conventional language of human rights In doing so prison literature has played an essential role in generating the experimental shift in Arabic literature since the 1960s Taleghani's groundbreaking work explores prison writing's critical role in resistance movements in Syria the evolution of Arabic literature and the development of a global human rights Literature Of Modern Arabia Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 2016-02-17 First published in 1988 This large and authoritative volume offers for the first time a representative selection of the works of ninety five of Arabia's best creative authors It presents poetry drama and short stories from Saudi Arabia Yemen and the rest of the Gulf states Women's Contemporary Readings of Medieval (and Modern) Arabic Philosophy Saloua Chatti, 2022-06-27 This book explores a large variety of topics involved in Arabic philosophy It examines concepts and issues relating to logic and mathematics as well as metaphysics ethics and aesthetics These topics are all studied by different Arabic philosophers and scientists from different periods ranging from the 9th century to the 20th century and are representative of the Arabic tradition This is the first book dealing with the Arabic thought and philosophy and written only by women The book brings together the work and contributions of an international group of female scholars and researchers specialized in the history of Arabic logic philosophy and mathematics Although all authors are women the book does not enter into any kind of feminist trend It simply highlights the contributions of female scholars in order to make them available to the large community of researchers interested in Arabic philosophy and to bring to the fore the presence and representativeness of female scholars in the field Religion, Mysticism and Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2006 One of the significant phenomena in modern Arabic literature since the 1960s has been the use of mystical concepts figures and motifs for the expression of contemporary experiences philosophies and ideologies The book investigates this phenomenon mainly with regard to the creative poetic process and the use of literary masks It also deals with the complicated relationship between Arabic literature and Islam as well as with the literary activities by religious traditional circles In a welter of publications committed Muslim authors try to prove that there is no inherent contradiction between art and Islam and at the same time to lay the theoretical foundations for an Islamist poetics encompassing the various branches of literary production Within the secular canonical circles however these activities and texts are considered extremely marginal and none of the authors concerned has gained any canonical status The growing number of cases in which attempts at censorship on religious and moral grounds have been challenged prove also that Arabic literature has become more and more secular Modern Arabic Literature in Translation Salih J. Altoma, 2005 This indispensable guide to modern Arabic literature in English translation features not only a comprehensive bibliography but also chapters on fiction drama poetry and autobiography as well as a special chapter on Iraq's Arabic literature By focusing on Najib Mahfuz one of Arabic Literature's luminaries and on poetry a major if not the major genre of the region Altoma assesses the progress made towards a wider reception of Arabic writing throughout the western world
