Mecca and Main Street Geneive Abdo, 2007 Islam is America's fastest growing religion with more than six million Muslims in the United States all living in the shadow of 9/11 Who are our Muslim neighbors What are their beliefs and desires How are they coping with life under the War on Terror In Mecca and Main Street noted author and journalist Geneive Abdo offers illuminating answers to these questions Gaining unprecedented access to Muslim communities in America she traveled across the country visiting schools mosques Islamic centers radio stations and homes She reveals a community tired of being judged by American perceptions of Muslims overseas and eager to tell their own stories Abdo brings these stories vividly to life allowing us to hear their own voices and inviting us to understand their hopes and their fears Inspiring insightful tough minded and even handed this book will appeal to those curious or fearful about the Muslim presence in America It will also be warmly welcomed by the Muslim community

Teach Reading, Not Testing Liz Hollingworth, Hilleary M. Drake, 2012 Teaching IS rocket science and you are the pilot Teach Reading Not Testing reinforces what teachers already know test preparation worksheets and drill and kill activities do not make children into lifelong readers The authors' conscientious approach to reading instruction combines an insider perspective on the development of high stakes tests with classroom experience in achieving successful reading outcomes at the elementary and secondary levels

Their research based methodology building on teachers expertise about best practice is based on five key components
Aligning instruction to the state or national core standards Using formative assessment Connecting units to real world contexts Motivating students effectively Holding on to best practice in literacy instruction Included are end of chapter quizzes and real life scenarios plus a full chapter on teaching literacy with special populations Readers will find helpful solutions for teaching children to love reading in the midst of the accountability movement and an approach to test preparation that doesn t require teachers to sacrifice everything they already know about teaching kids to read     Pitman's Journal of Commercial Education ,1911     Appletons' Journal ,1869     The School Journal ,1882     The Chinese Students' Christian Journal ,1921     New York School Journal ,1904     New York Magazine ,1990-07-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
