Introduction to Ecological Aesthetics Fanren Zeng,2019-08-26 This book explores in detail the issues of ecological civilization development ecological philosophy ecological criticism environmental aesthetics and the ecological wisdom of traditional Chinese culture related to ecological aesthetics Drawing on Western philosophy and aesthetics it proposes and demonstrates a unique aesthetic view of ecological ontology in the field of aesthetics under the direct influence of Marxism which is based on the modern economic social cultural development and the modern values of traditional Chinese culture

This book embodies the innovative interpretation of Chinese traditional culture in the Chinese academic community. The author discusses the philosophical and cultural resources that can be used for reference in Chinese and Western cultural tradition, focusing on traditional Chinese Confucianism, Taoism, Buddhism, and painting art; Western modern ecological philosophy, Heidegger's ontology, ecological aesthetics, and British and American environmental aesthetics. In short, the book comprehensively discusses the author's concept of ecological ontology aesthetics as an integration and unification of ontology aesthetics and ecological aesthetics. This generalized ecological aesthetics explores the relationship between humans and nature, society and itself, guided by the brand new ecological worldview in the post-modern context. It also changes the non-beauty state of human existence and establishes an aesthetic existence state that conforms to ecological laws.

Gender, Race, and Class in Media Bill Yousman, William E. Yousman, Lori Bindig Yousman, Gail Dines, Jean McMahon Humez, 2020-07-24. Incisive analyses of mass media including such forms as talk shows, MTV, the internet, soap operas, television sitcoms, dramatic series, pornography, and advertising enable this provocative new edition of Gender, Race, and Class in Media to engage students in critical mass media scholarship. Issues of power related to gender, race, and class are integrated into a wide range of articles examining the economic and cultural implications of mass media as institutions, including the political economy of media production, textual analysis, and media consumption. Throughout Gender, Race, and Class in Media, the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities, especially in regard to gender, race, and class.

Exploding Aesthetics Annette W. Balkema, Henk Slager, 2001. L.B. Besides the presentations and discussions from these symposia, this volume includes various arguments, positions, and statements in both articles and interviews by a variety of visual artists, designers, advertising professionals, theorists, and curators.

Cross-Cultural Journalism and Strategic Communication Maria E. Len-Rios, Ernest L. Perry, 2019-11-01. Built using the hands-on and pioneering Missouri Method, this textbook prepares readers to write about and communicate with people of different backgrounds, offering real-world examples of how to practice excellent journalism and strategic communication that takes culture into account. No matter the communication purpose, this book will help readers engage with difference and the concept of fault lines and to identify and mitigate bias. It provides guidance on communicating the complexity inherent in issues such as crime, immigration, and sports, and understanding census data, gathering methods, and terms to craft stories or strategic campaigns. Above all, the book encourages readers to reconsider assumptions about race, class, gender, identity, sexual orientation, immigration status, religion, disability, and age, and recognize communicators' responsibilities in shaping national discussions. This new edition addresses the ever-changing political and social climate, differentiates excellent journalism from punditry, and shows the business value of understanding diverse perspectives. A fantastic introduction to this complex but important field, this book is perfect for students teachers and early career communicators The combination of a hands on approach and pull out boxes with the diverse voices curated by editors Mar a Len R os and Earnest Perry make this an ideal text for the classroom and beyond

Life in One Breath Donald J. Lococo,2021-08-04 In this collection of meditations Lococo reflects on the meaning of freedom creation and beauty addressing the meaning of each to science and when met with science s recurring silence offers theology as another way in As he revisits and revitalizes notions of transcendent truth goodness and beauty in an age that seems to have long given up on them he unearths Catholicism s forgotten scholarly wisdom tradition ultimately paying tribute to two of the greatest religious thinkers of the twentieth century The author asks How might Christianity reconcile the fruits of the knowledge of science with a fuller understanding of the meaning of becoming human
